Table with columns: ID, Name, Address, Phone, Email, Website, etc. The table contains a large block of yellowed rows (rows 185-430) and several rows of legible data below.

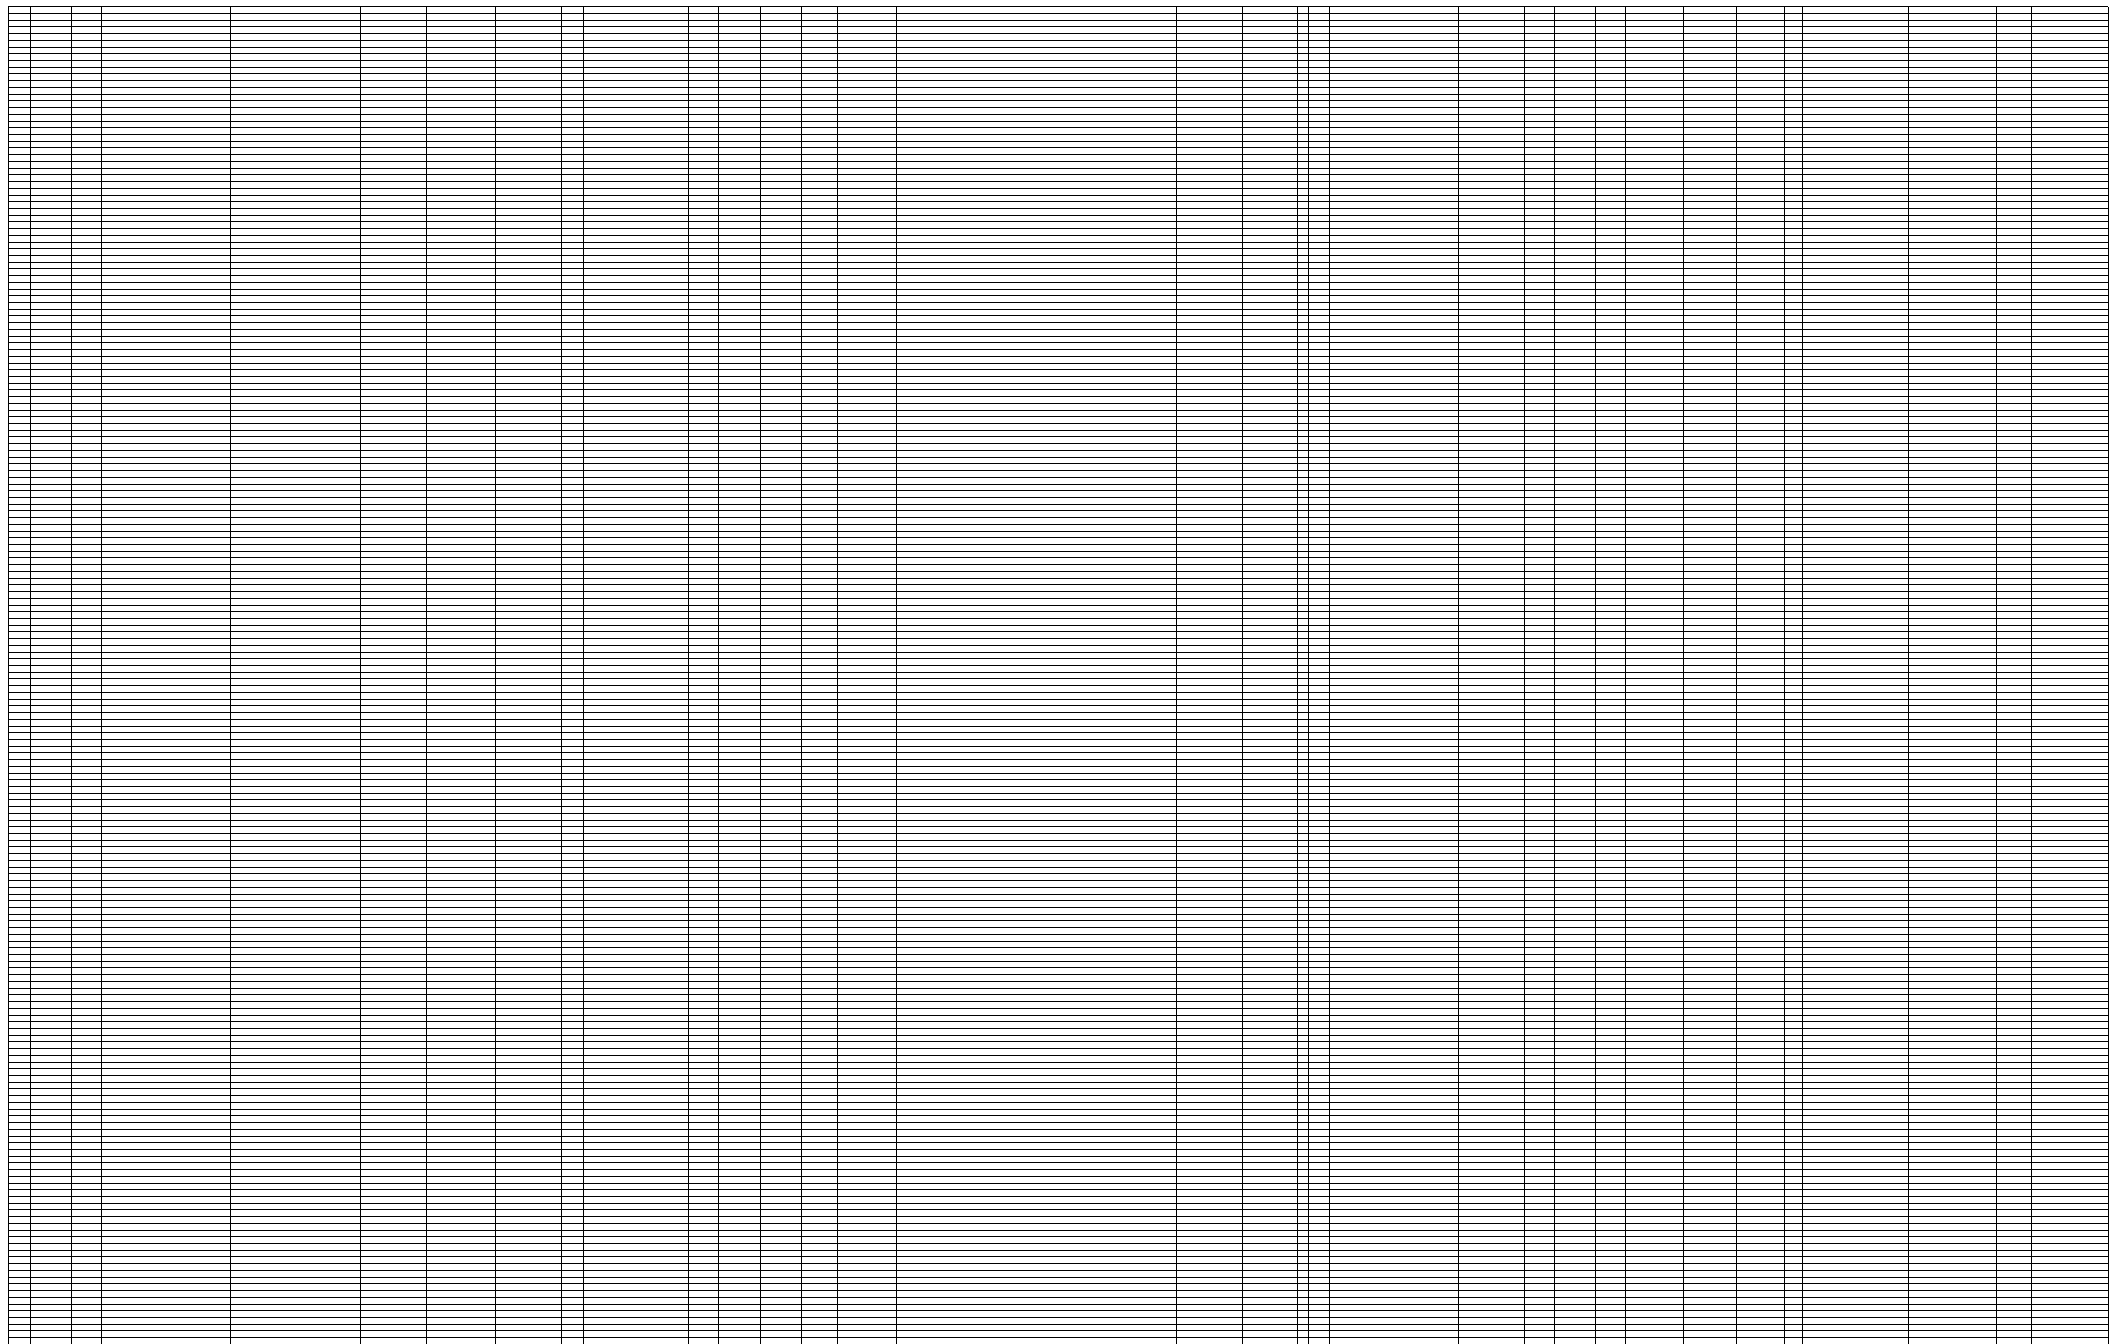

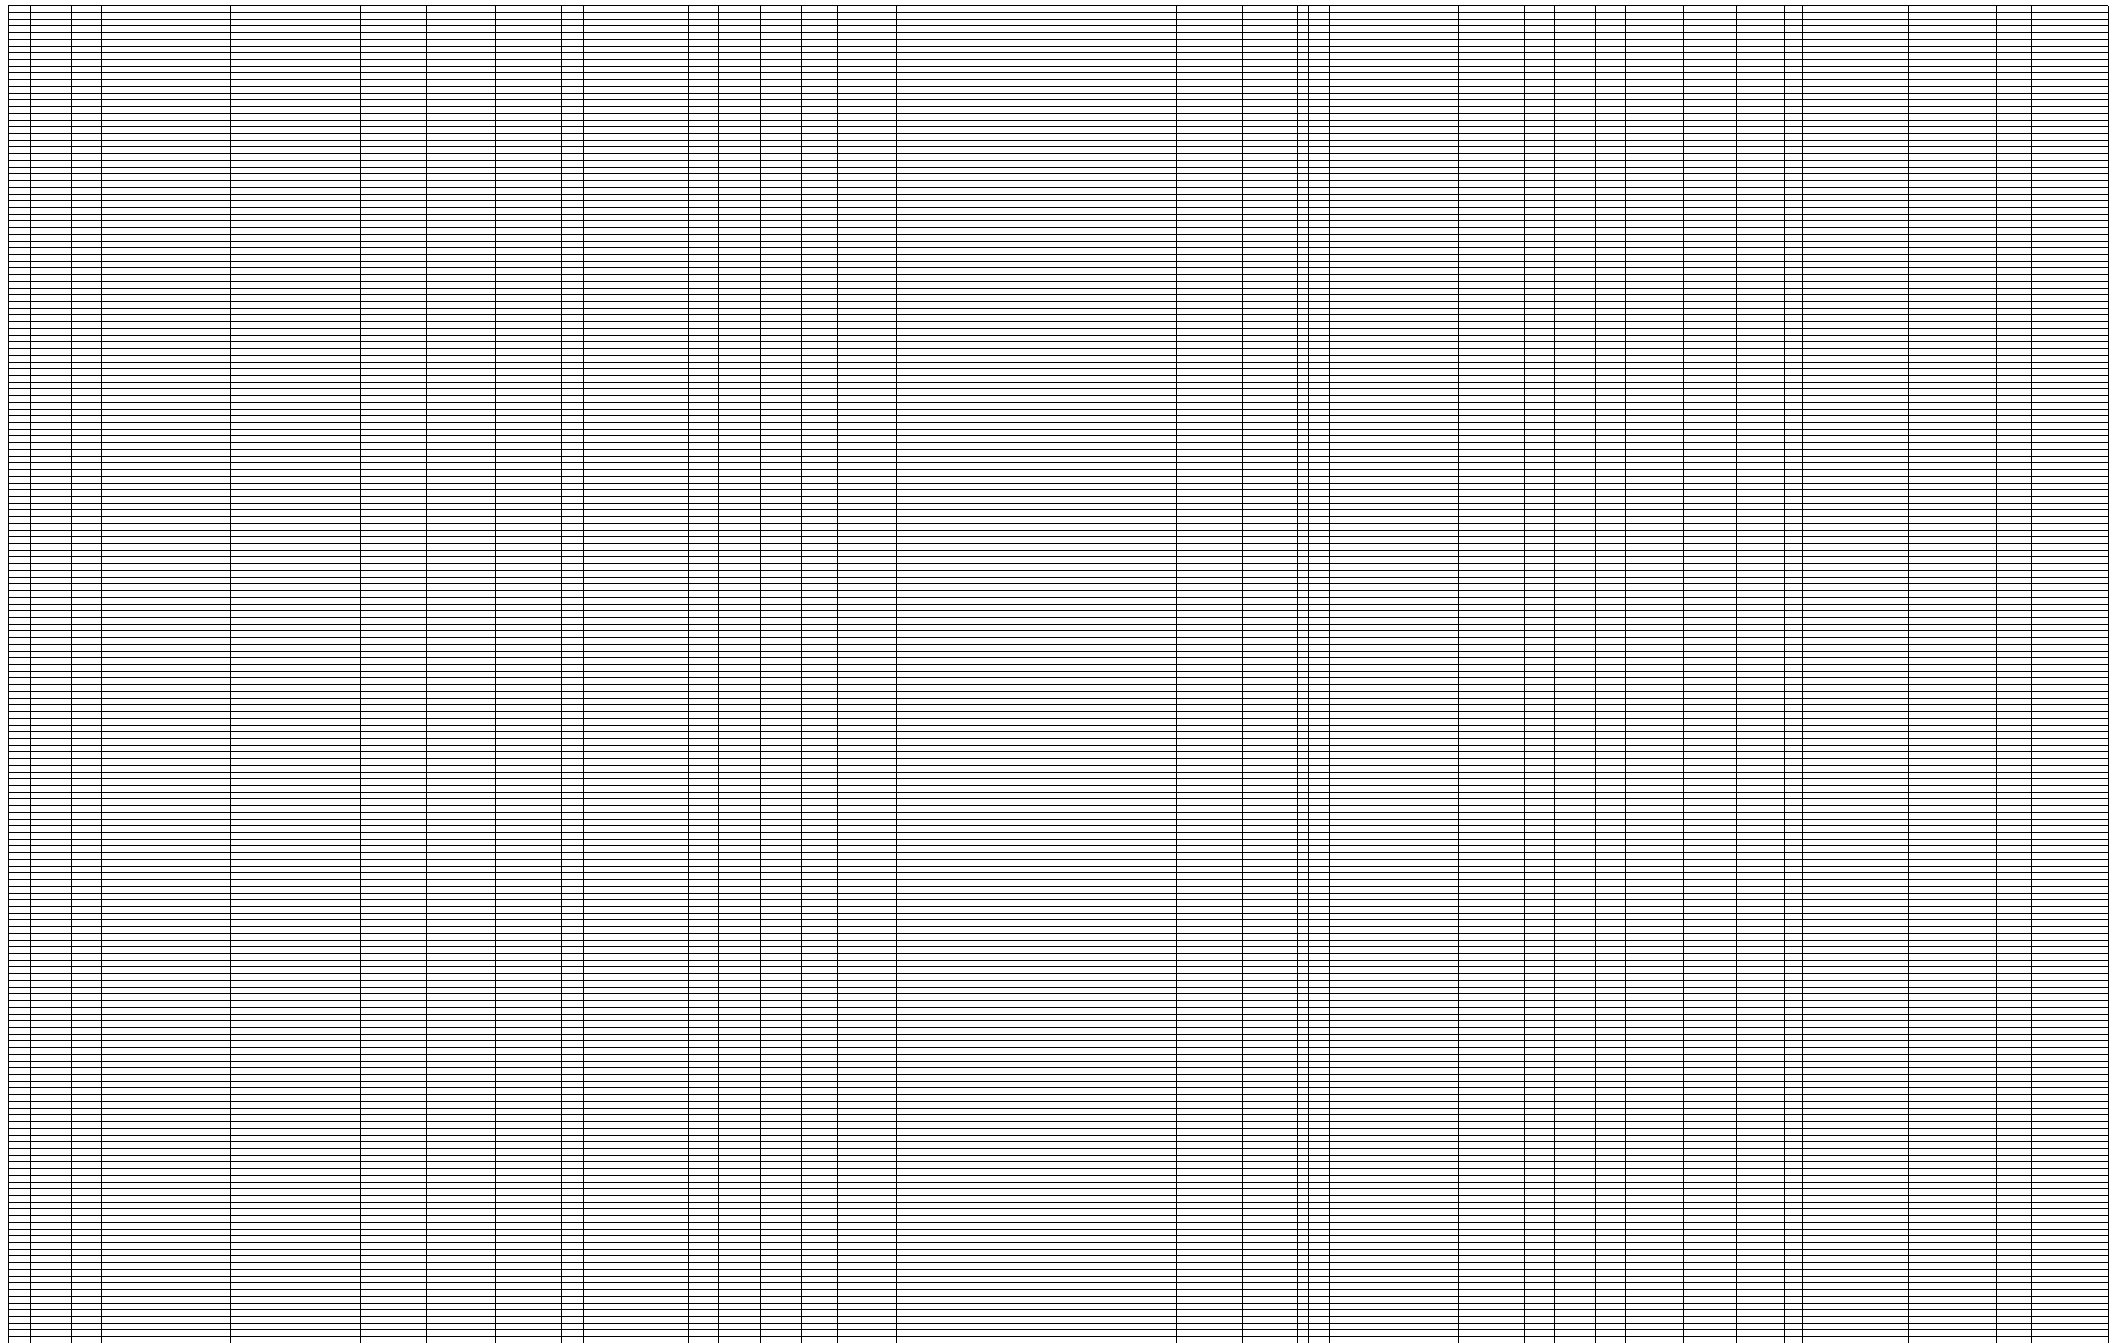

The image shows a blank sheet of graph paper. The grid consists of approximately 30 columns and 40 rows of small squares. The lines are thin and black, creating a uniform grid across the page. There is no text or other markings on the paper.

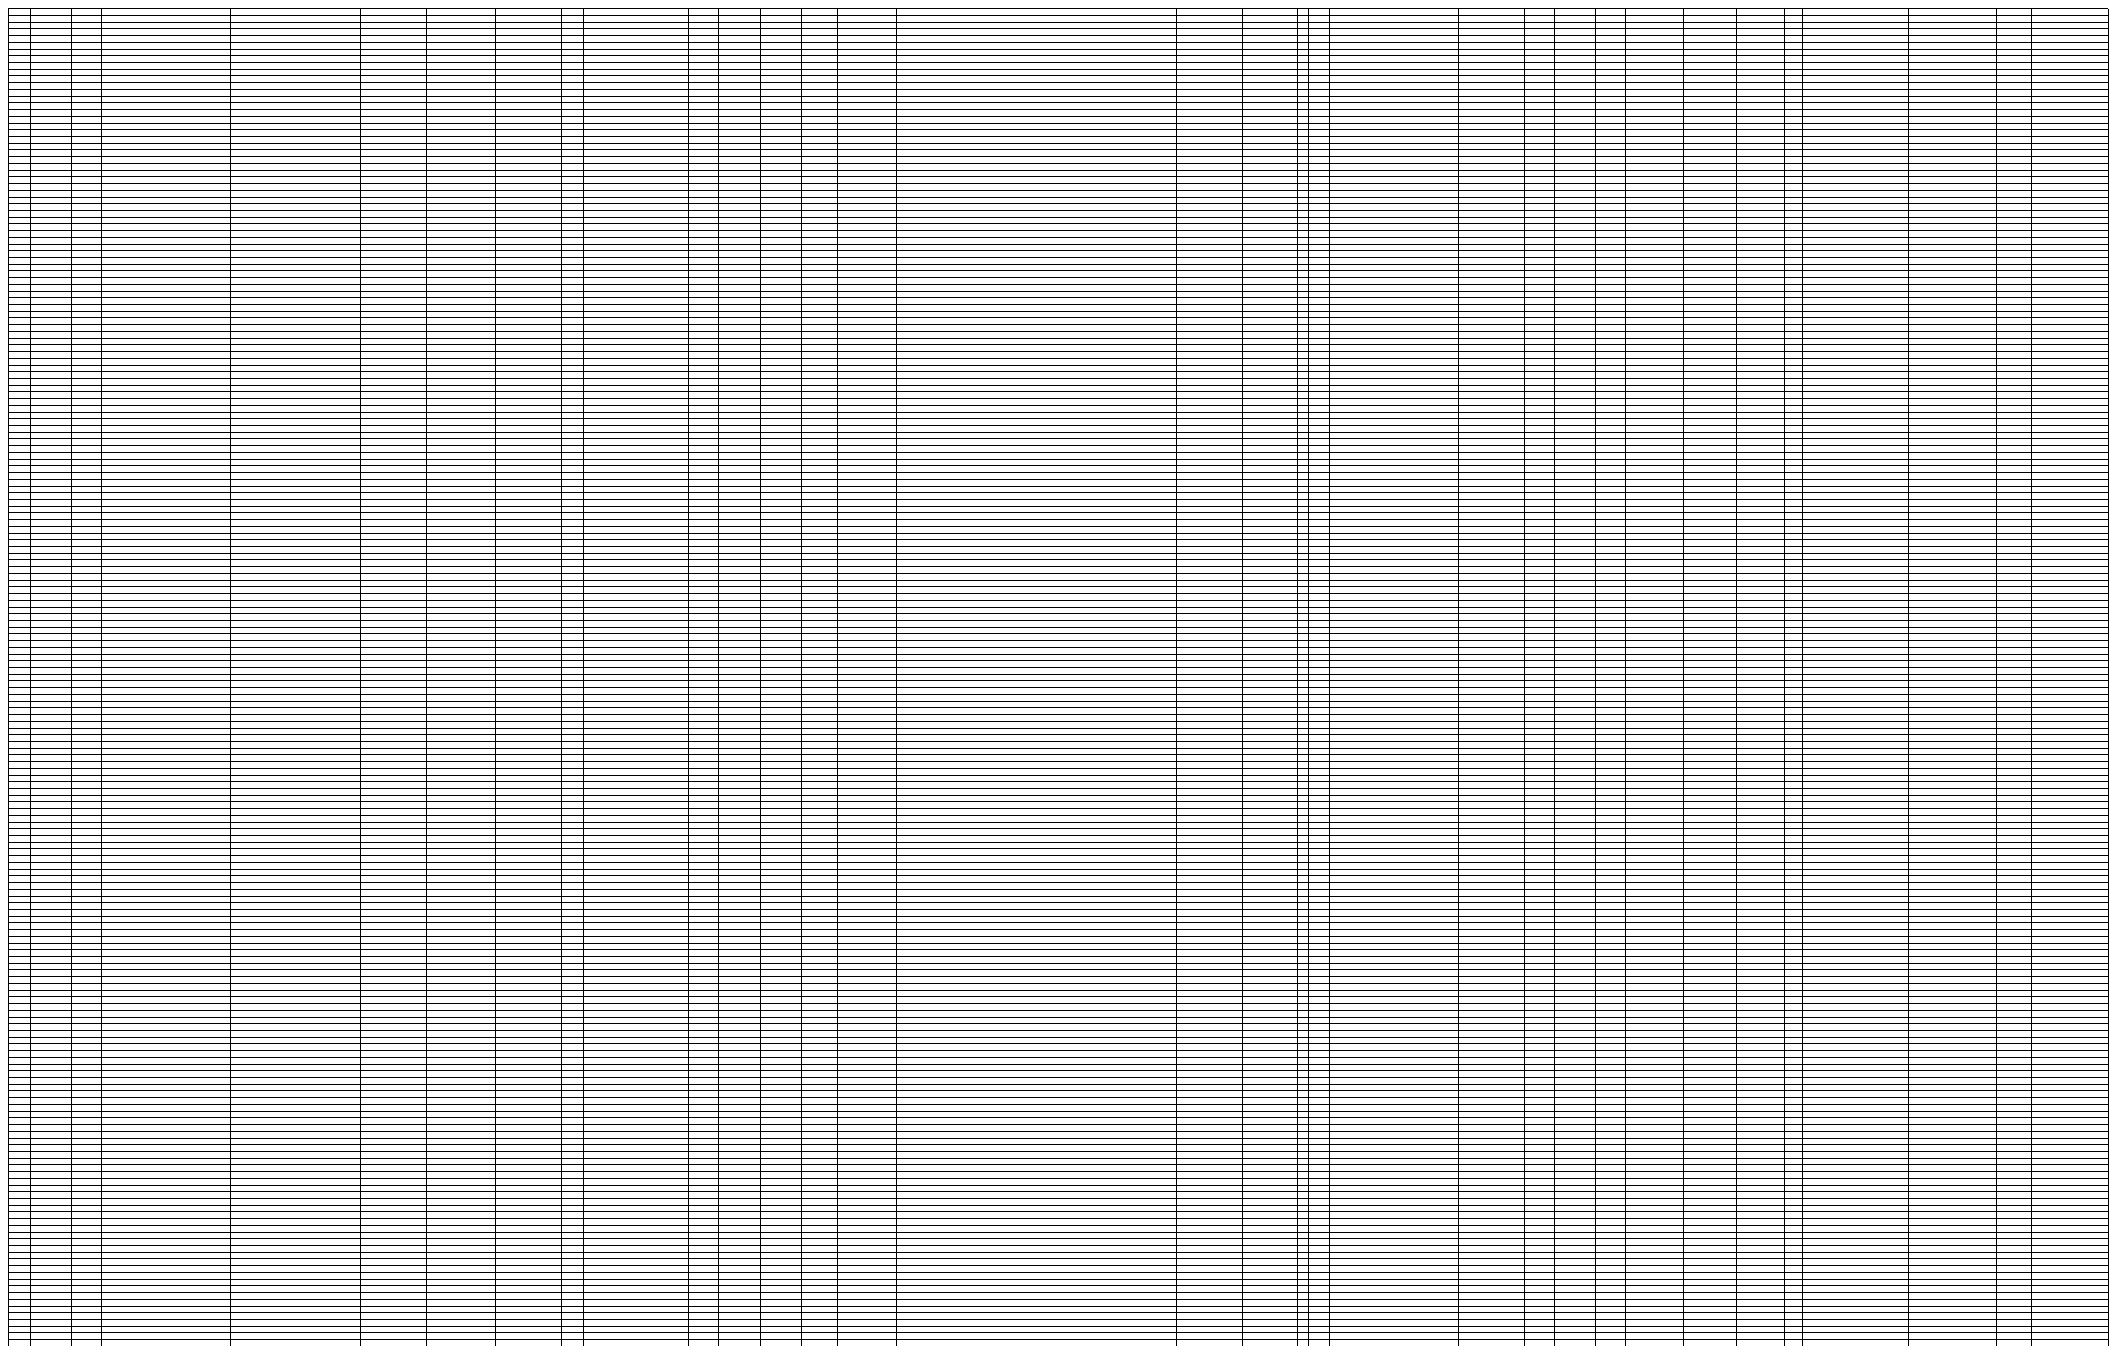

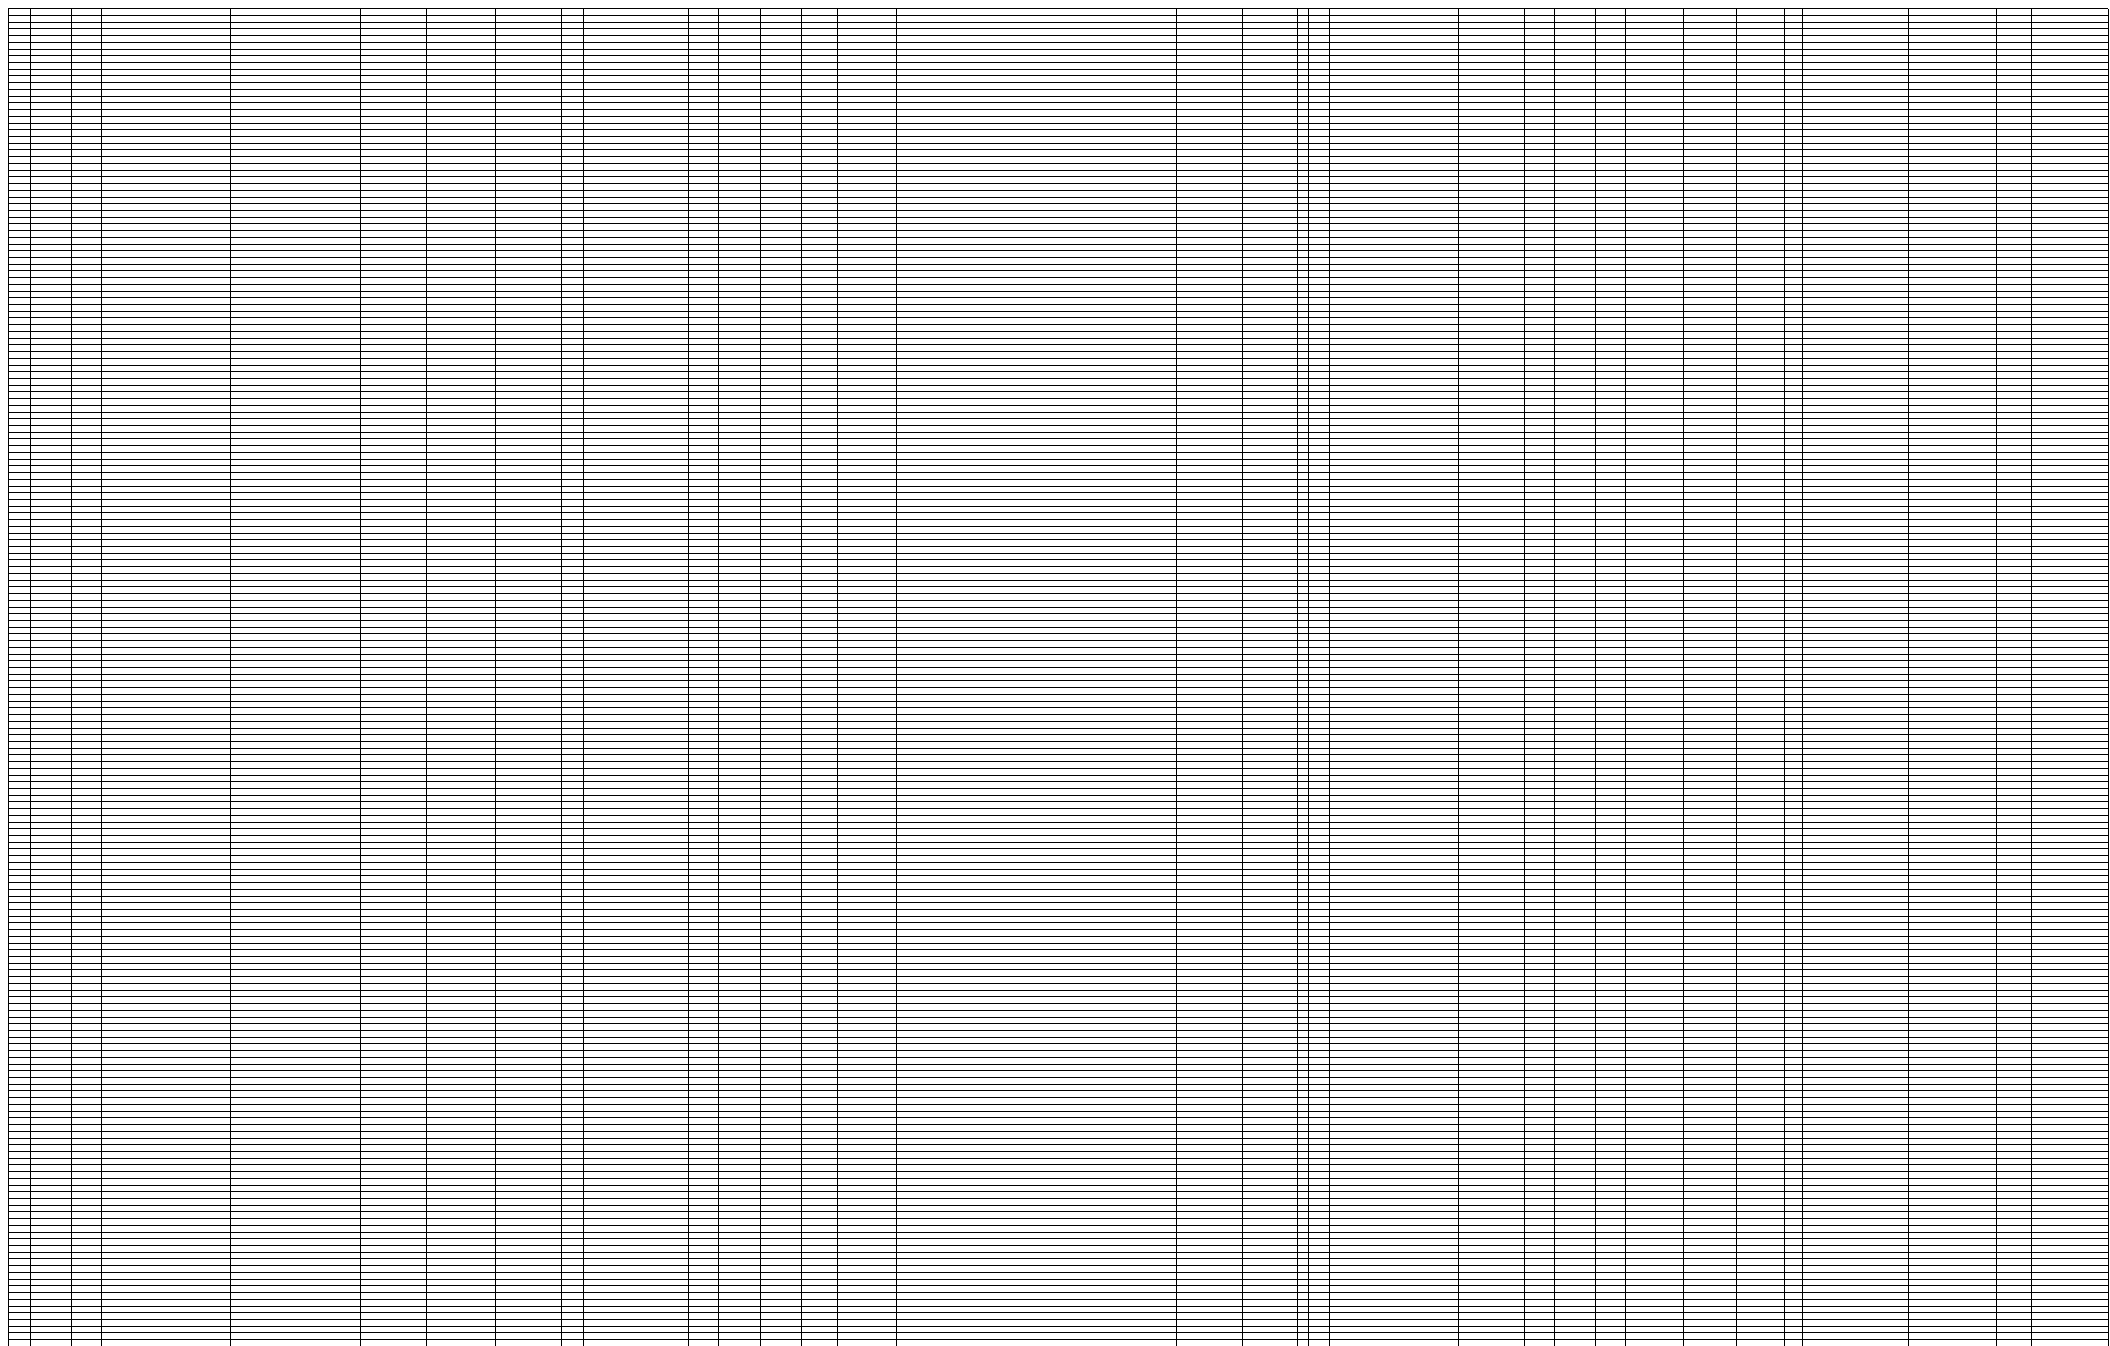

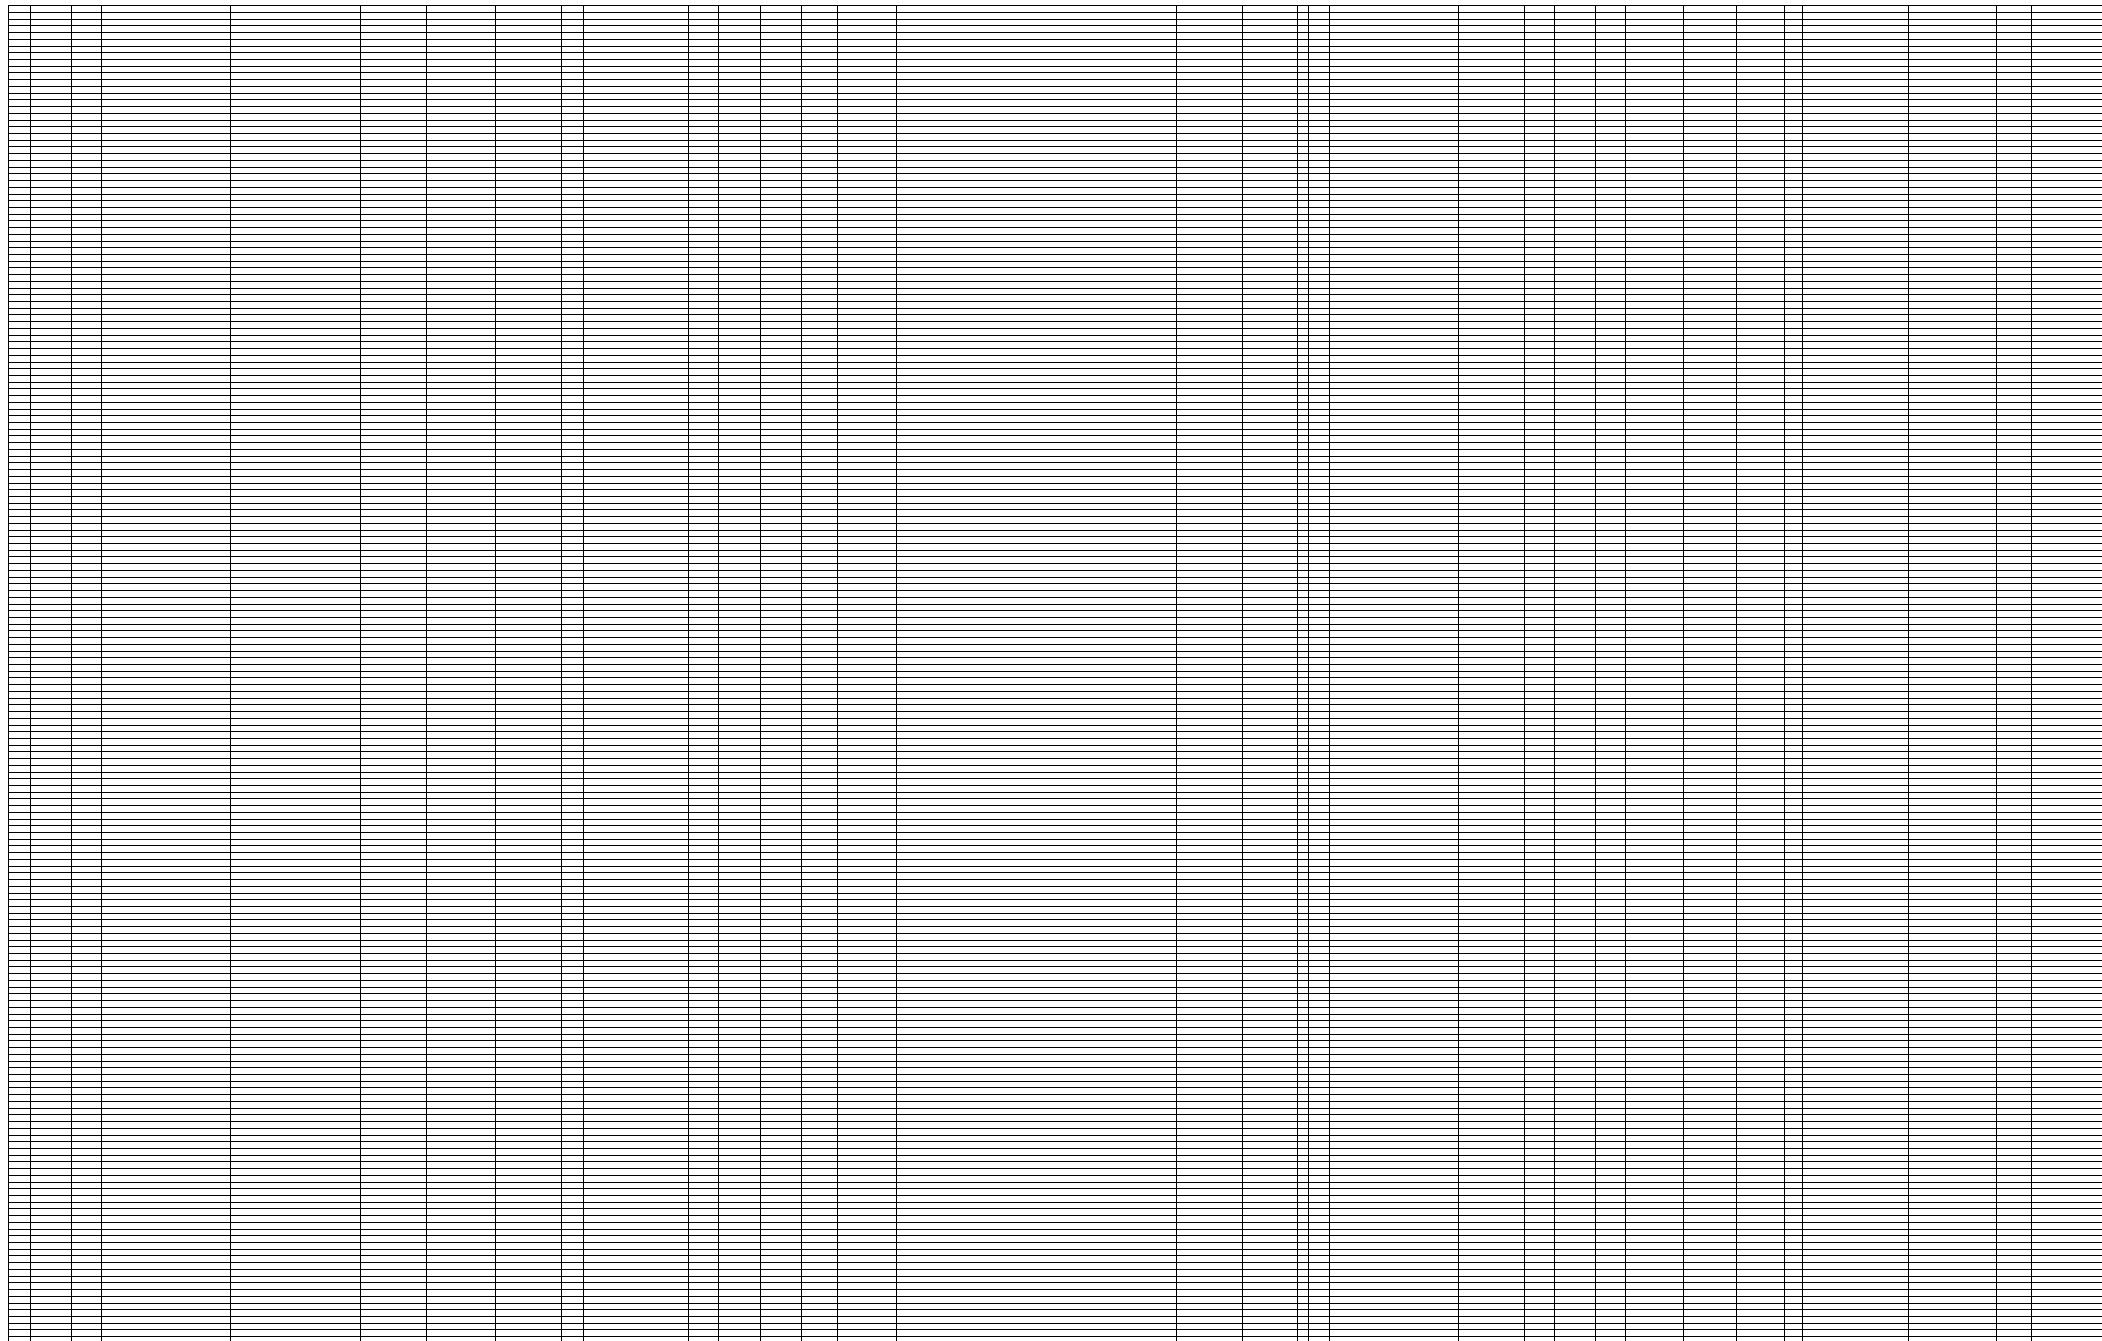

The image shows a grid of graph paper. The grid is composed of 42 vertical columns and 24 horizontal rows. A double vertical line runs down the center, separating the grid into two equal halves of 21 columns each. Each column is a square, and the grid is empty of any text or markings.

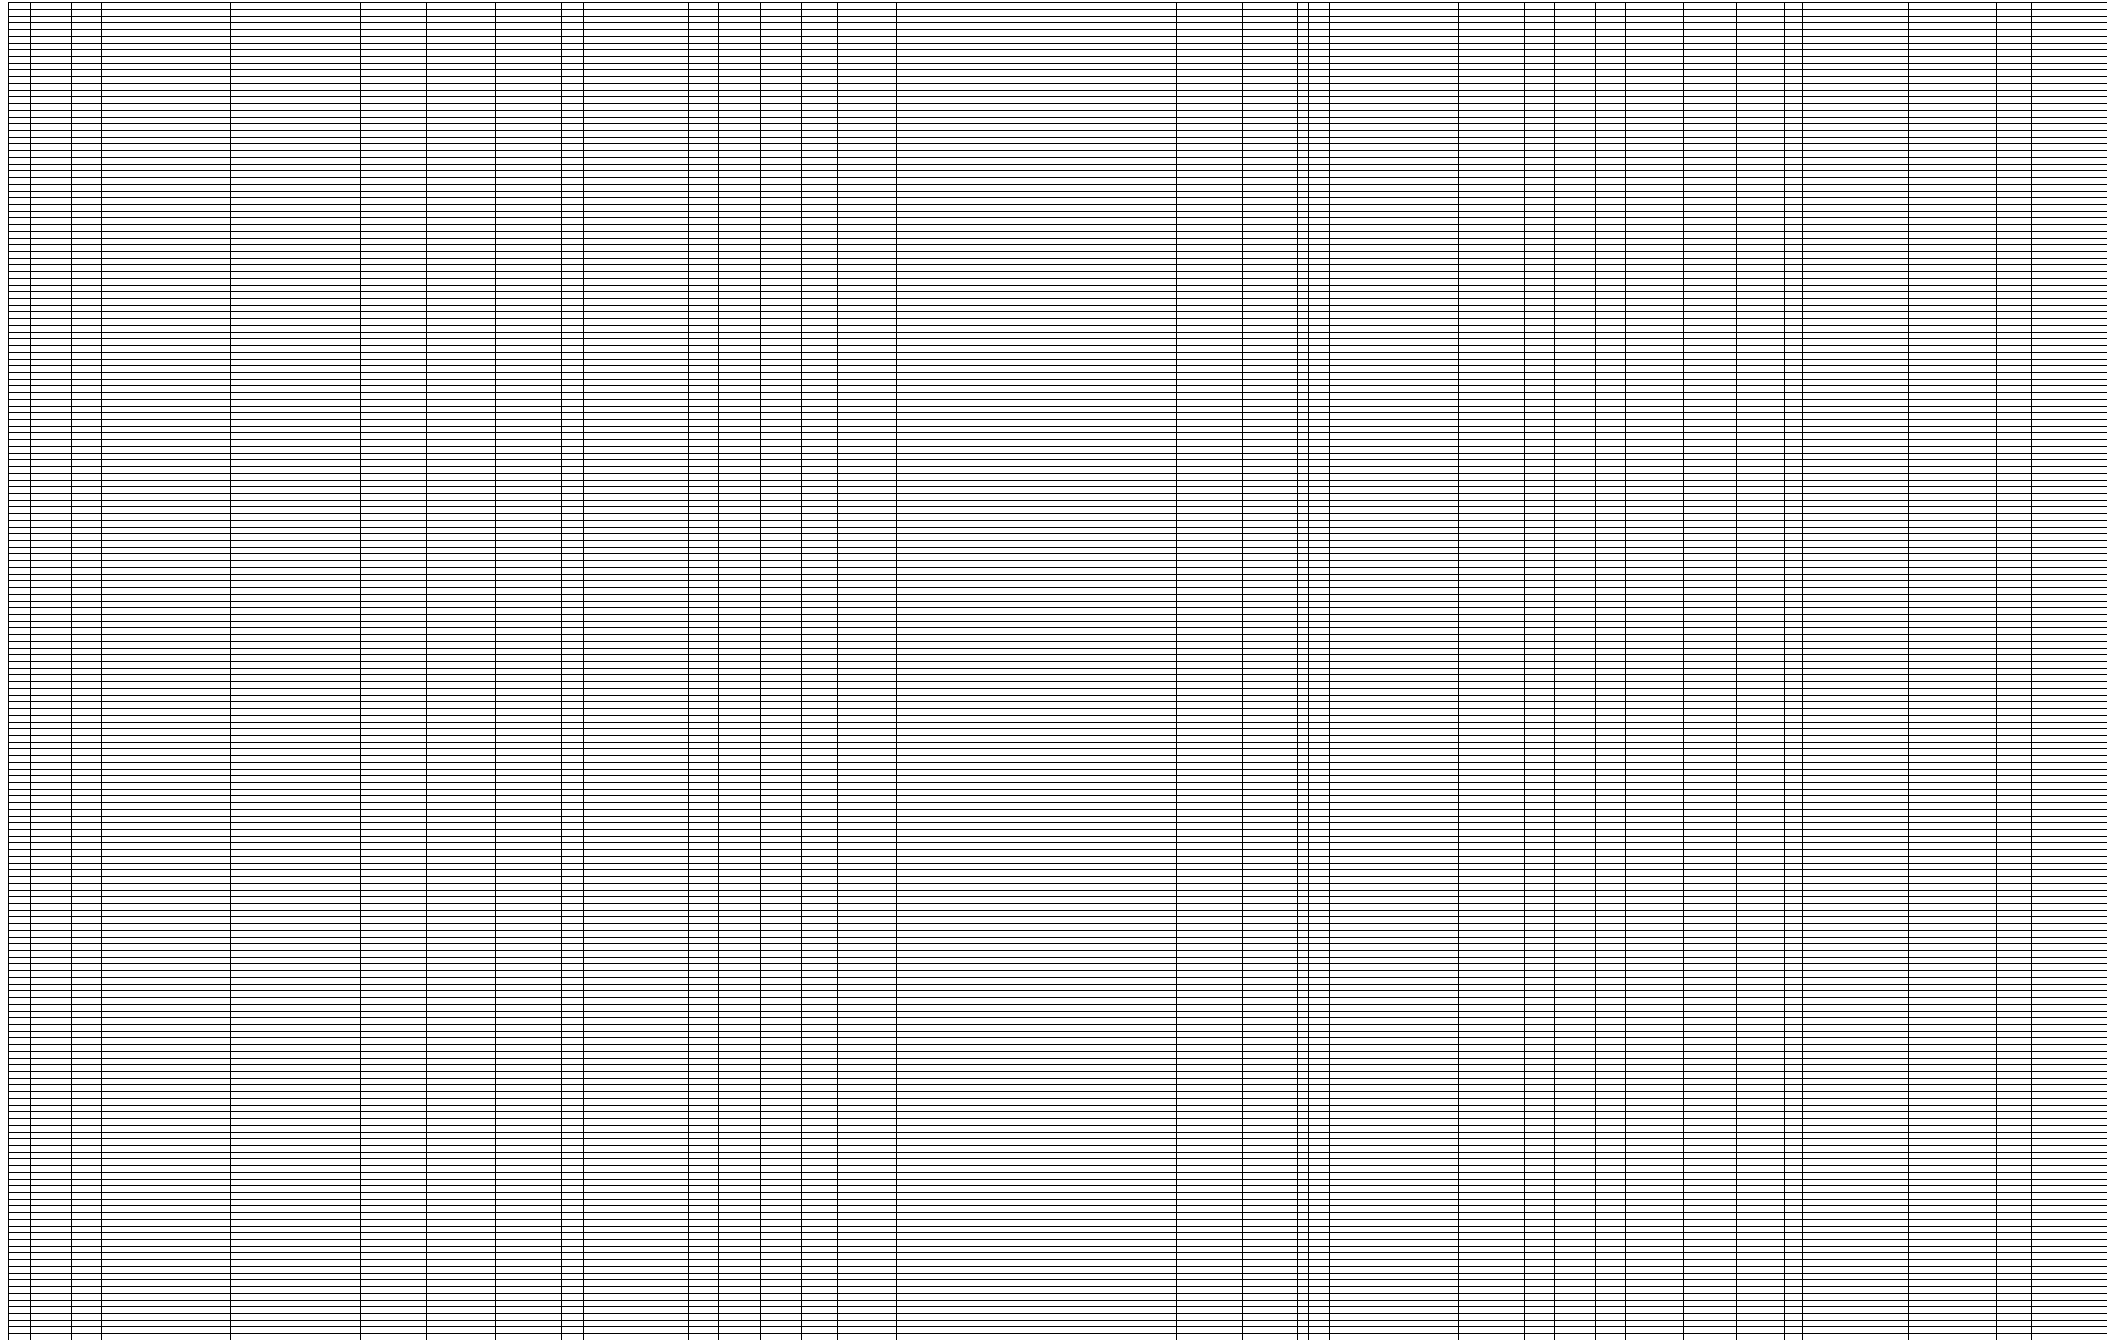

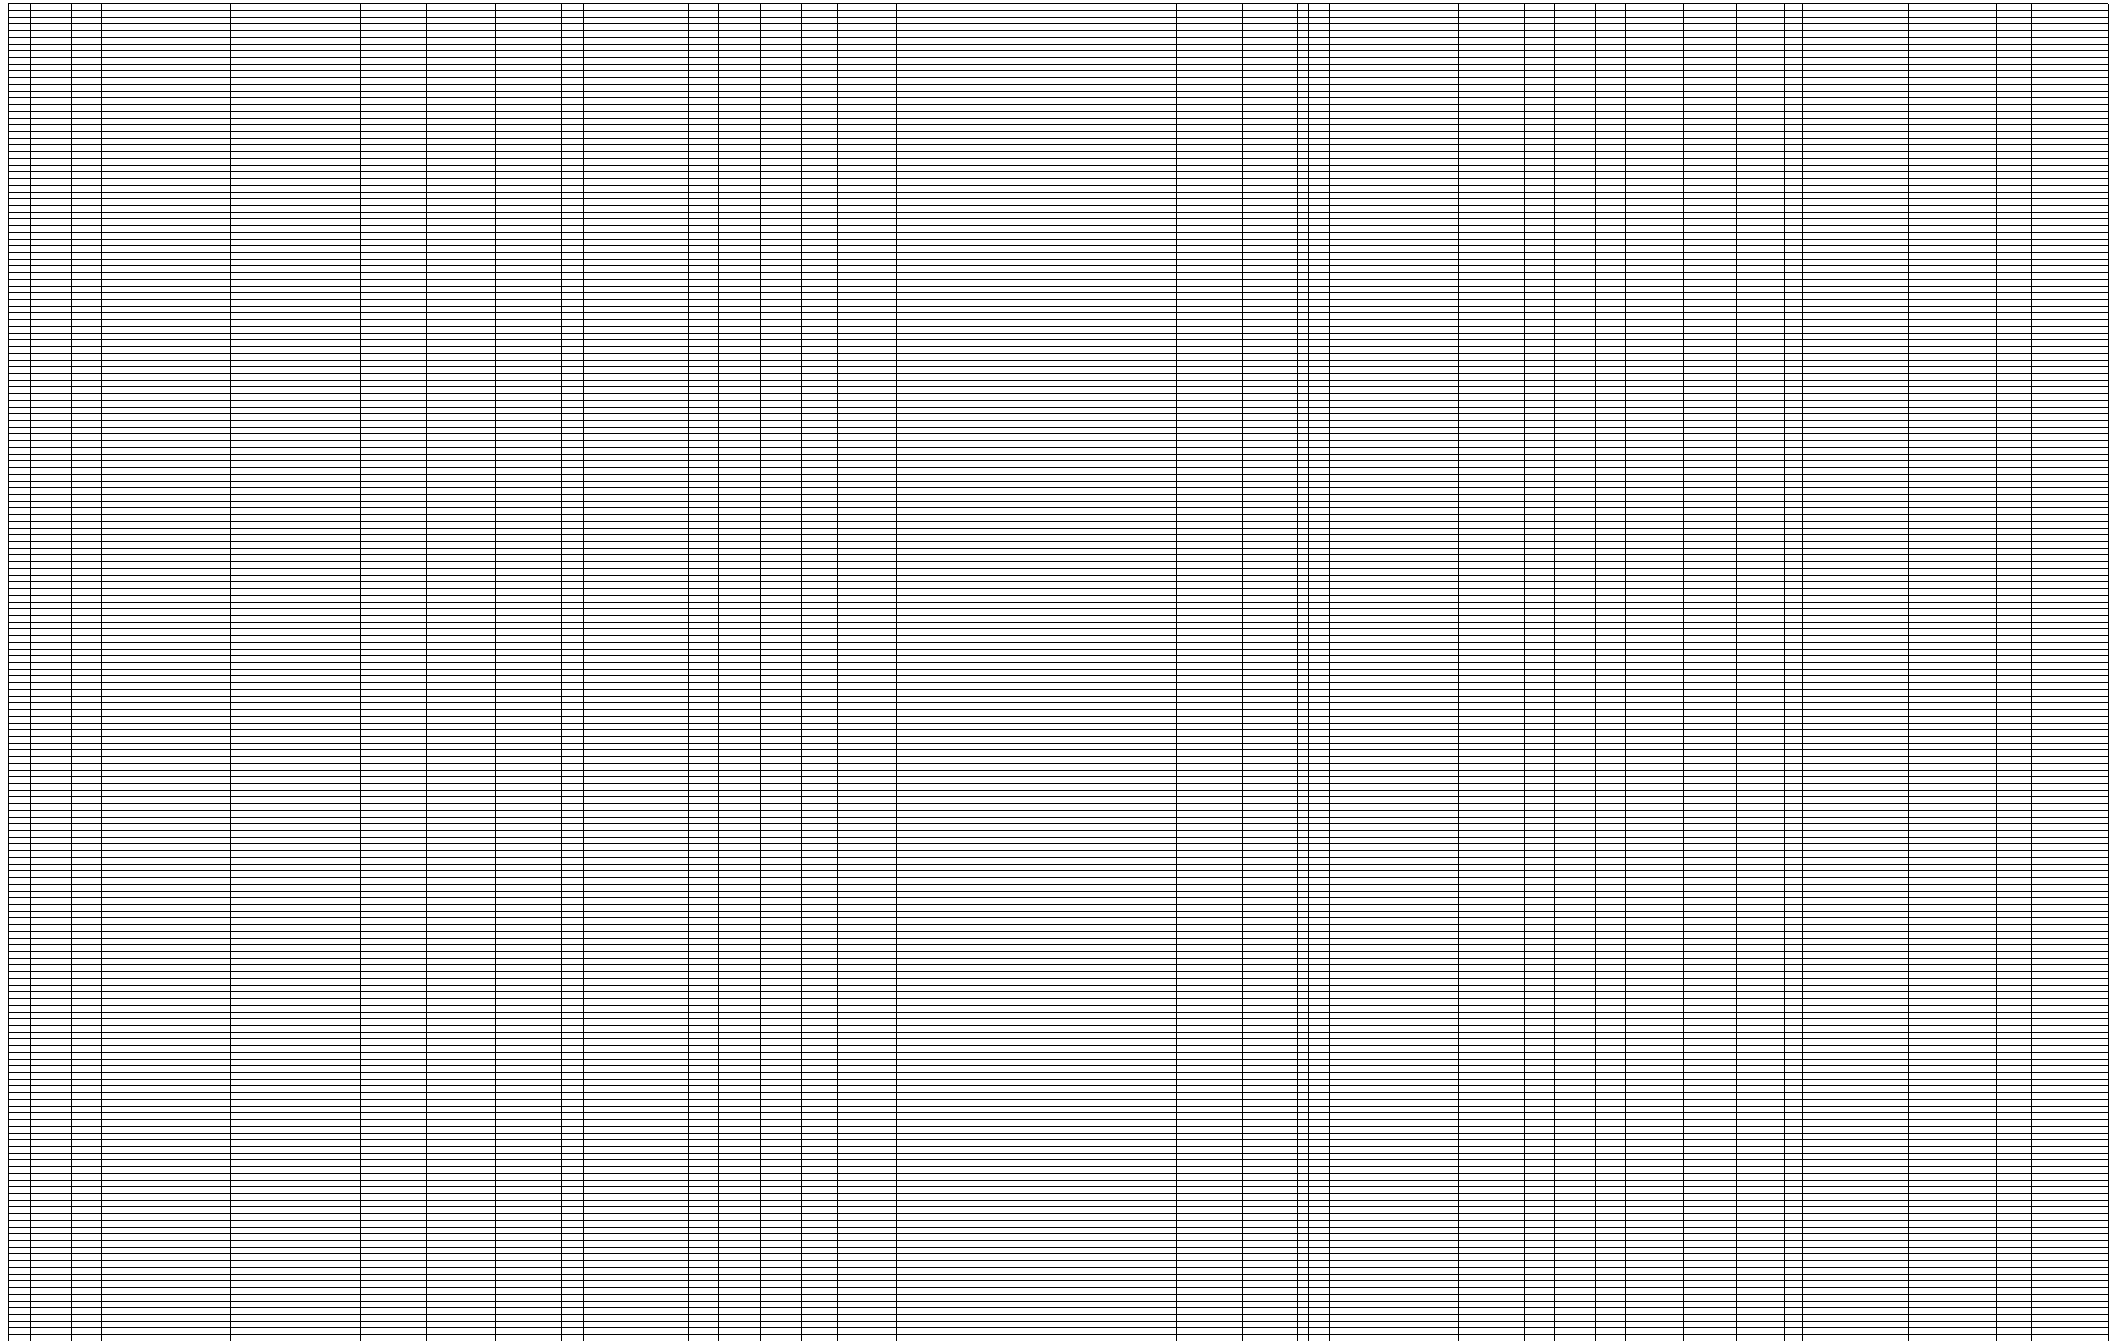

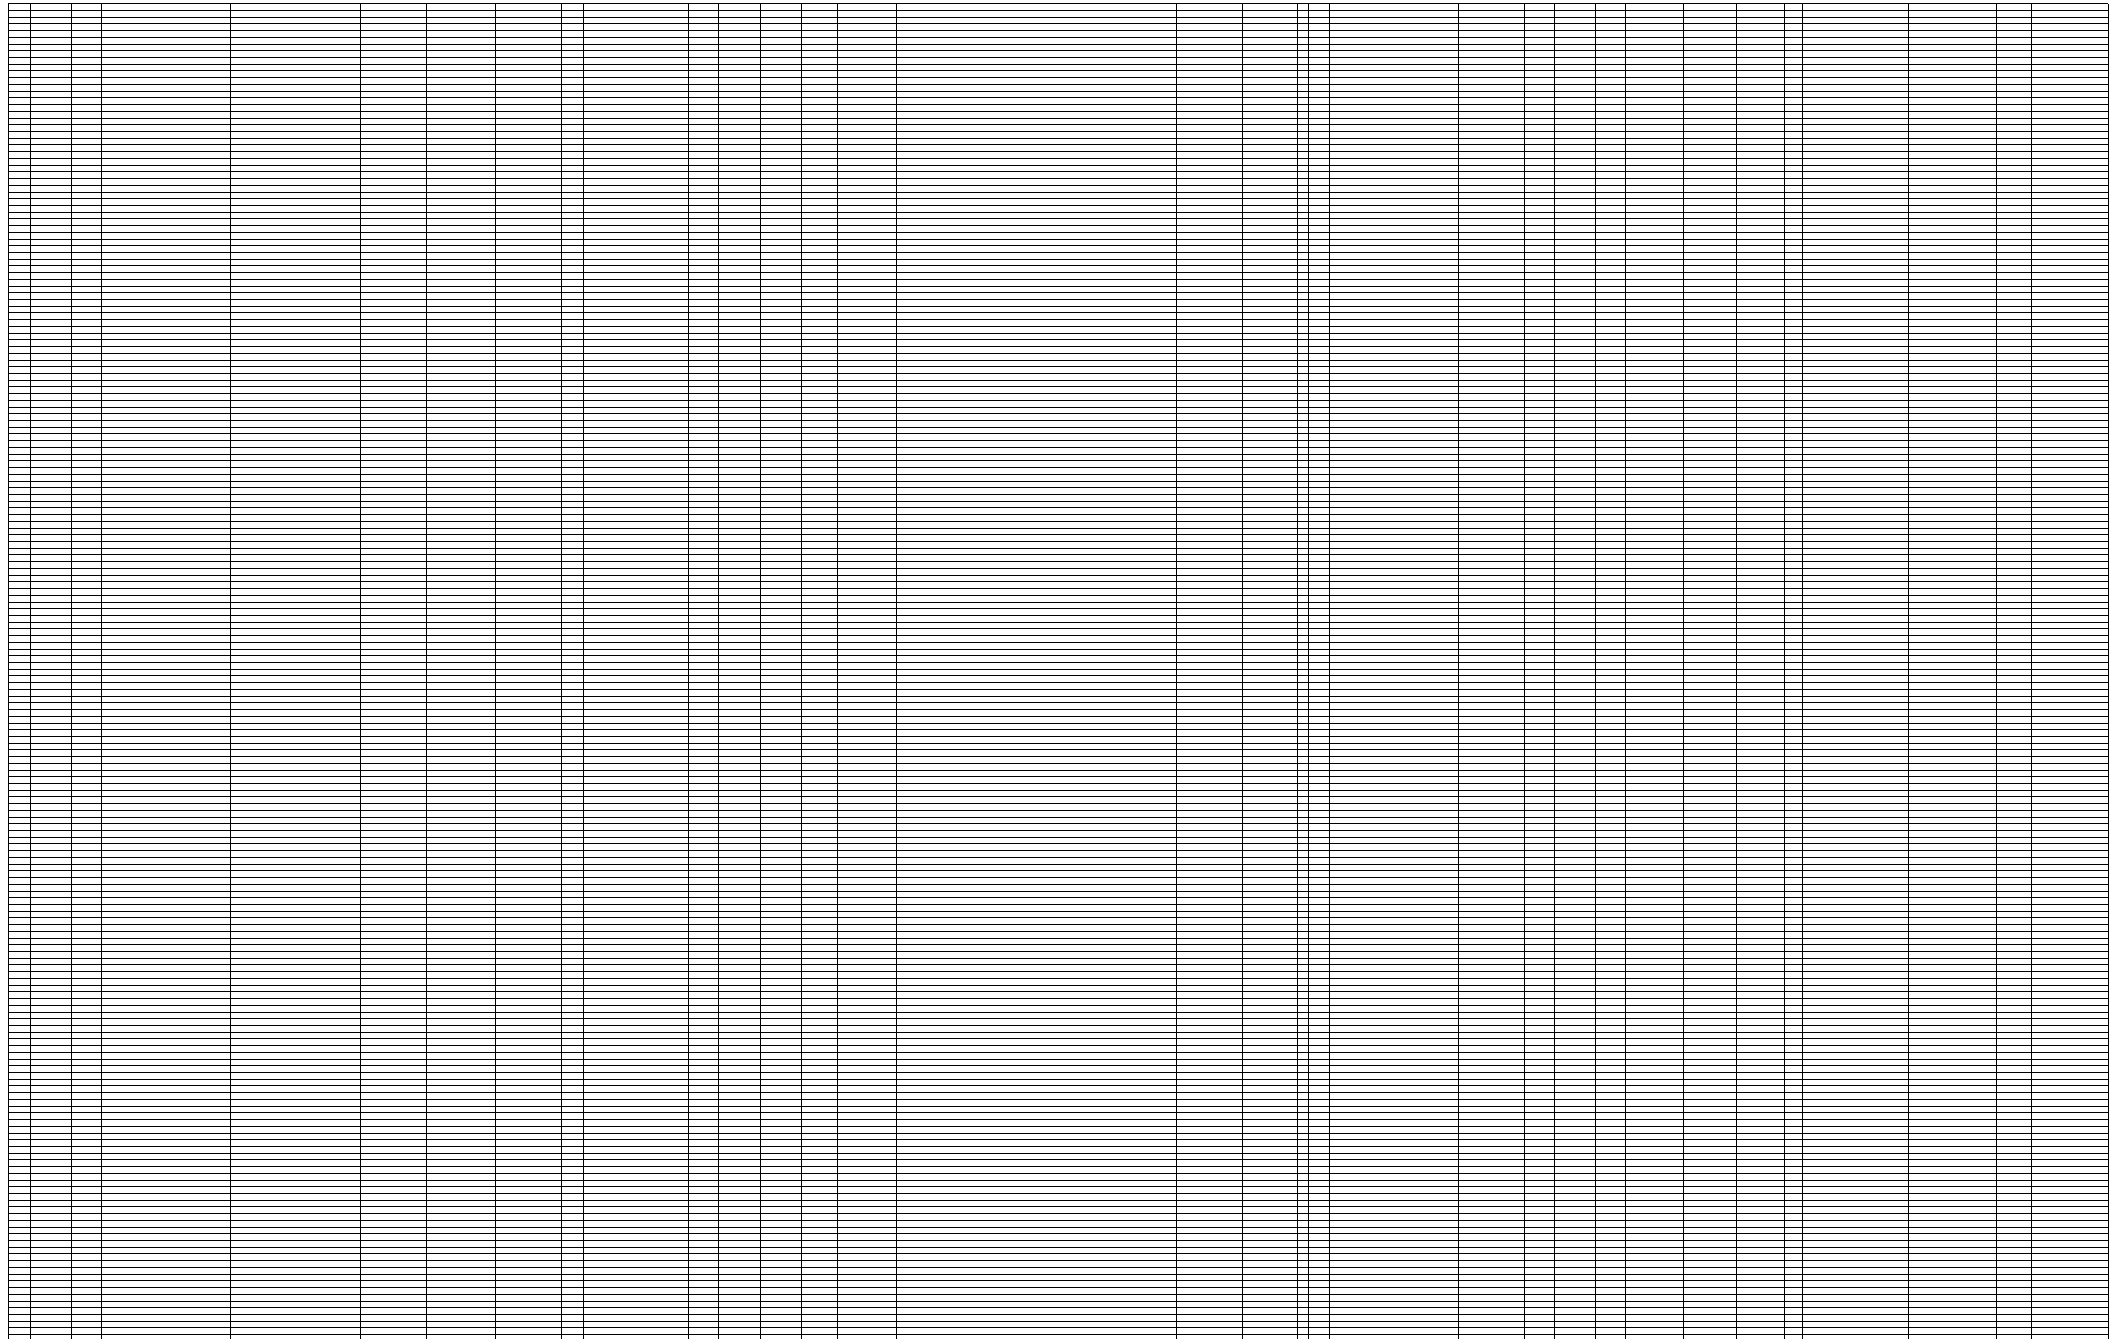

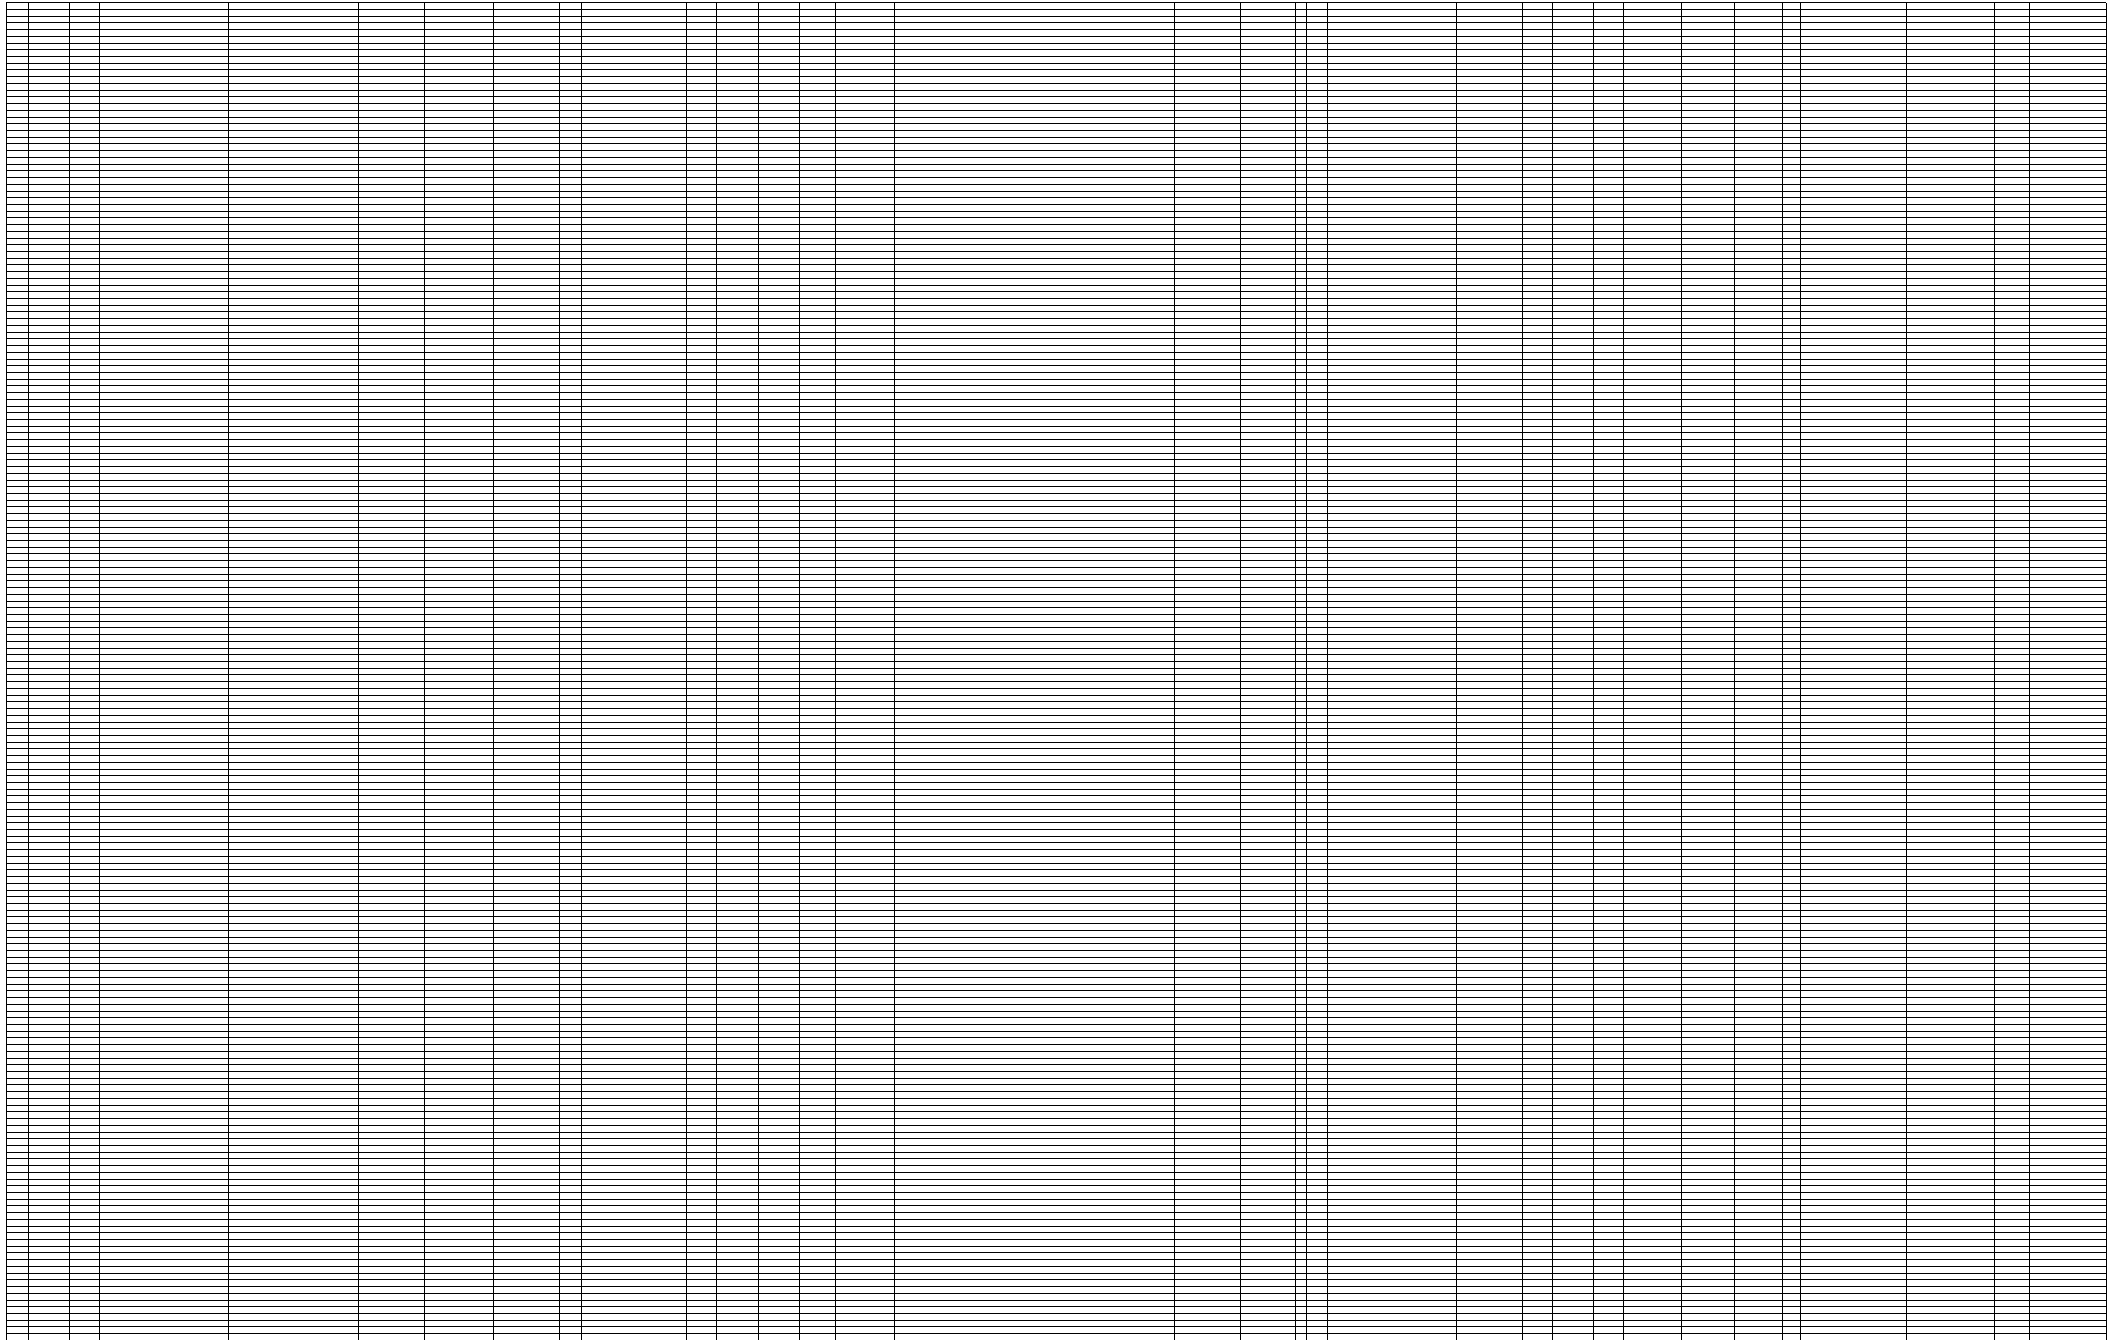

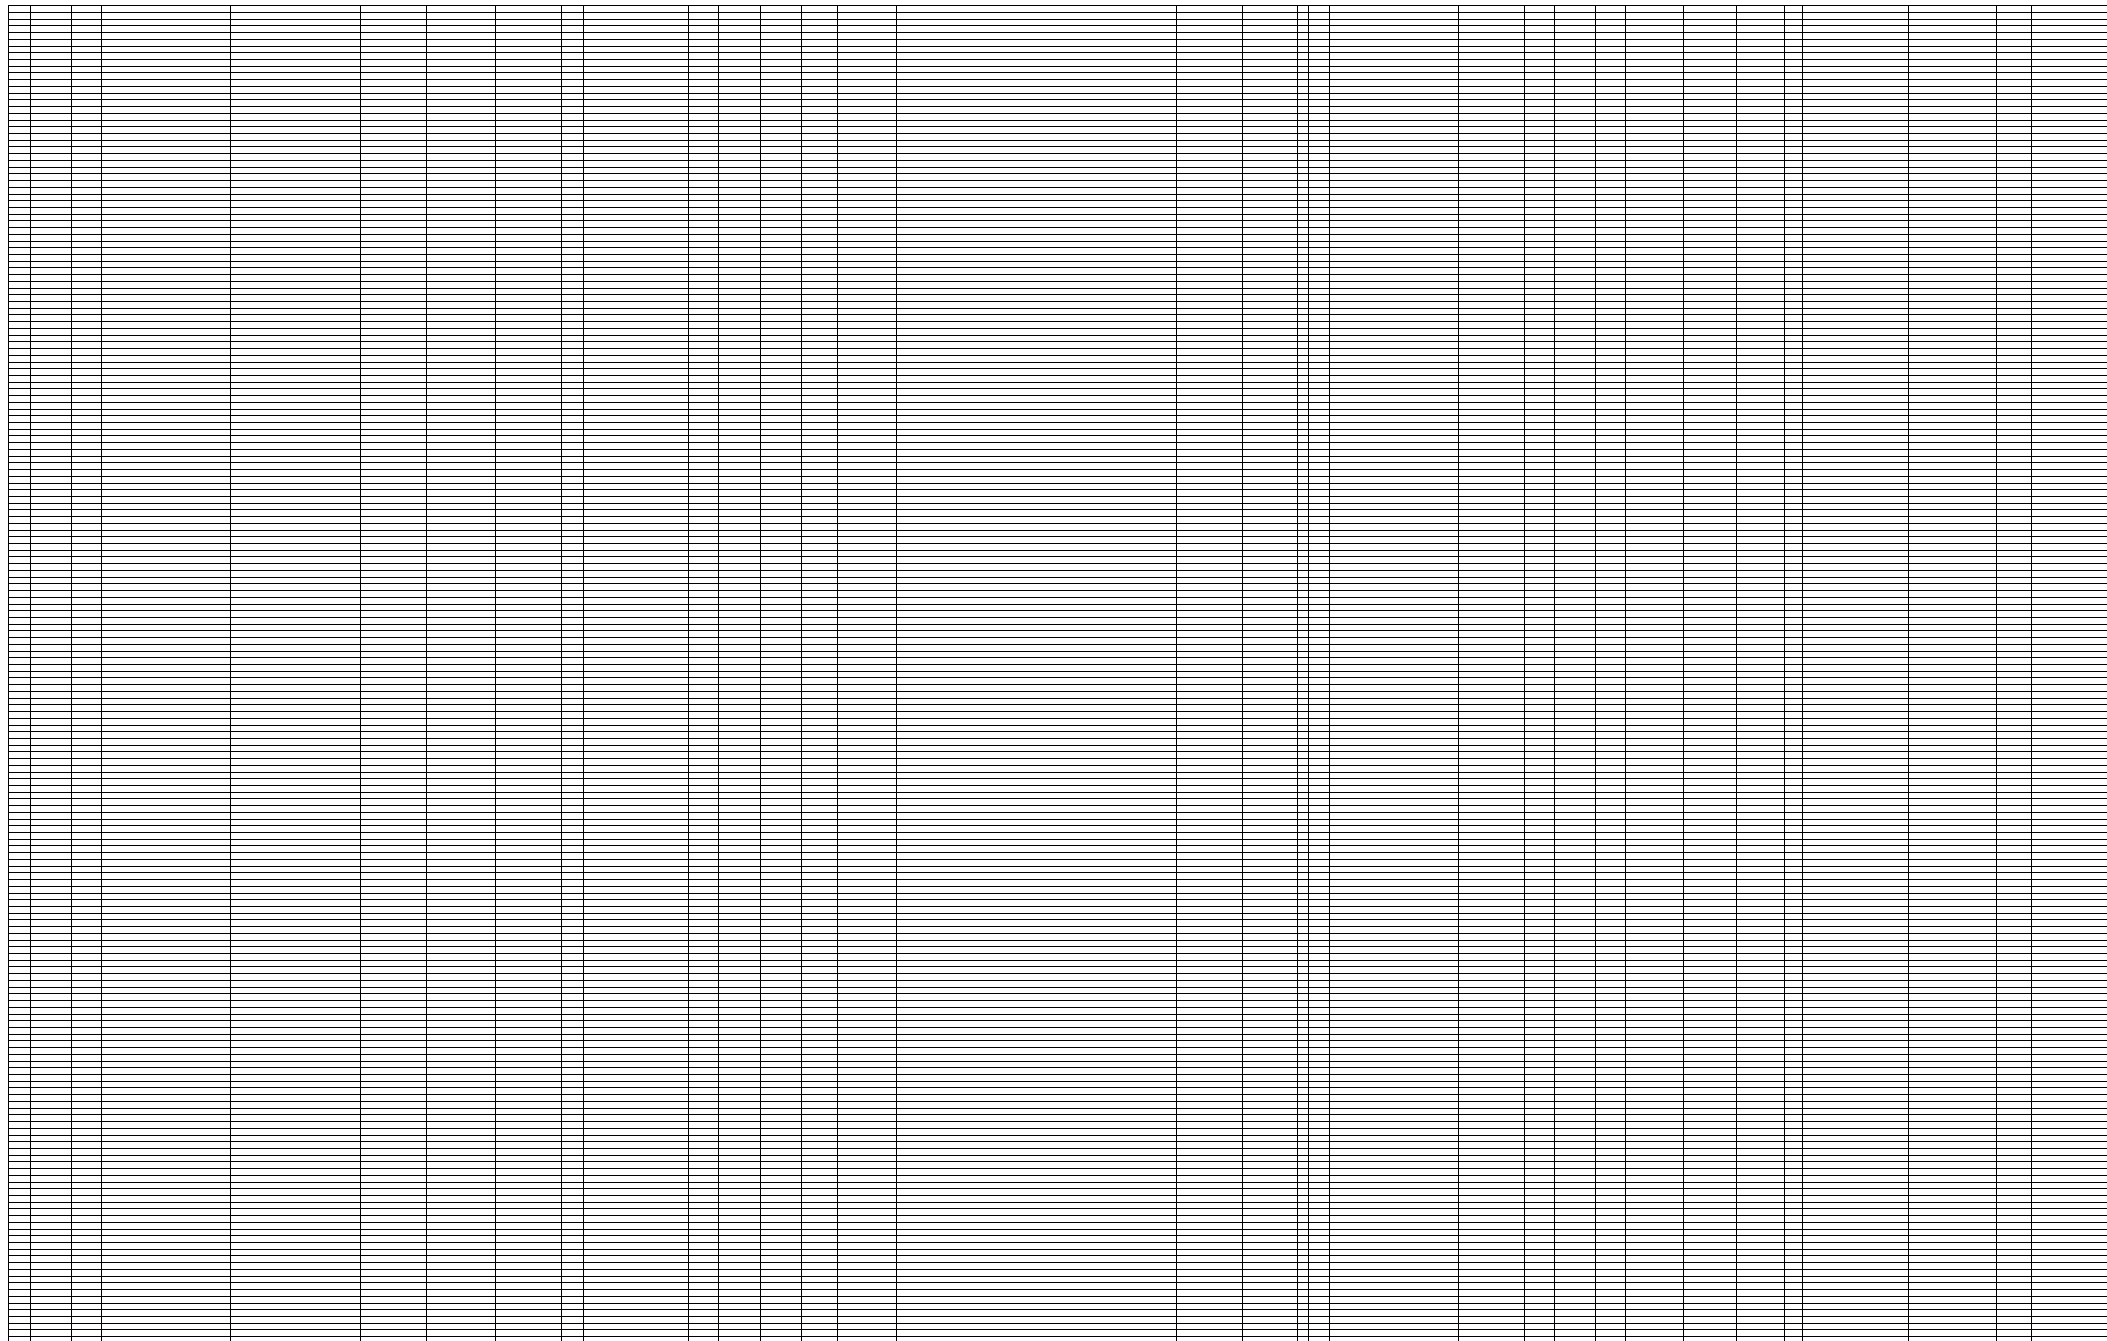

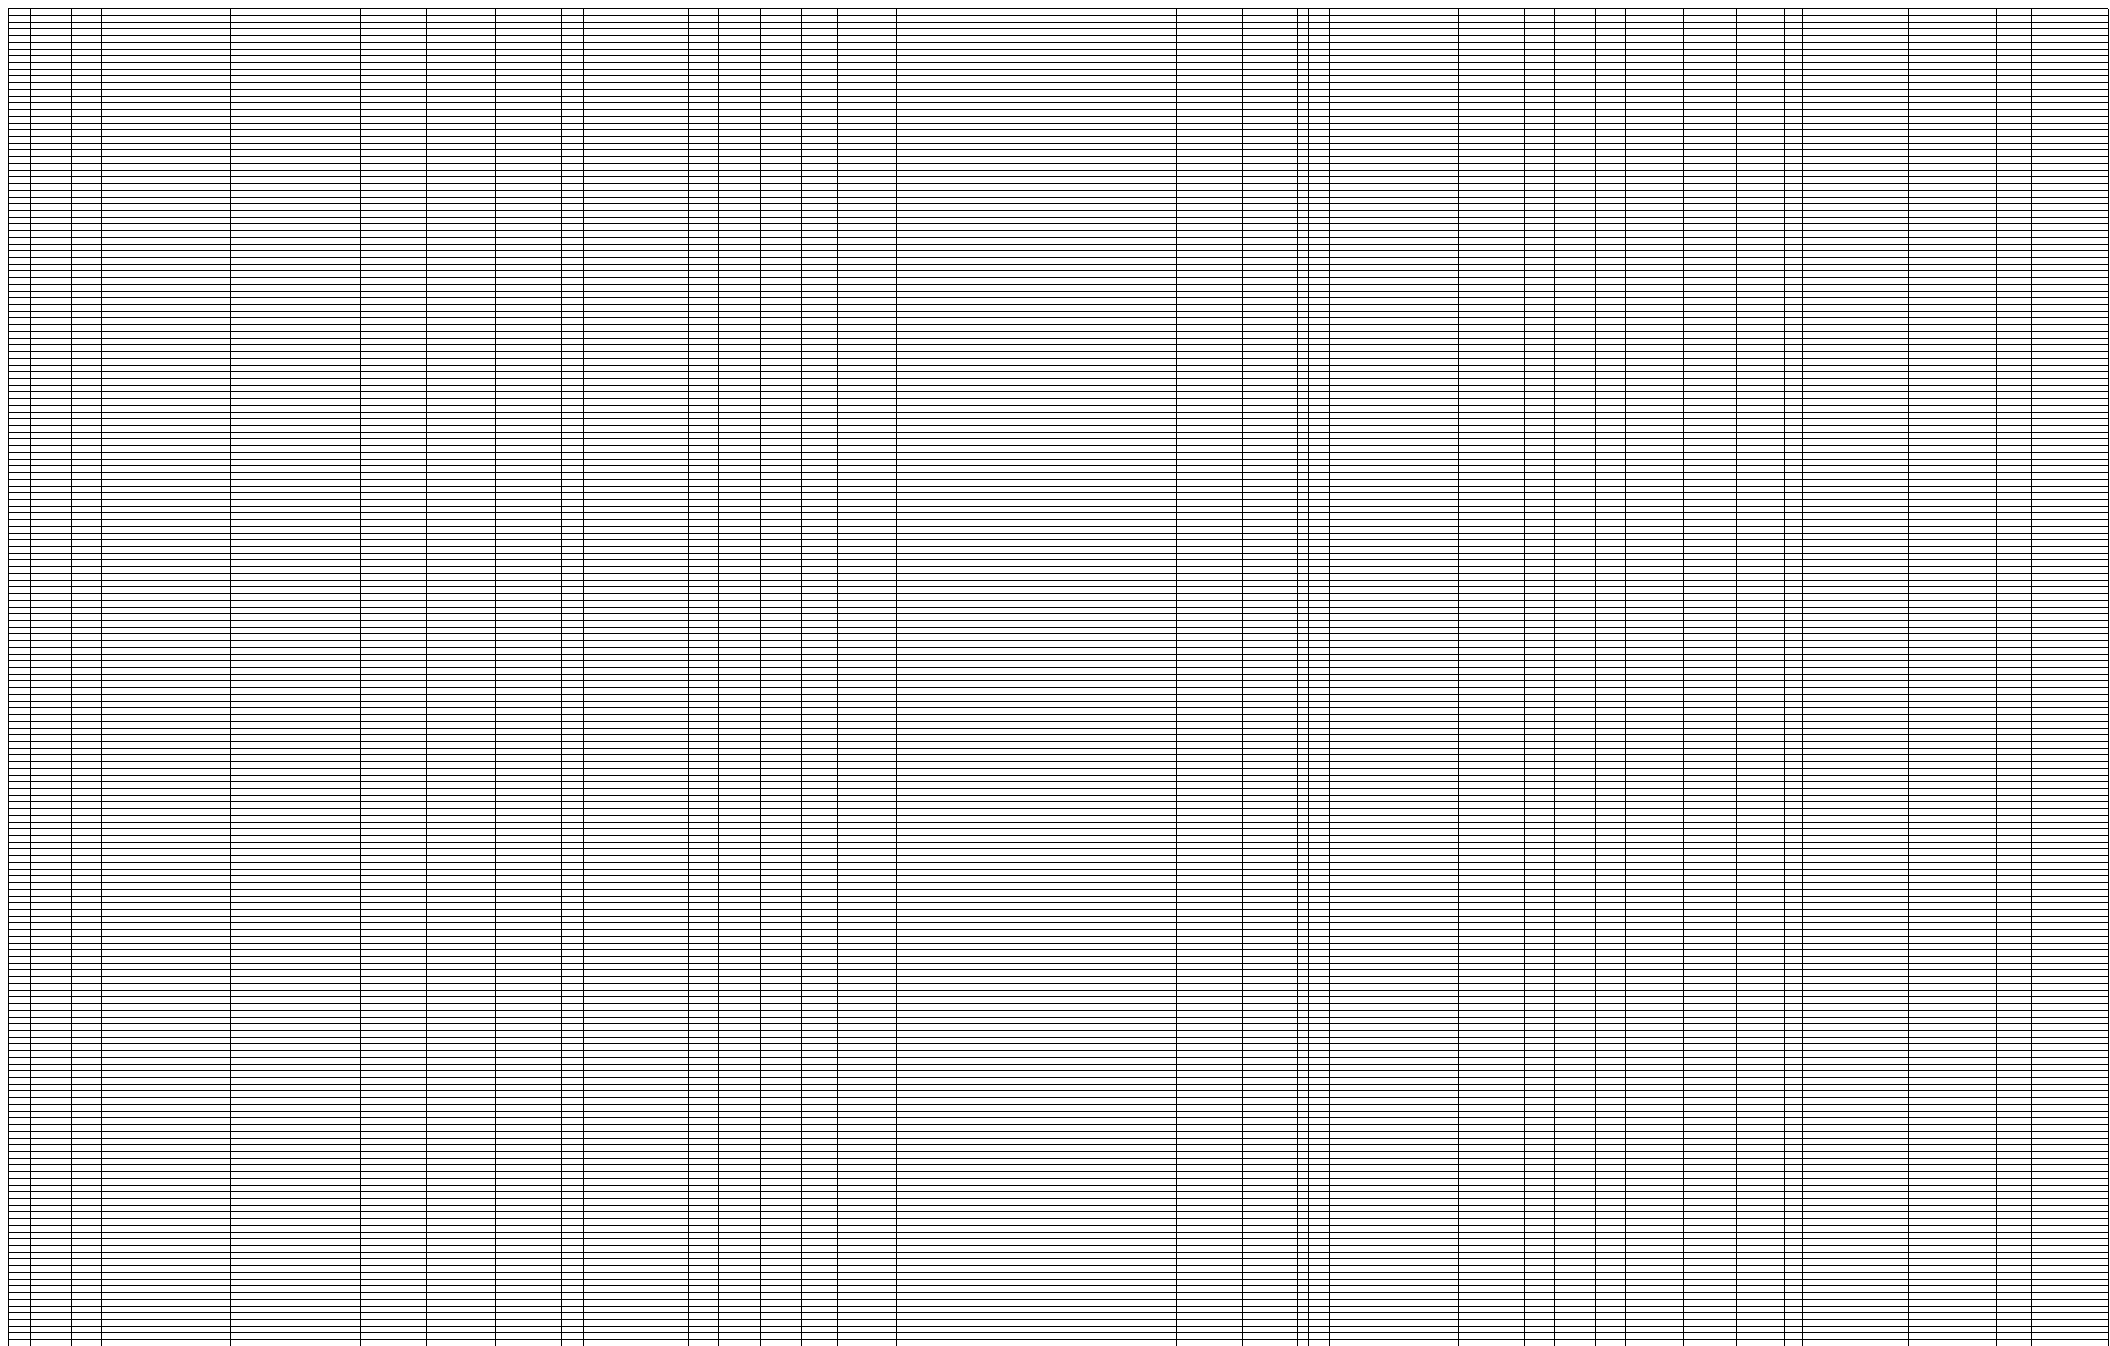

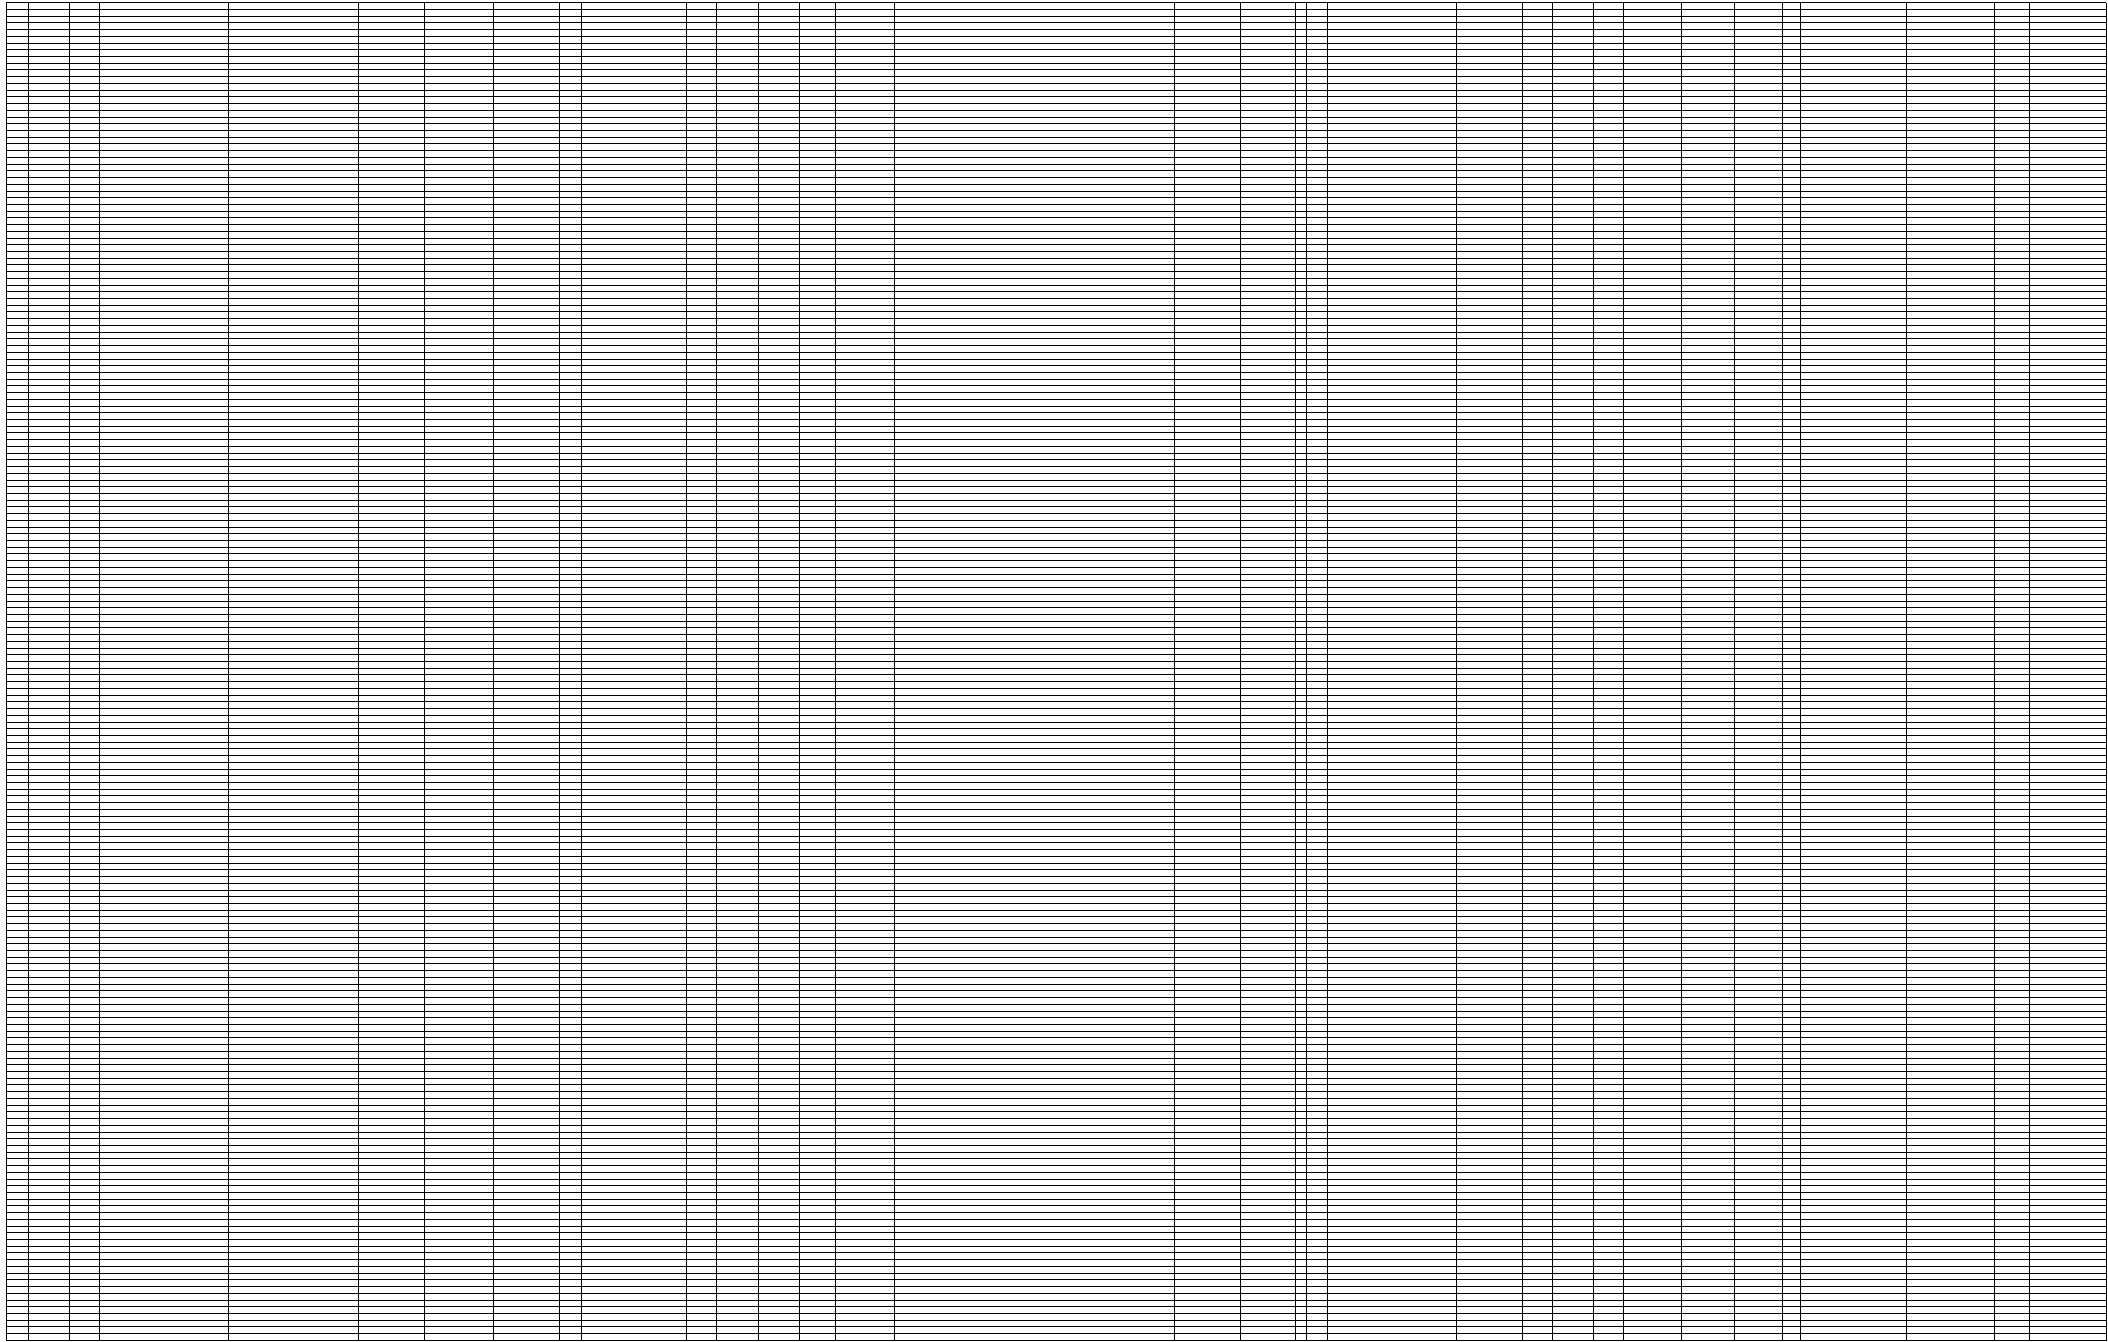

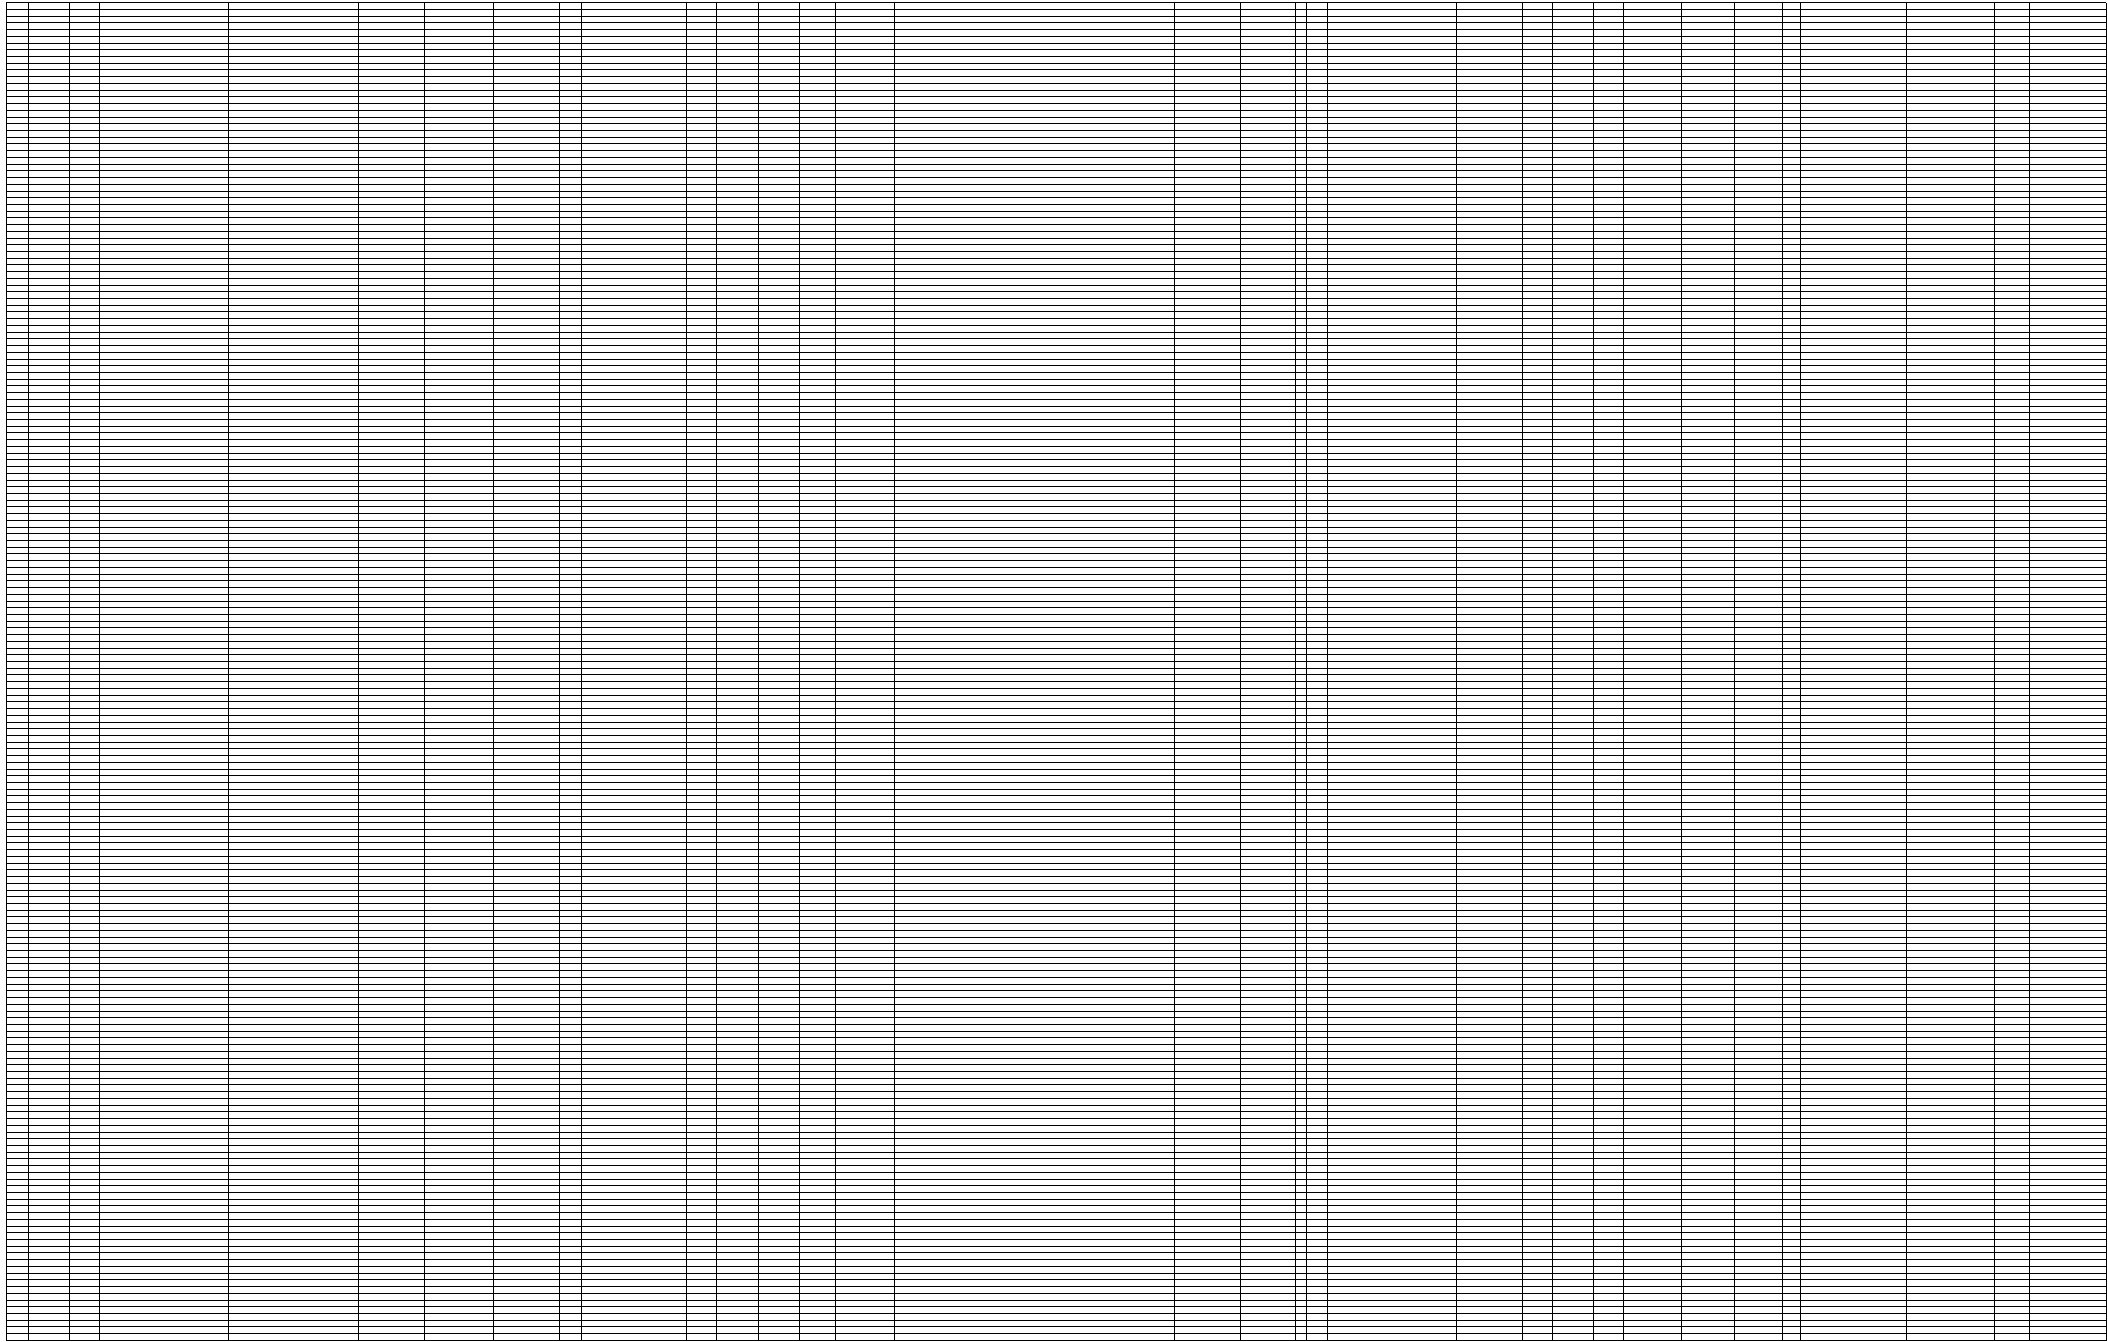

A large grid of empty cells, resembling graph paper or a blank table. The grid is composed of 30 columns and 20 rows of small, uniform squares. The lines are thin and black, creating a clean, uncluttered layout. There is no text or data within the grid.

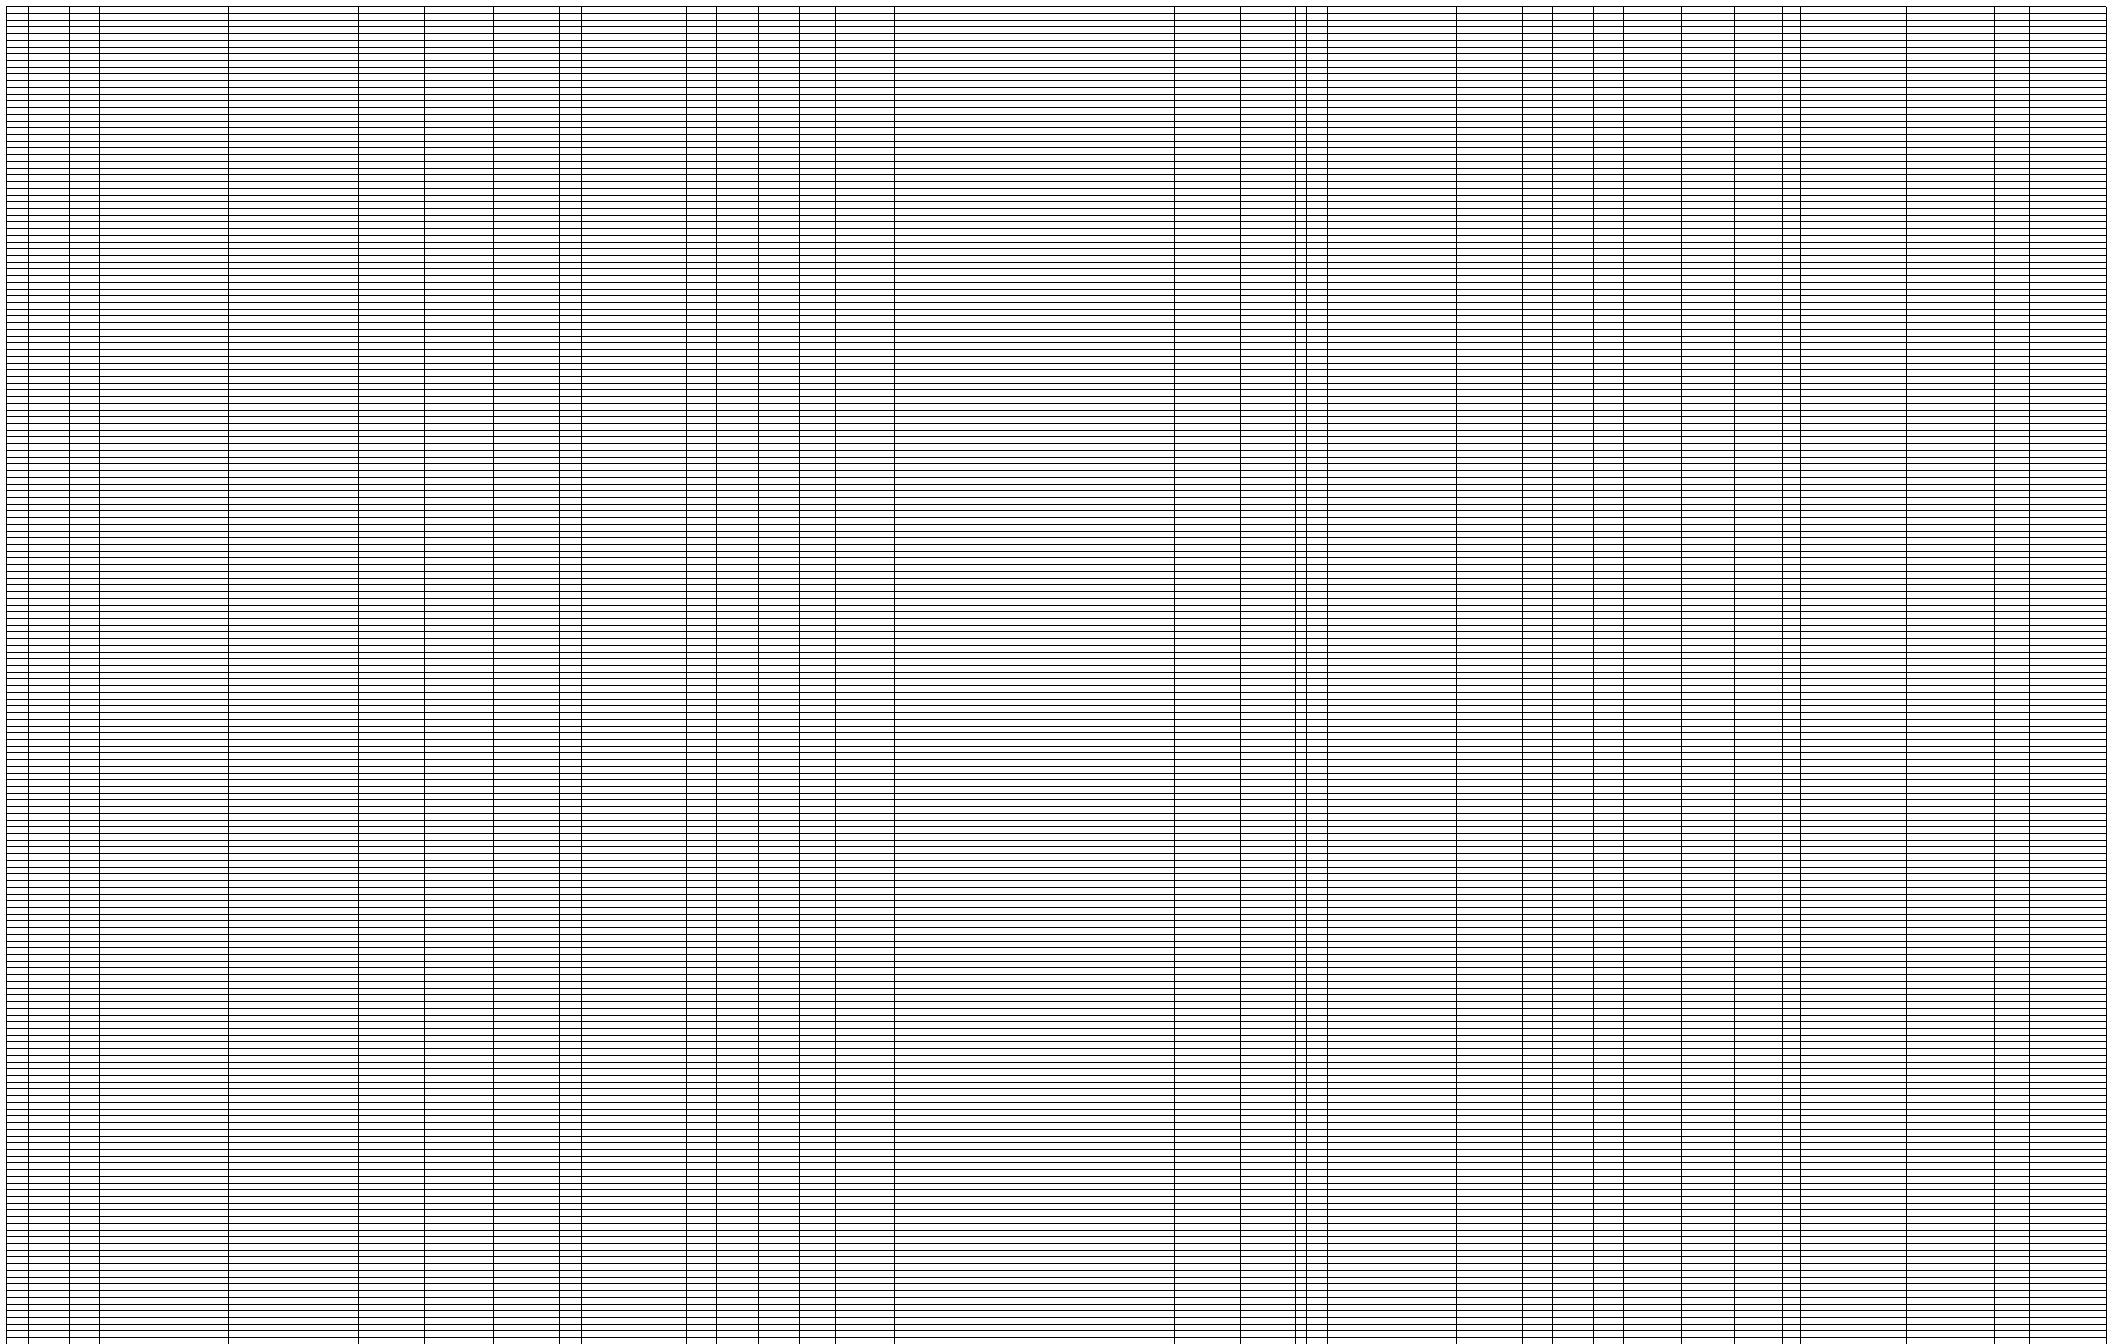

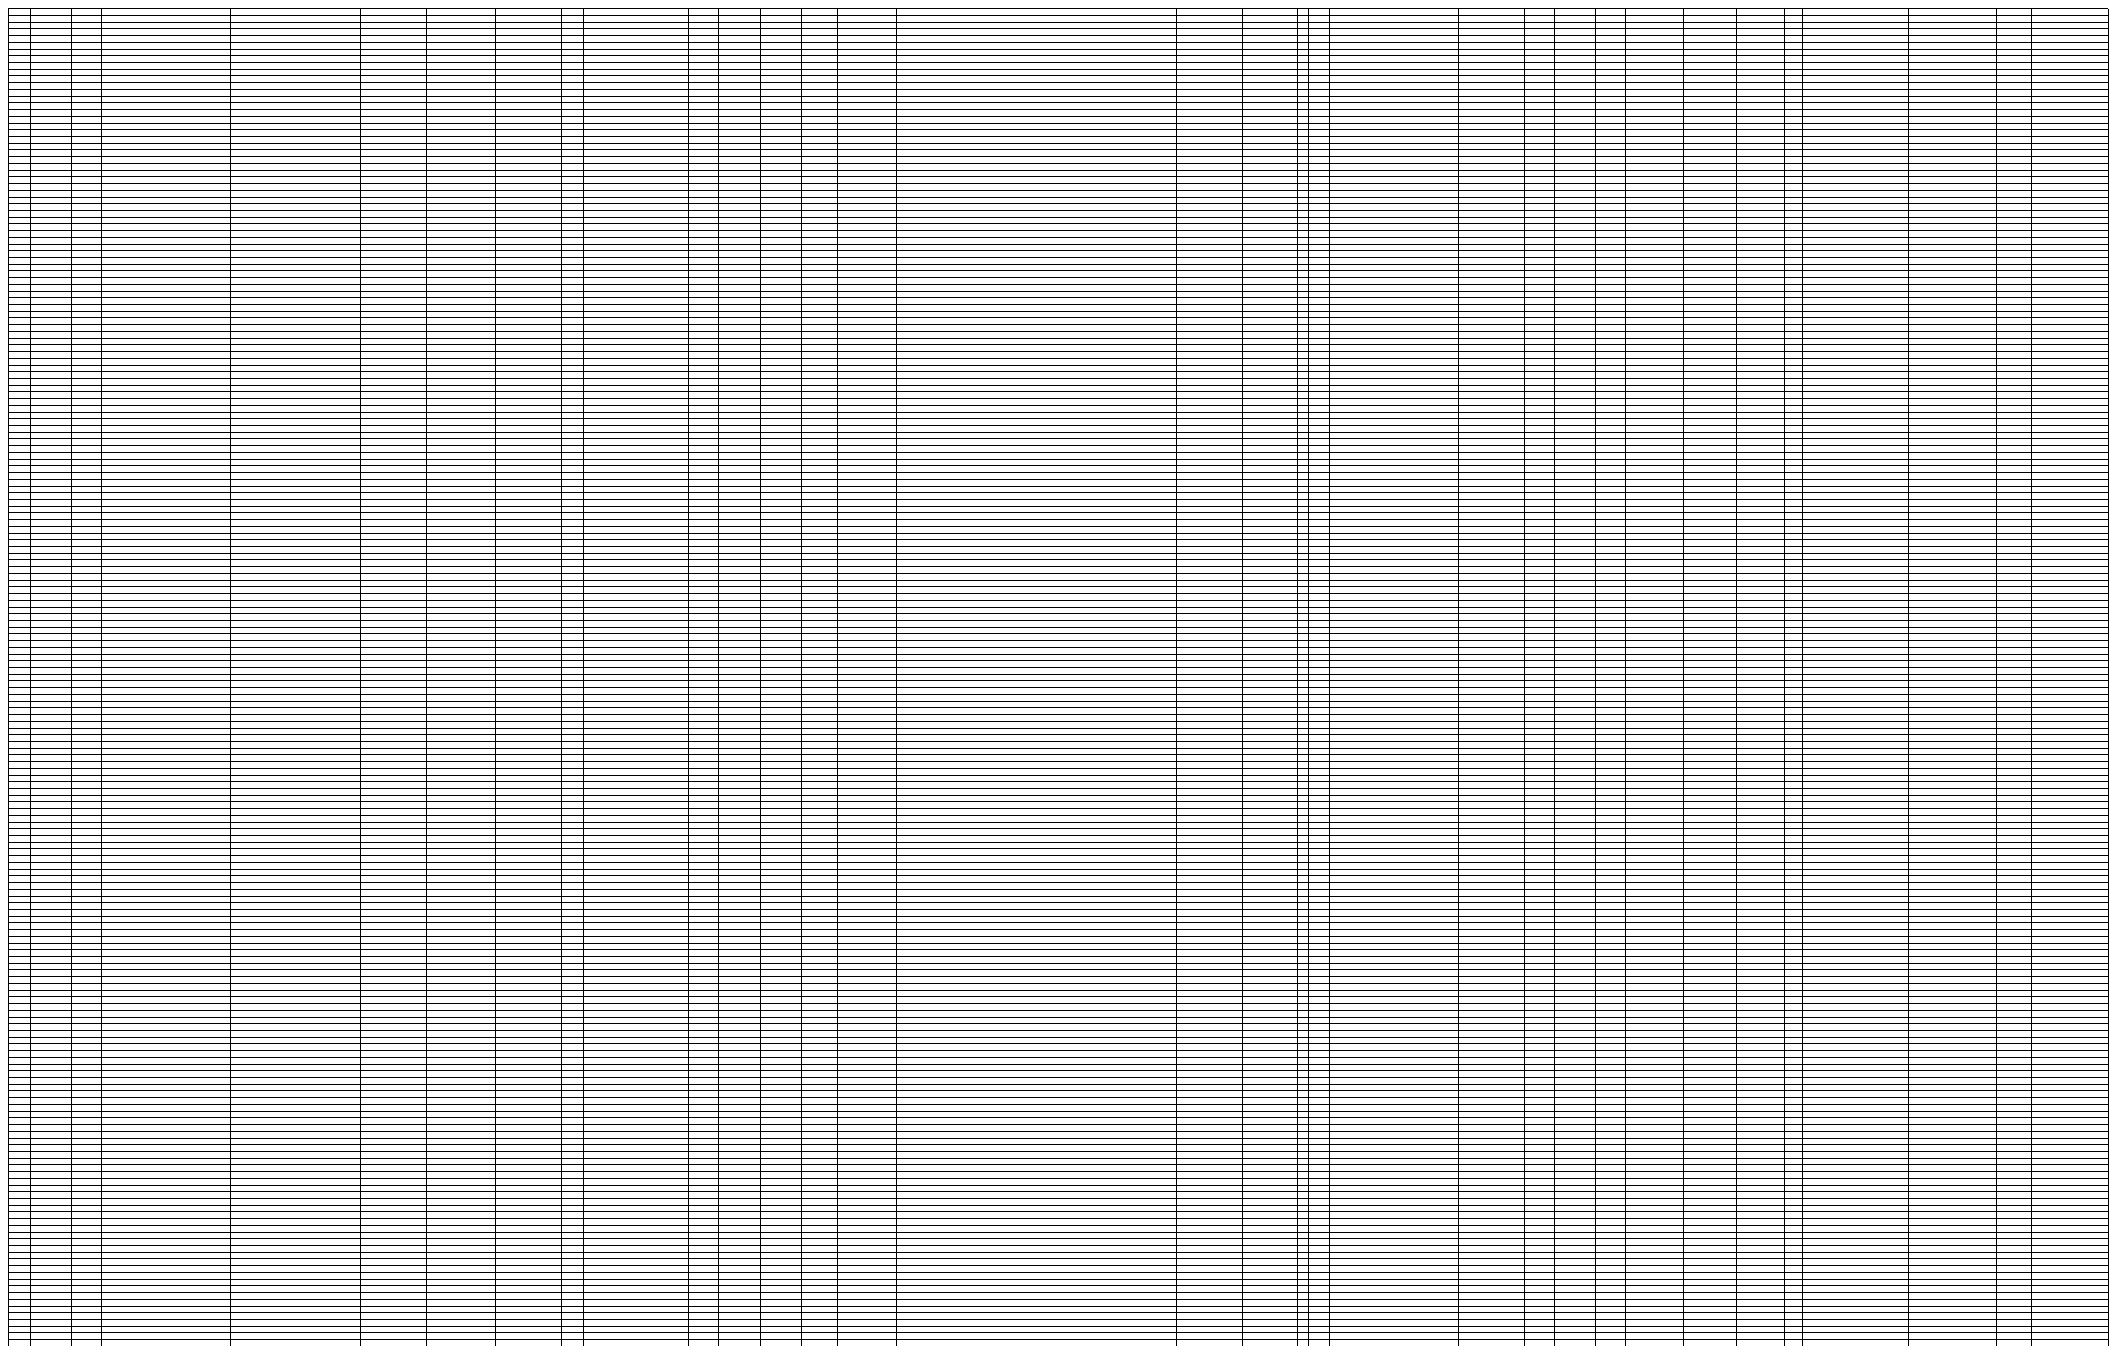

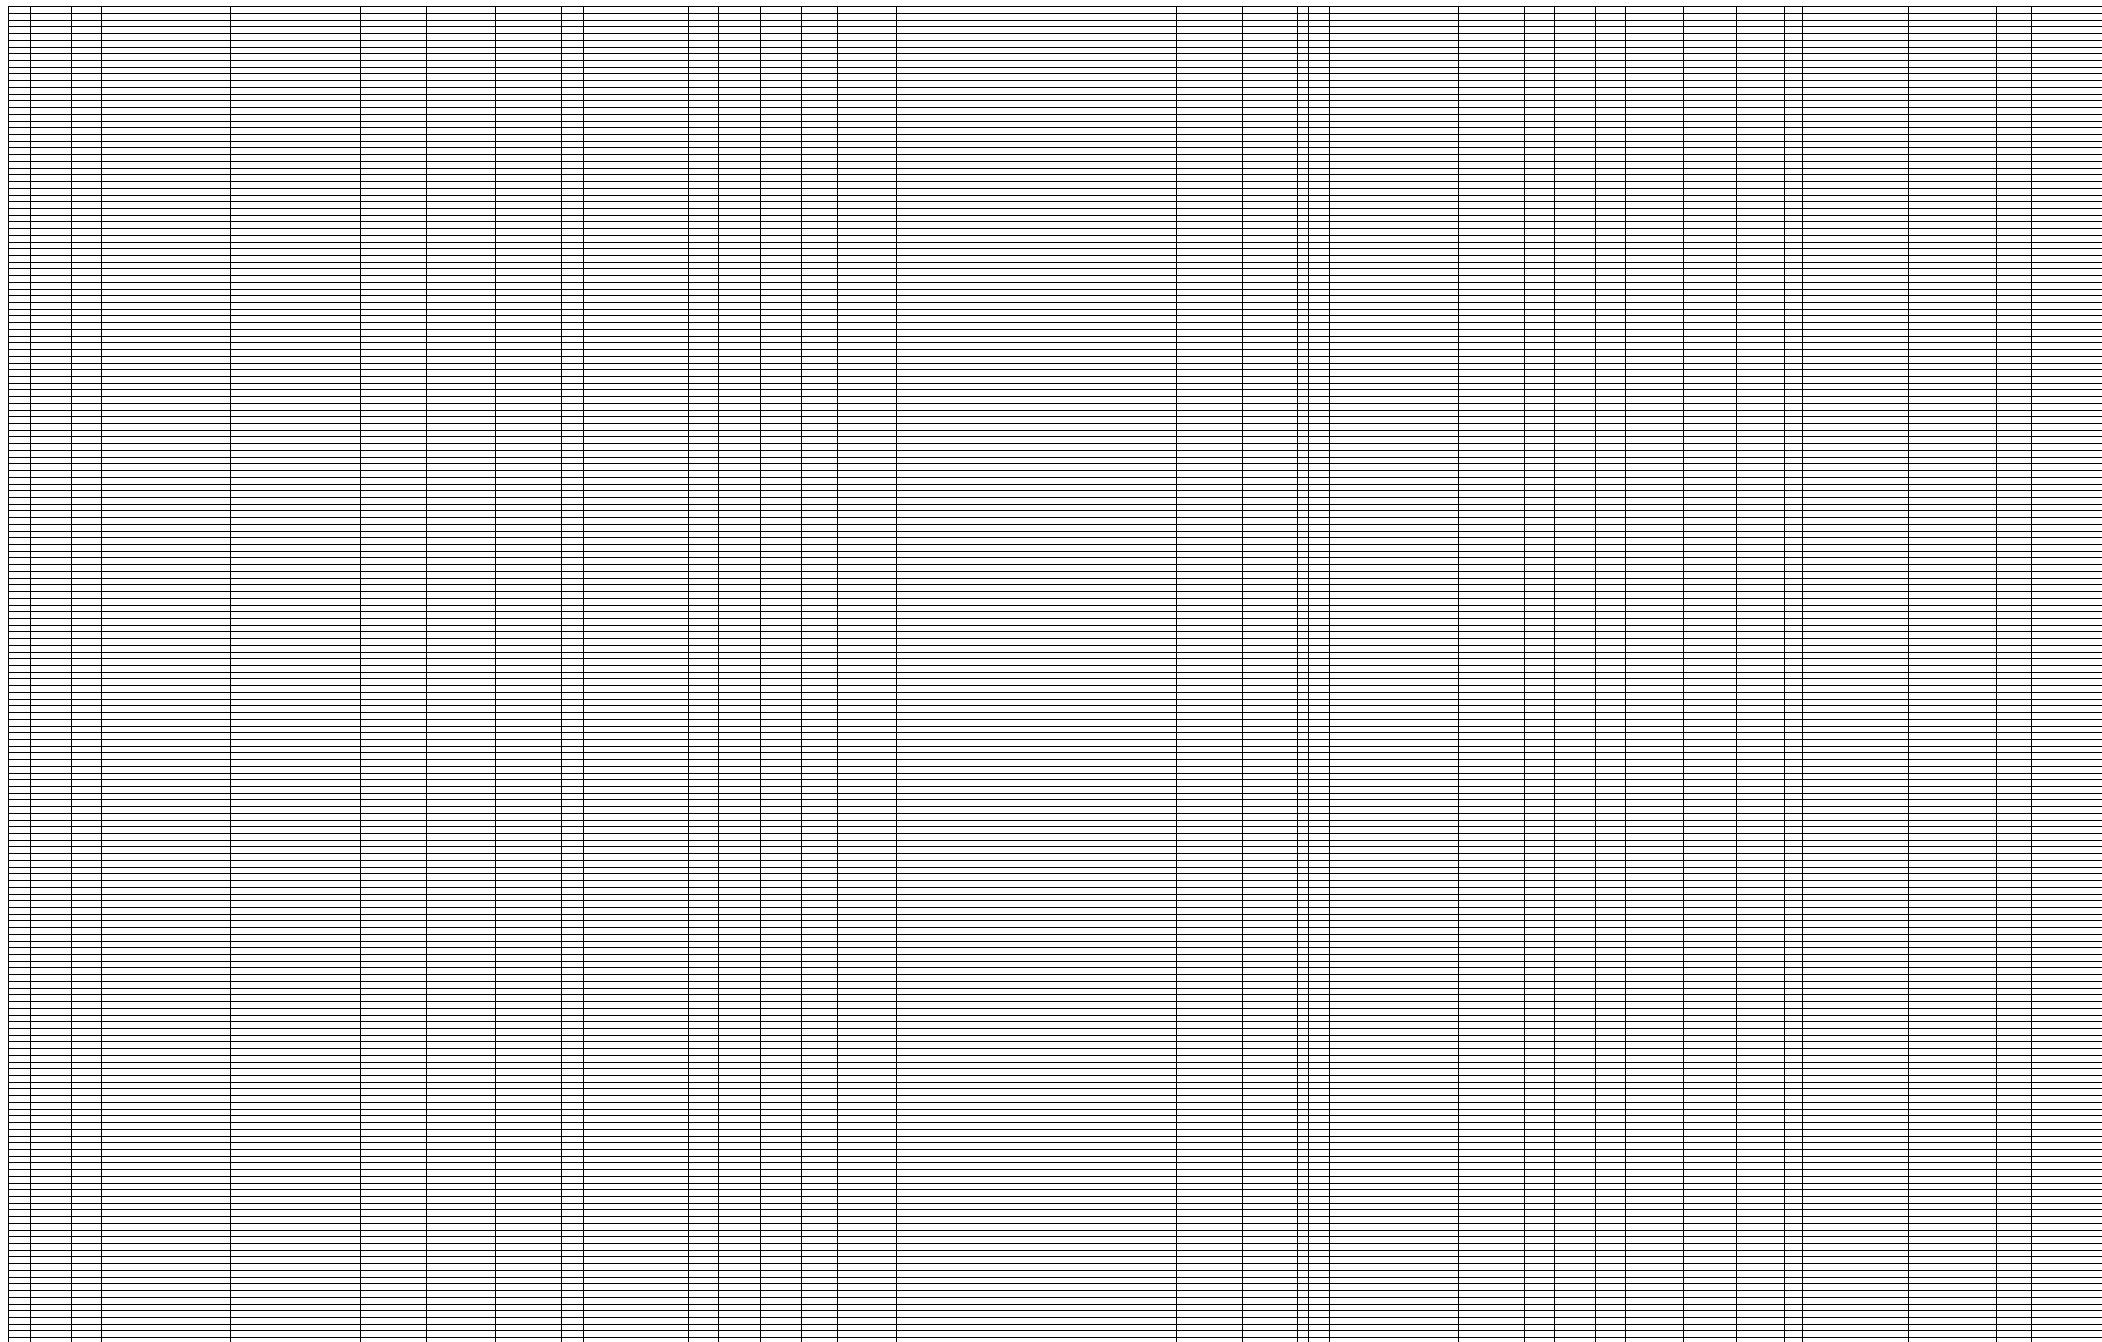

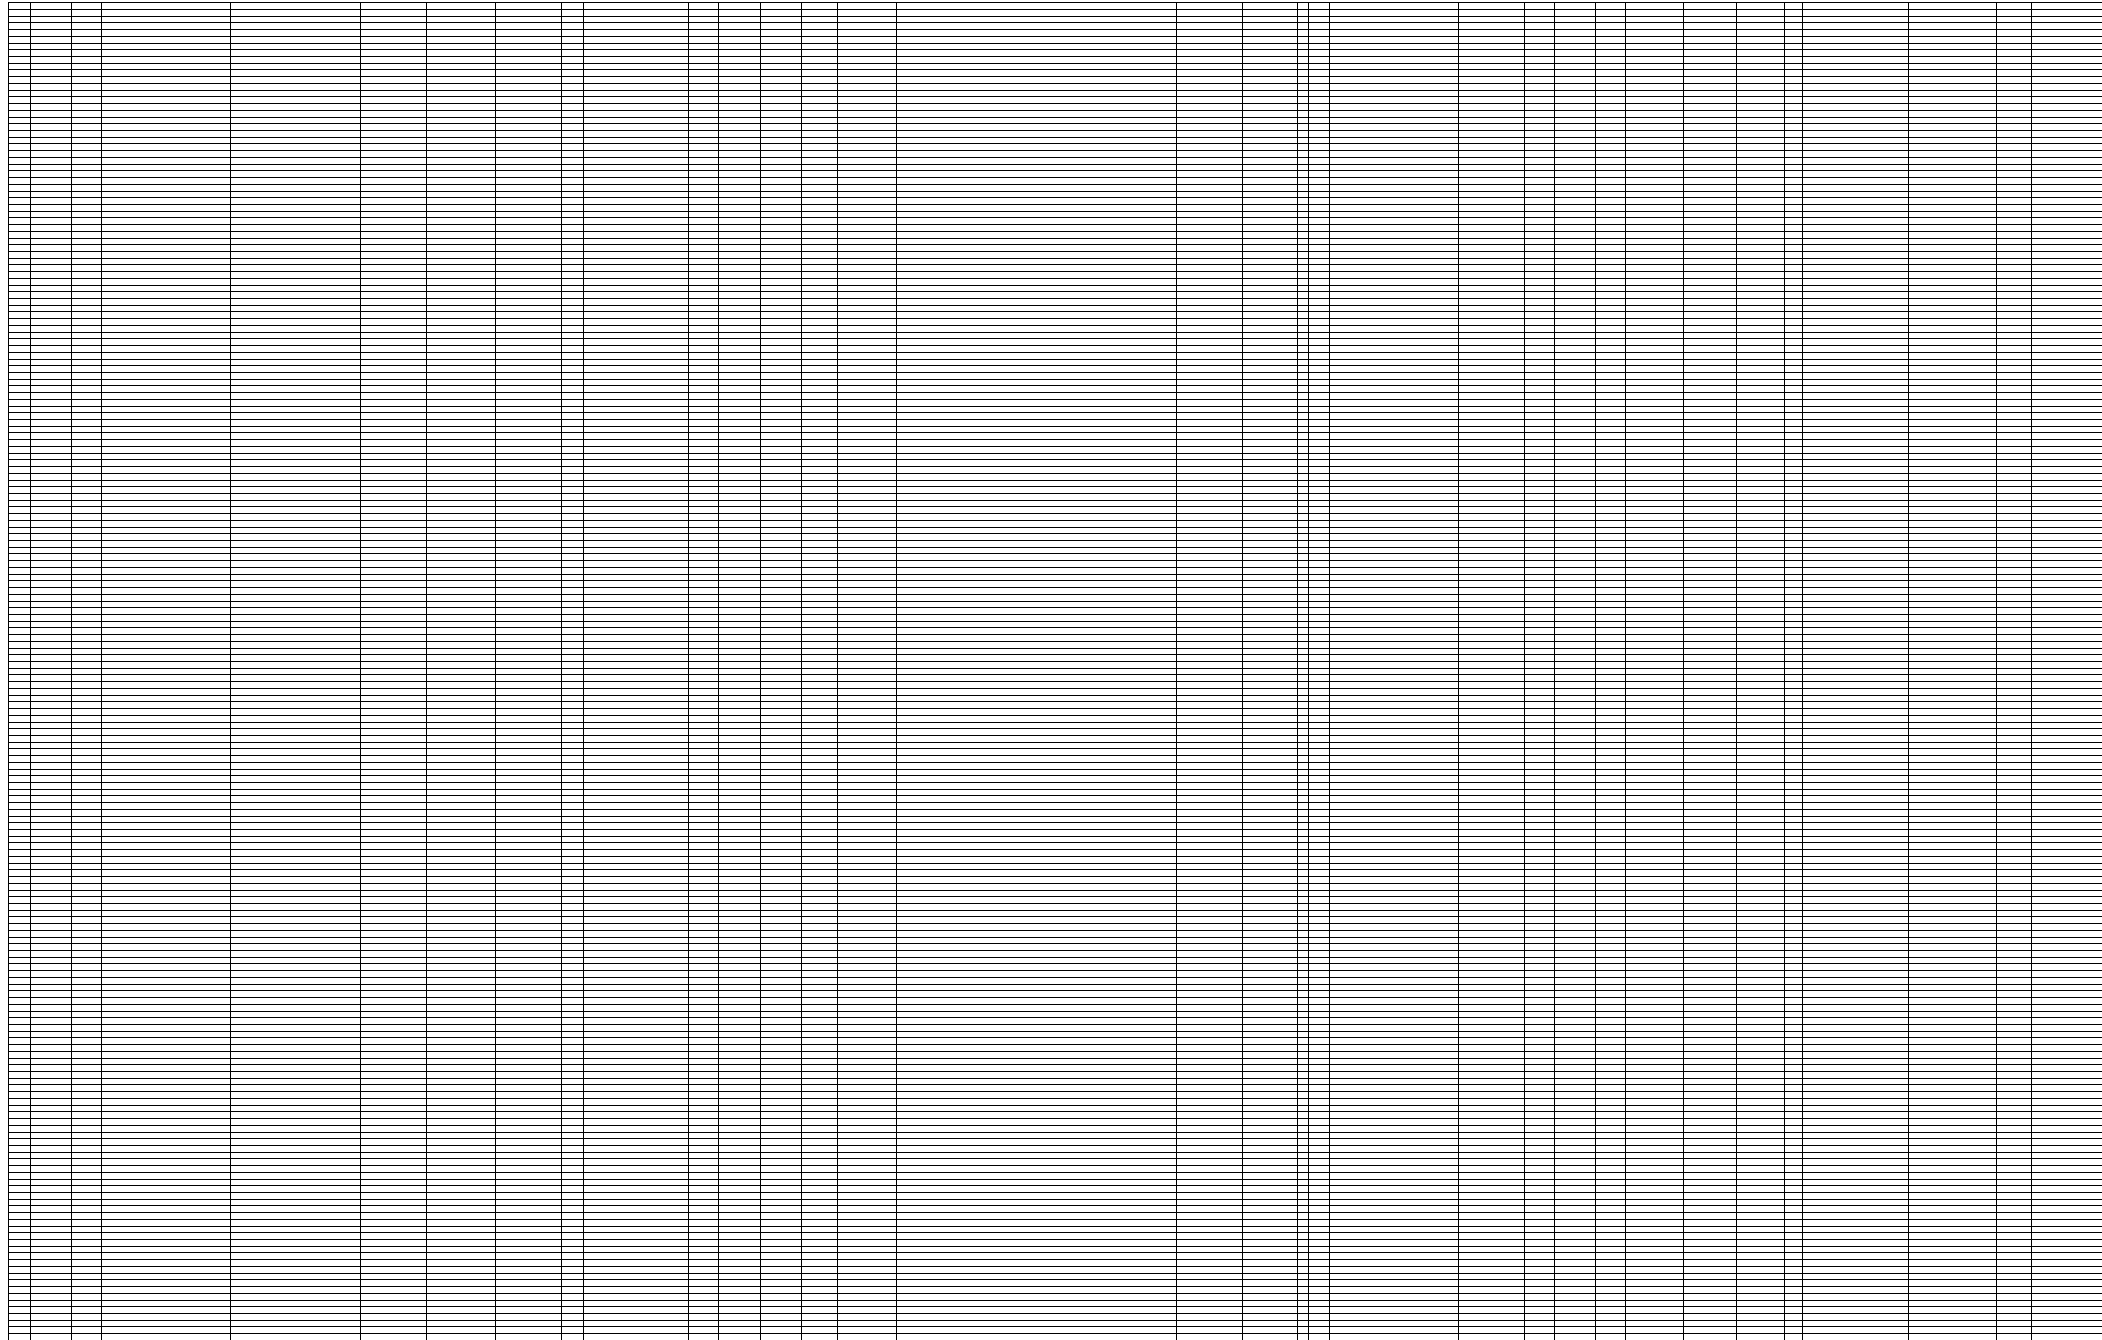

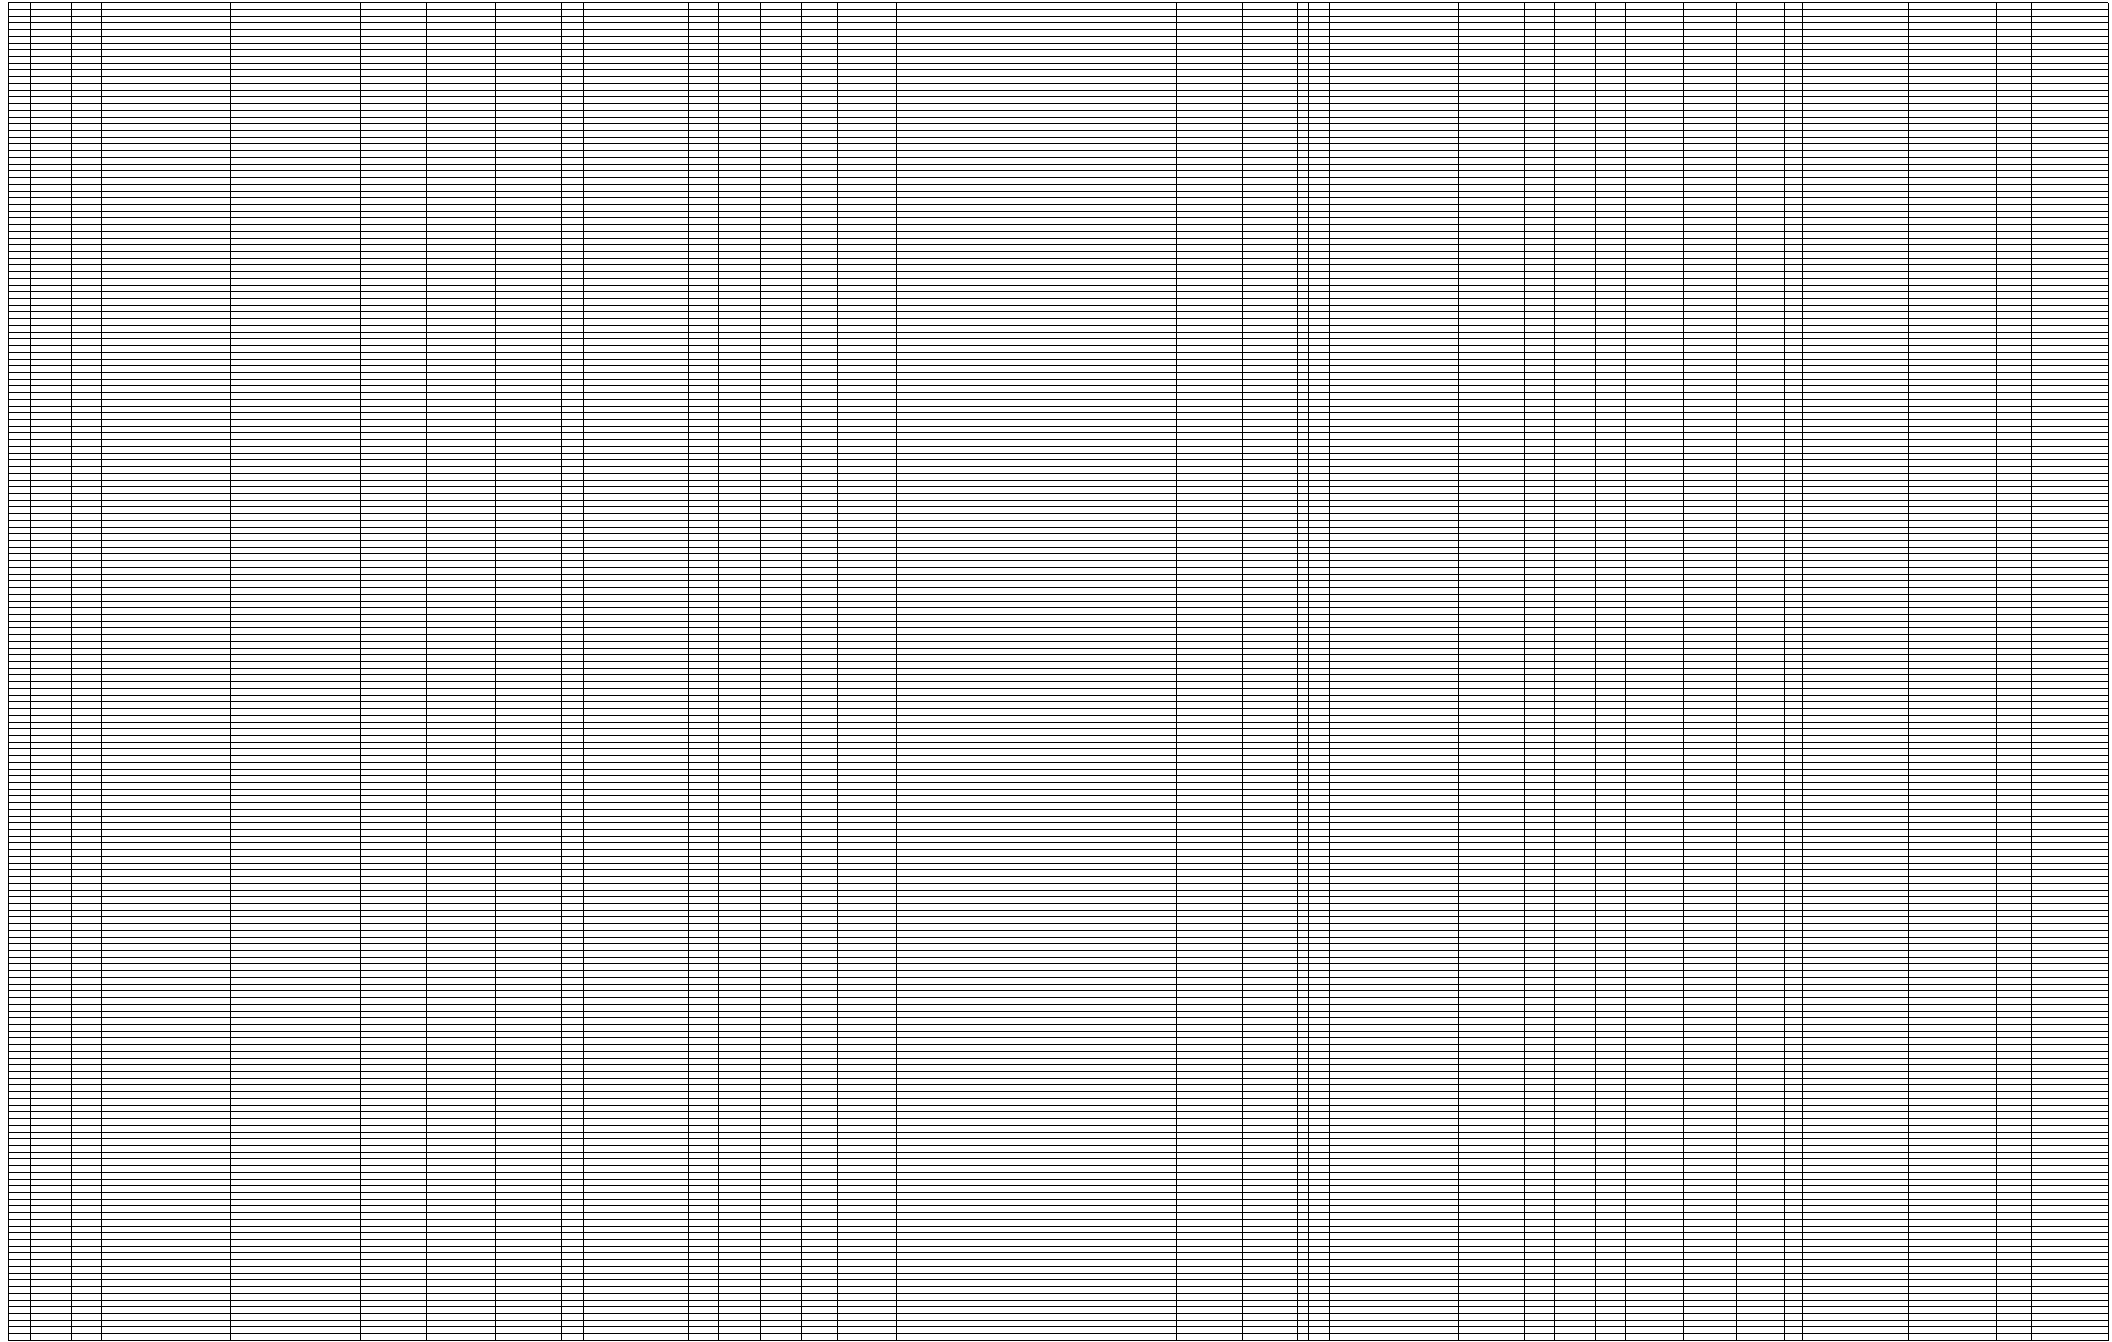

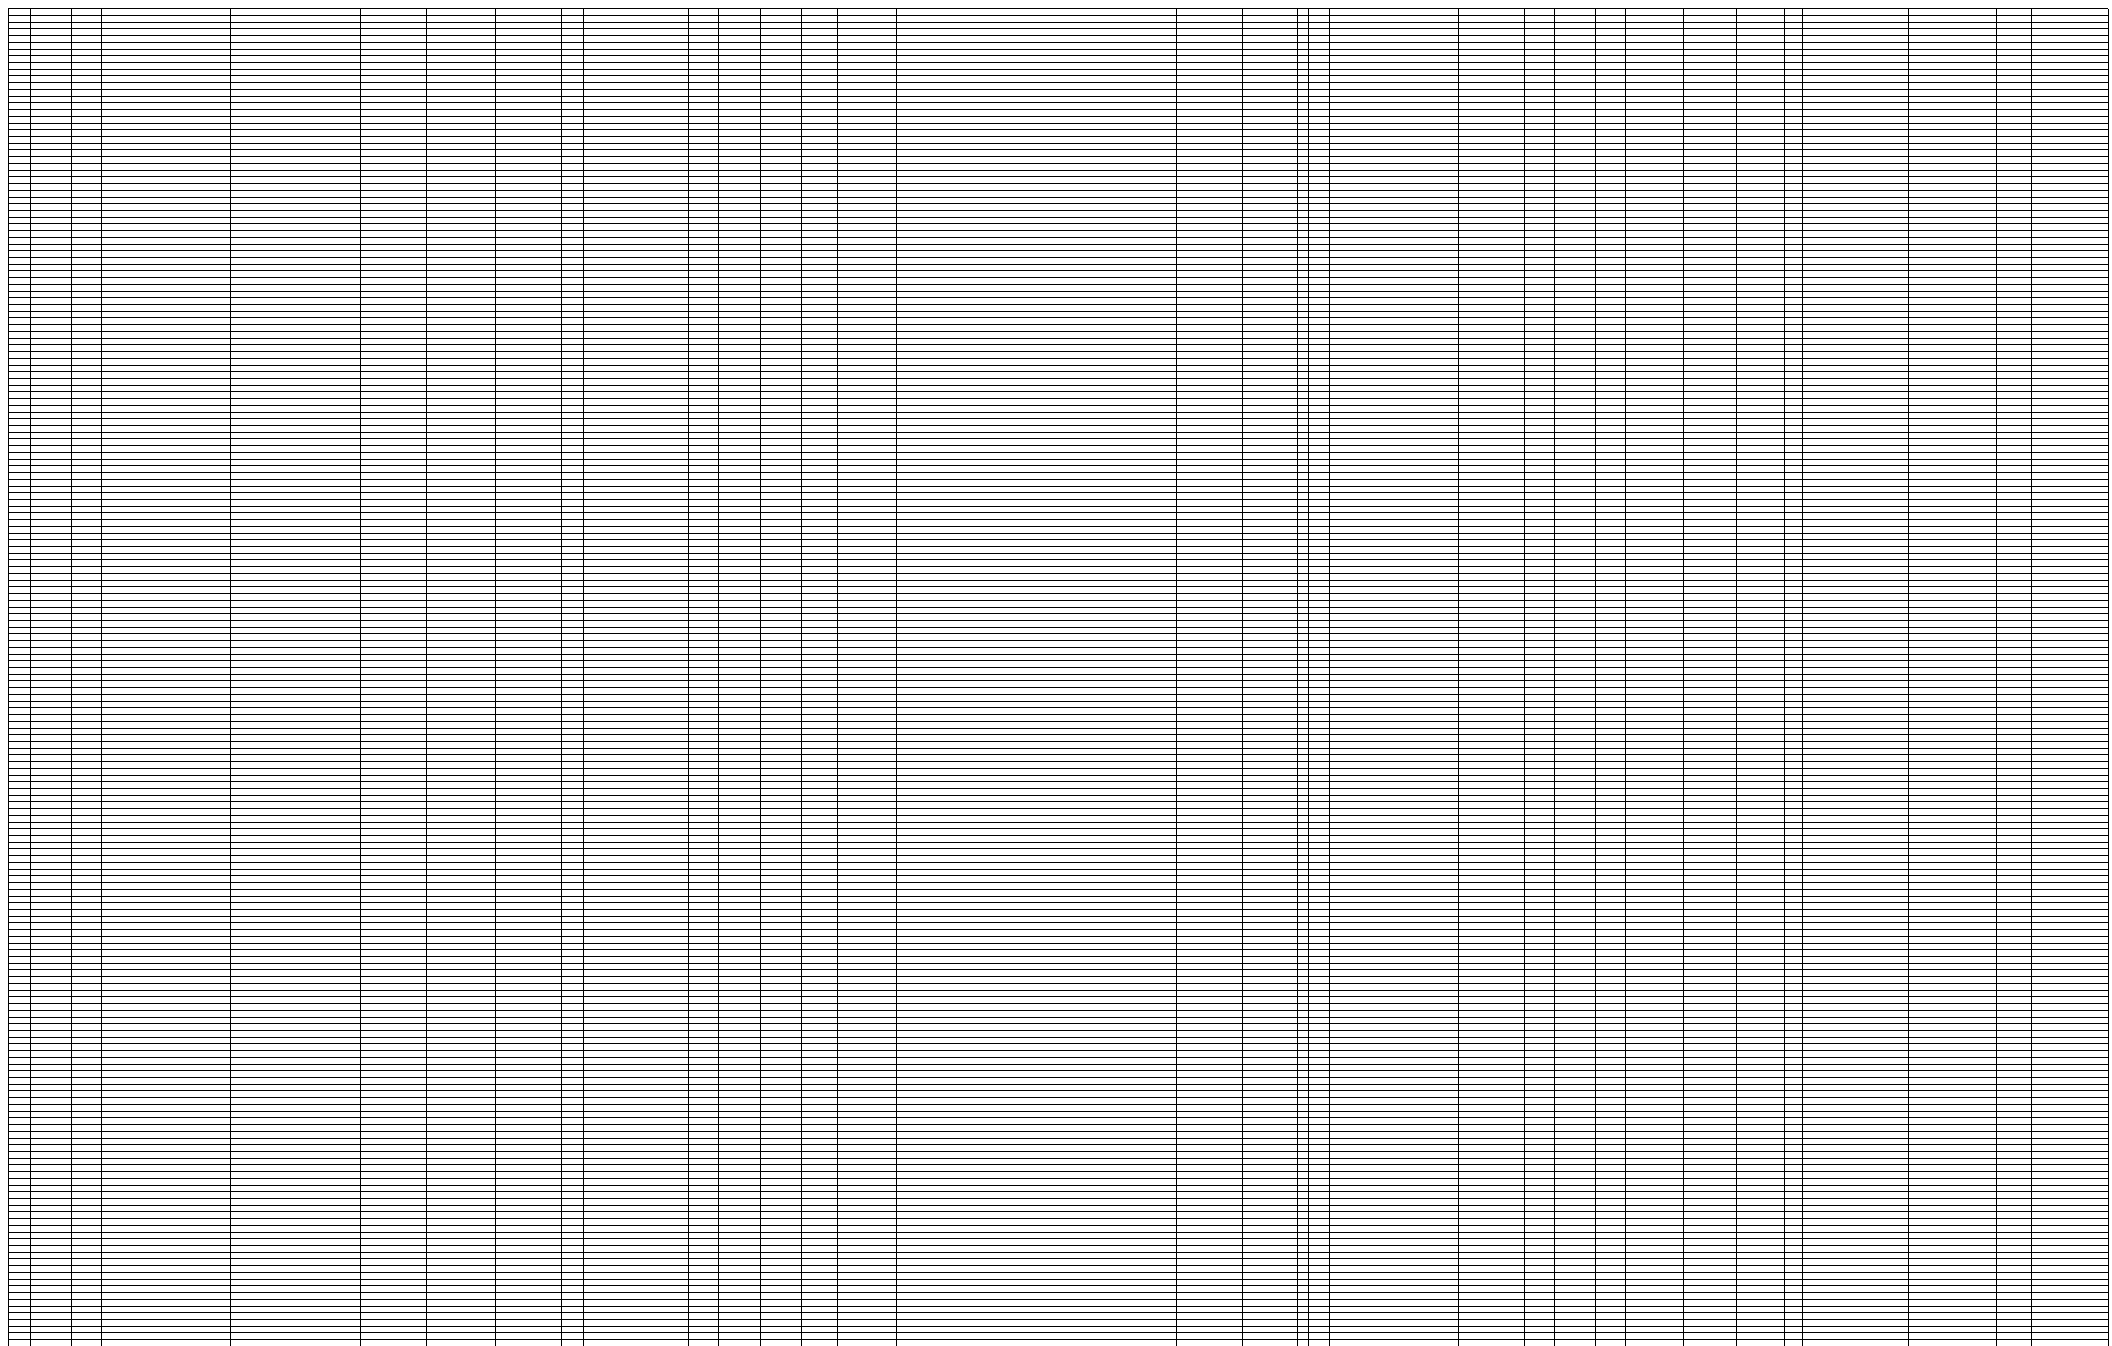

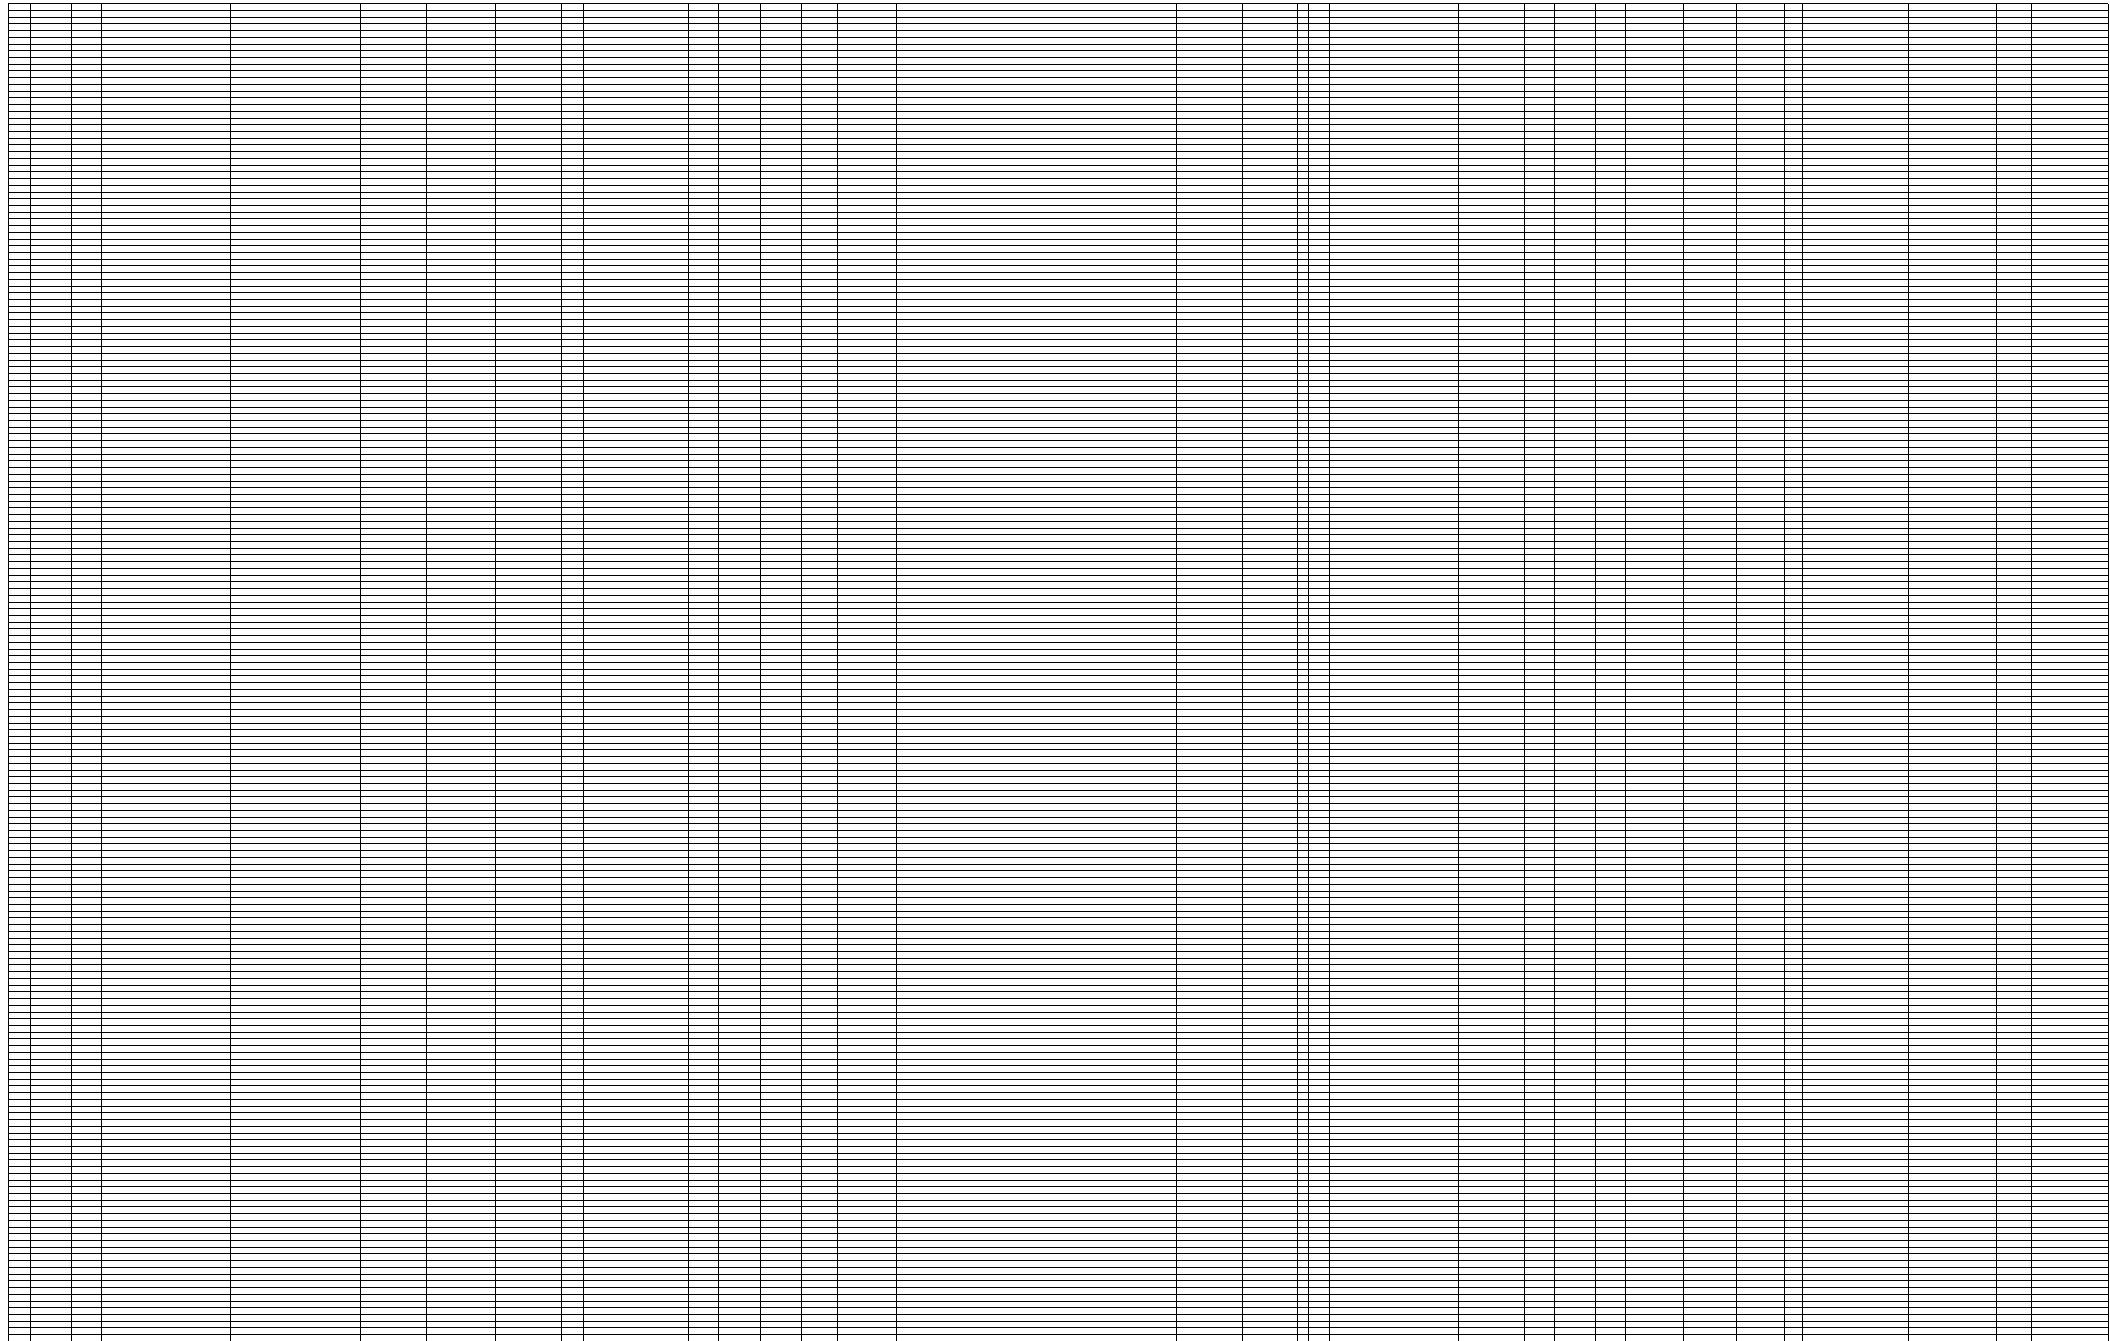

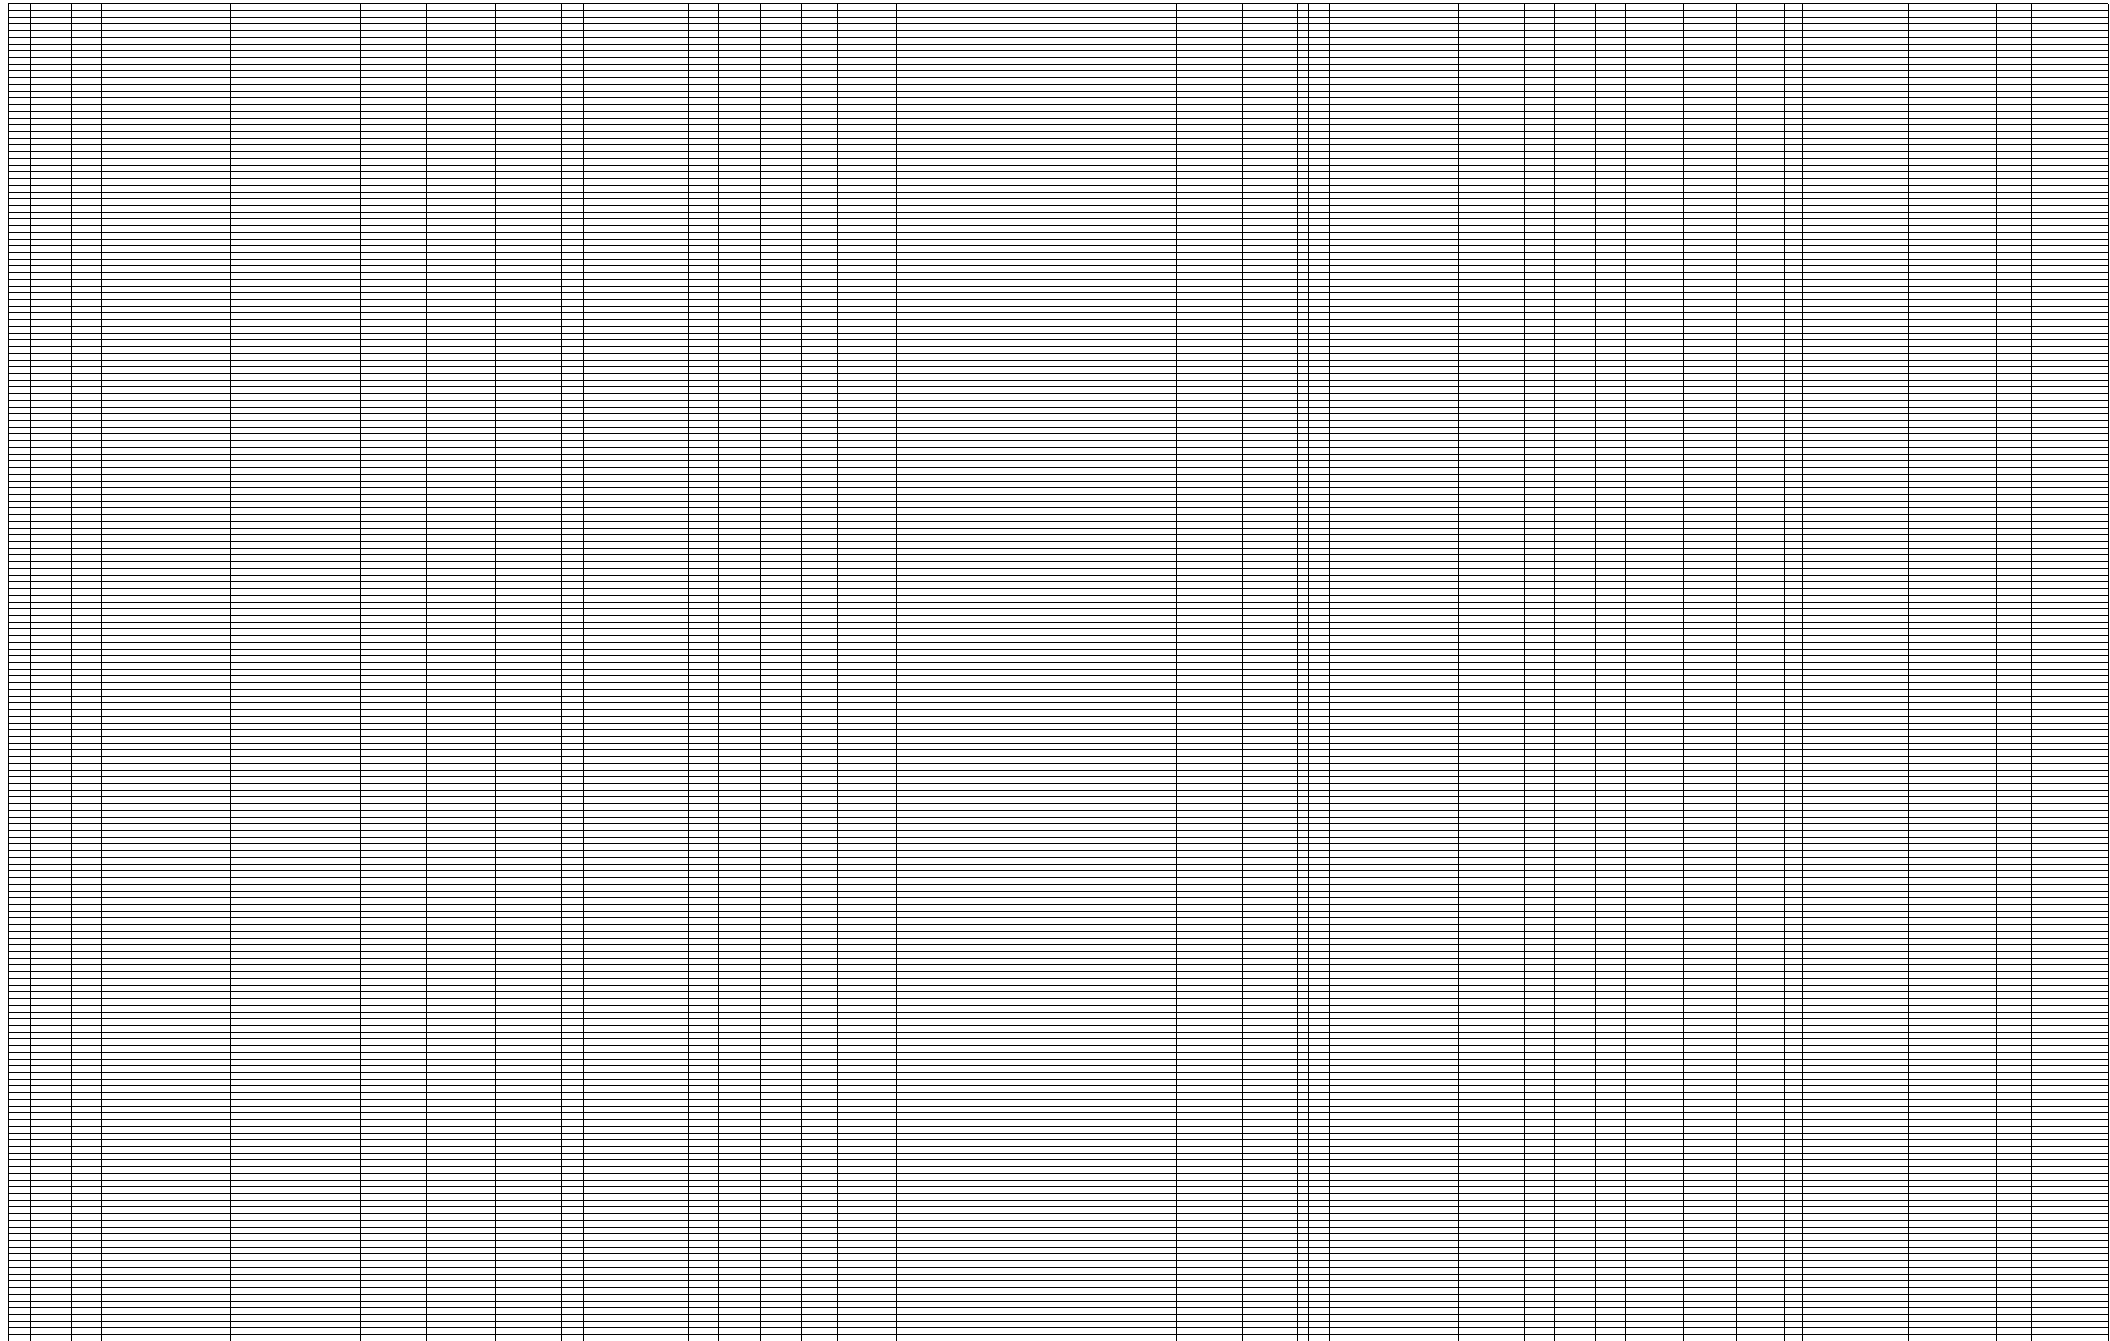

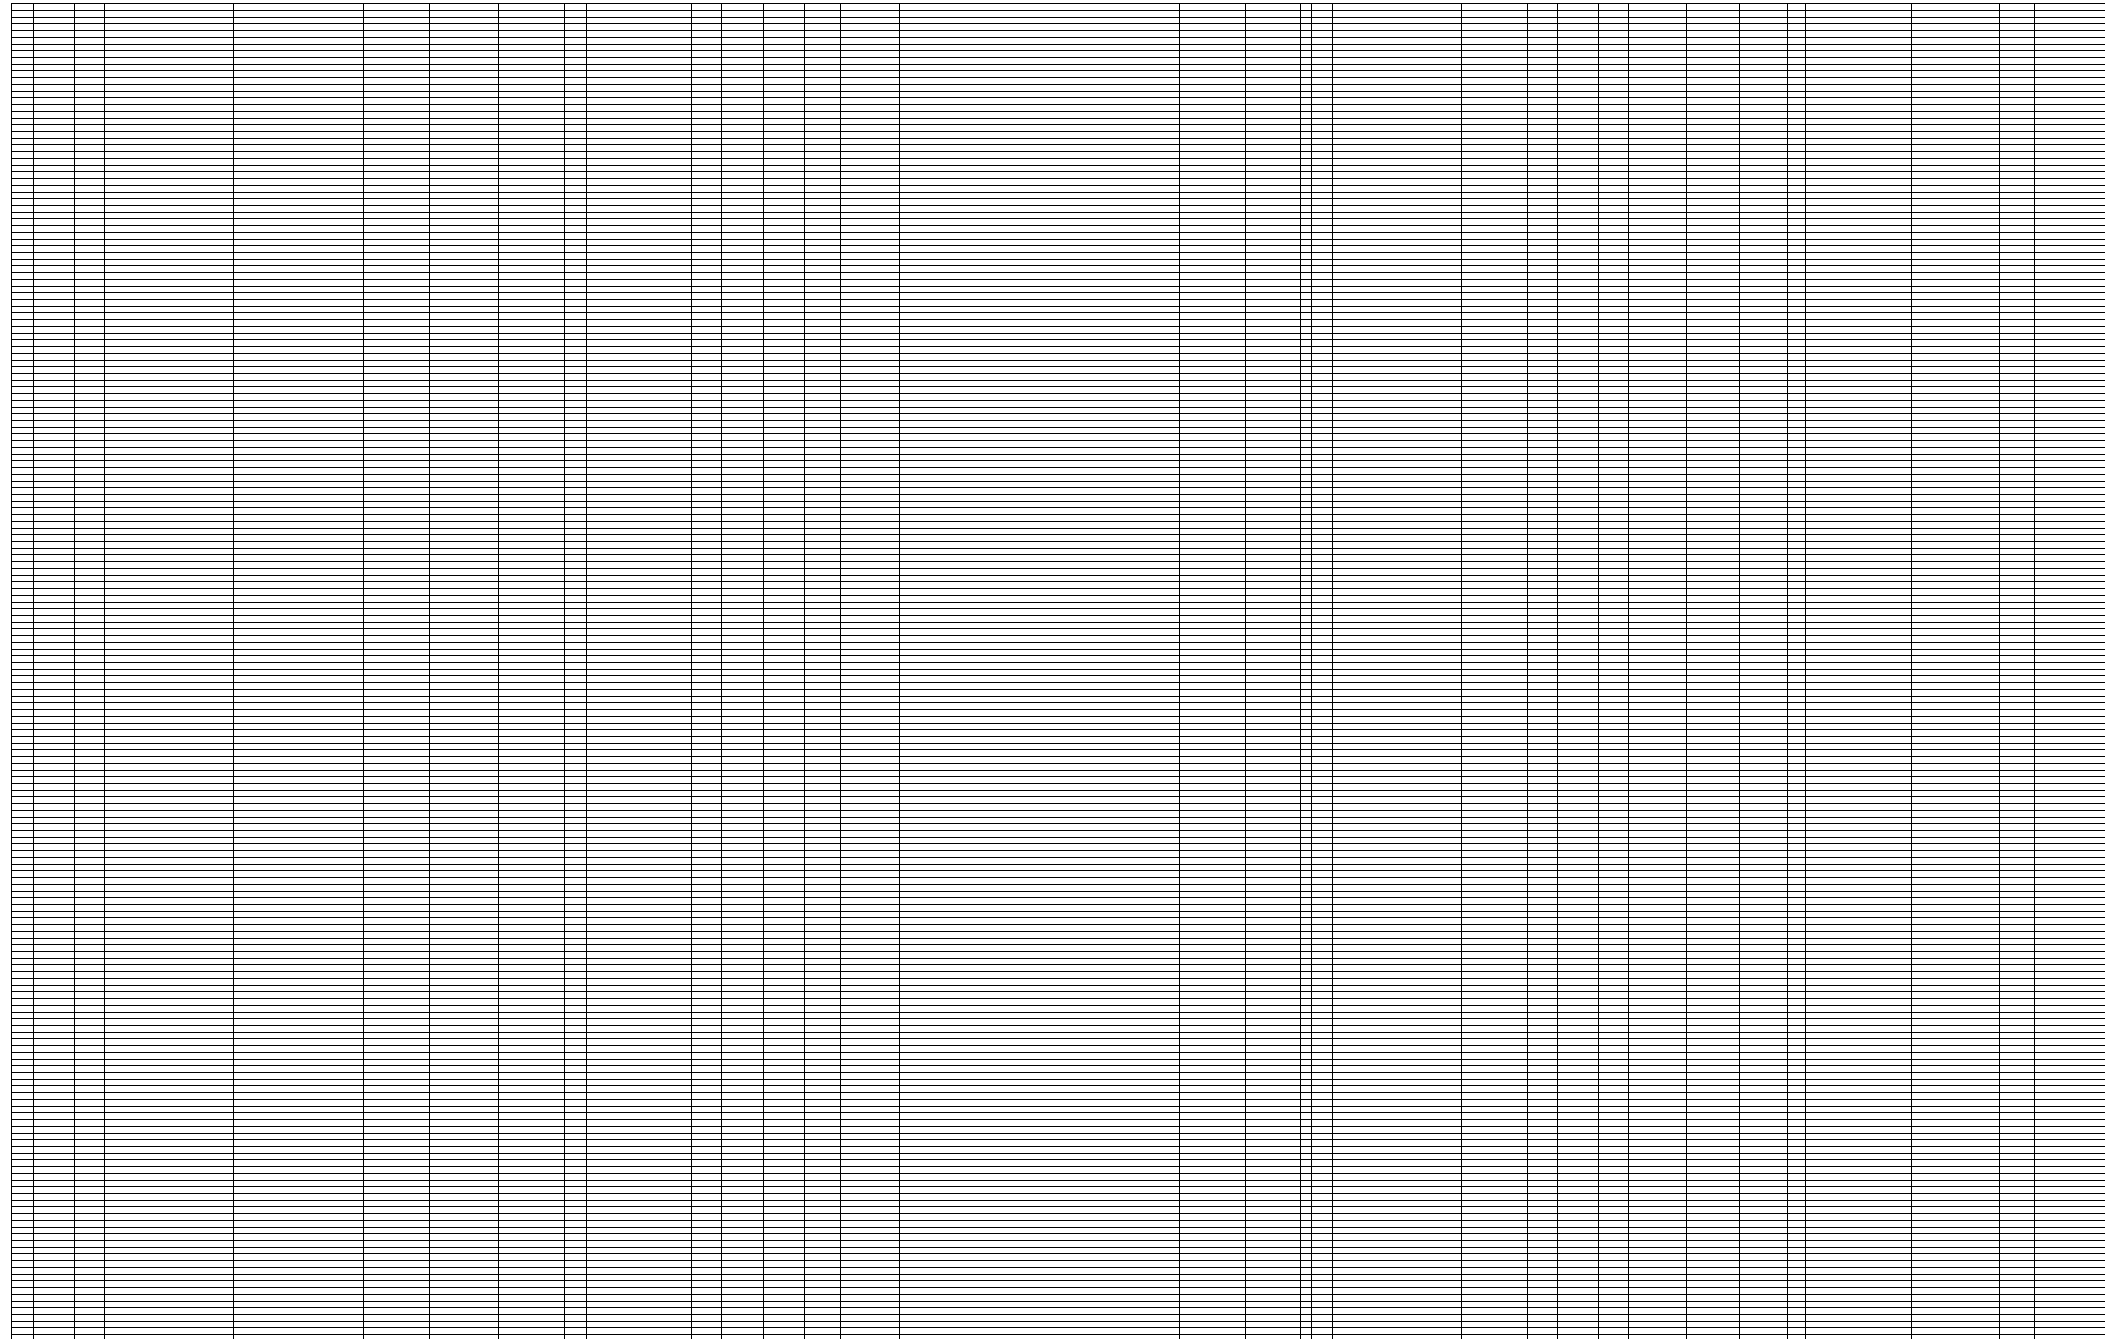

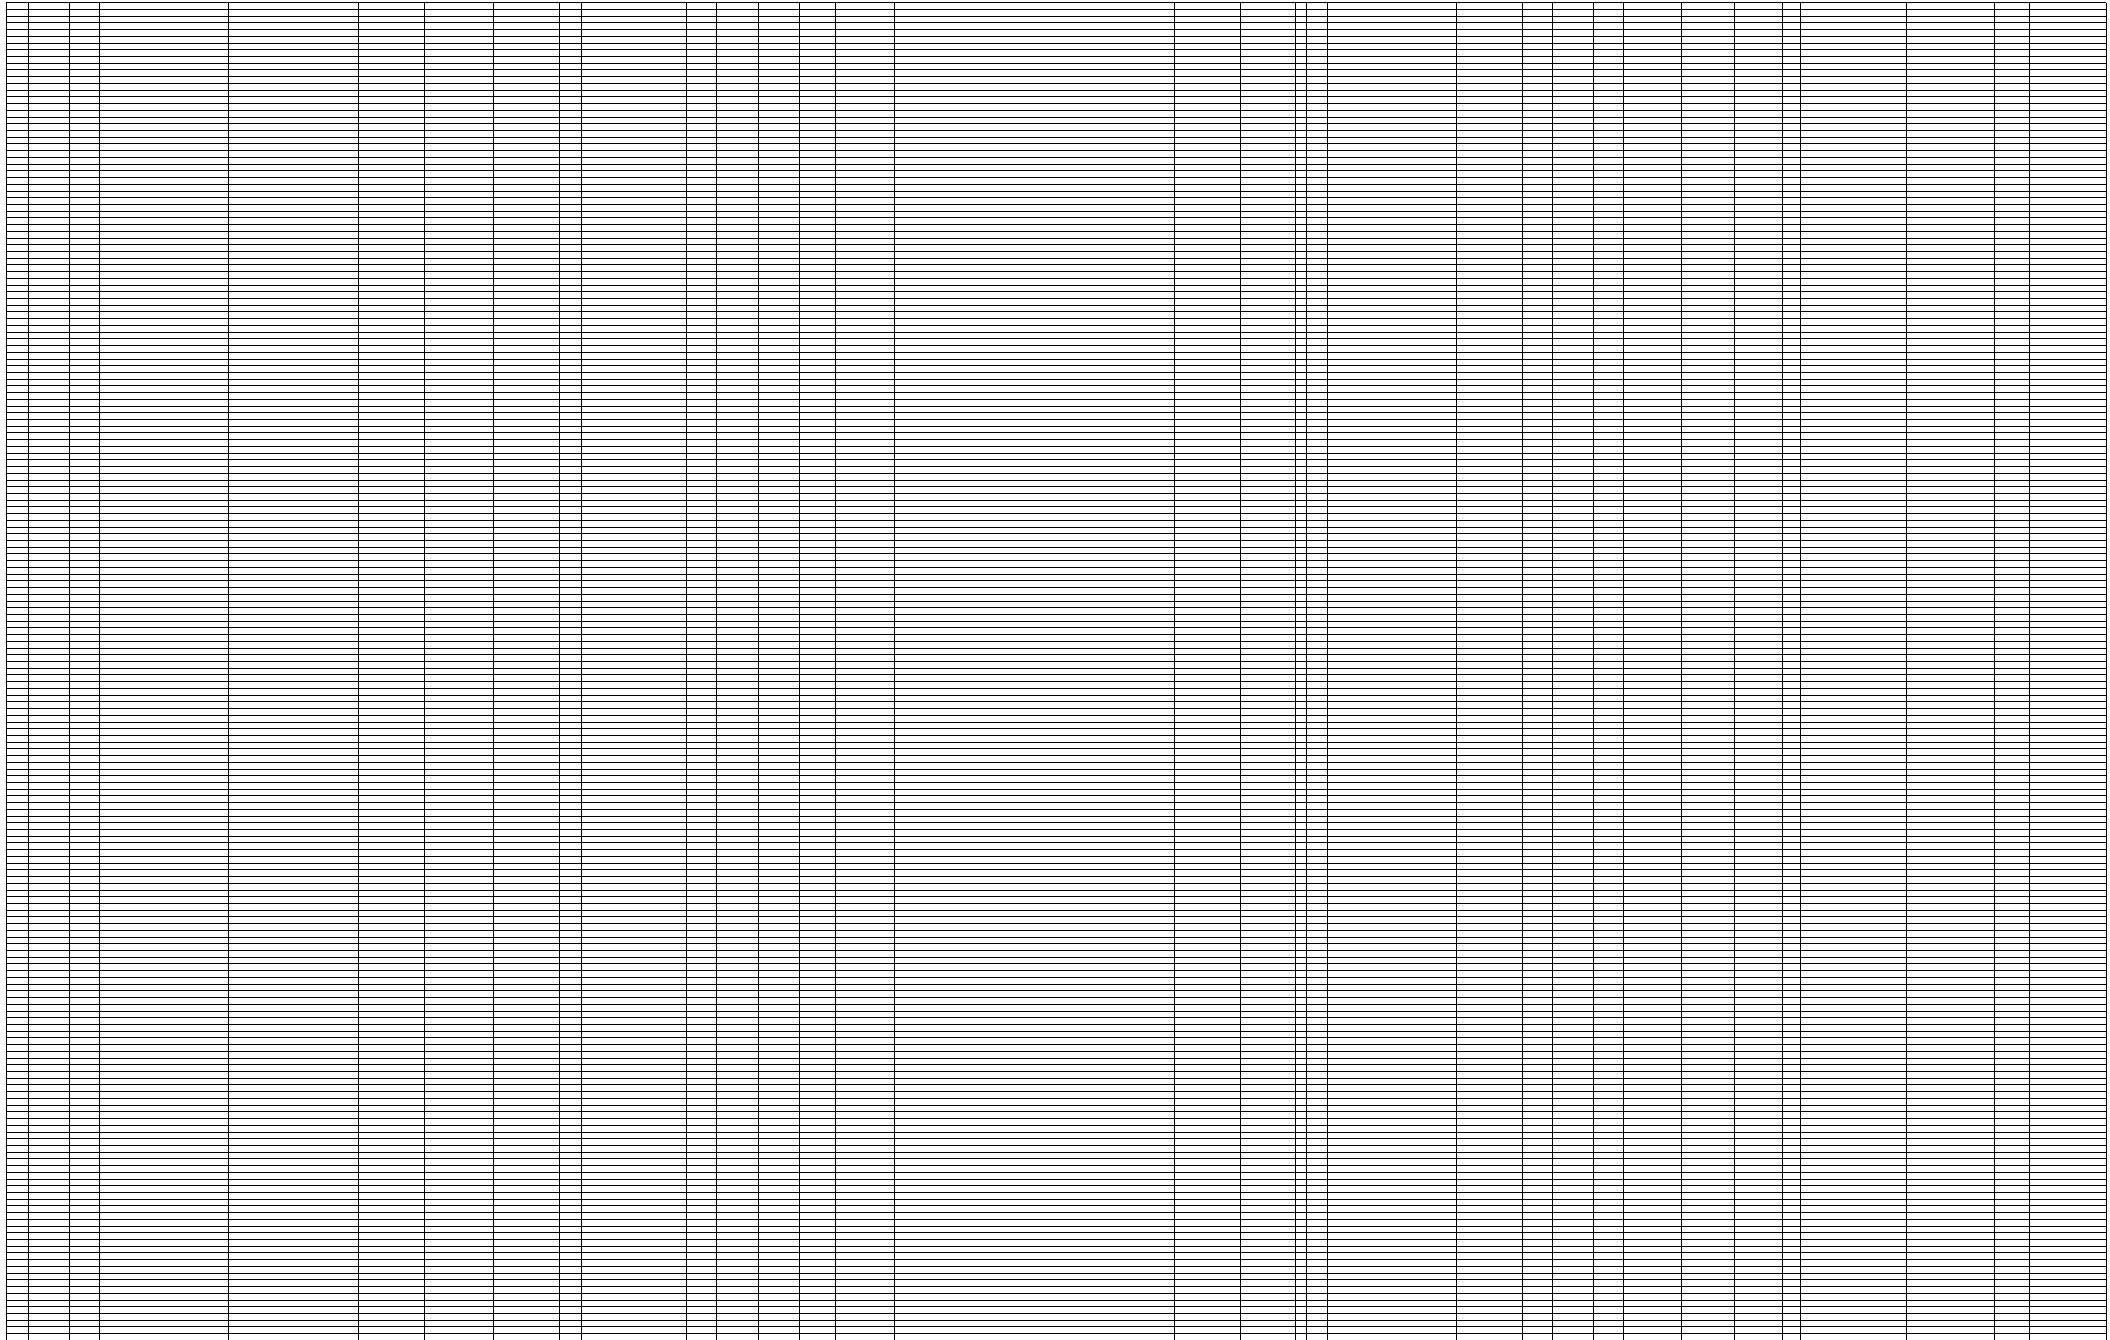

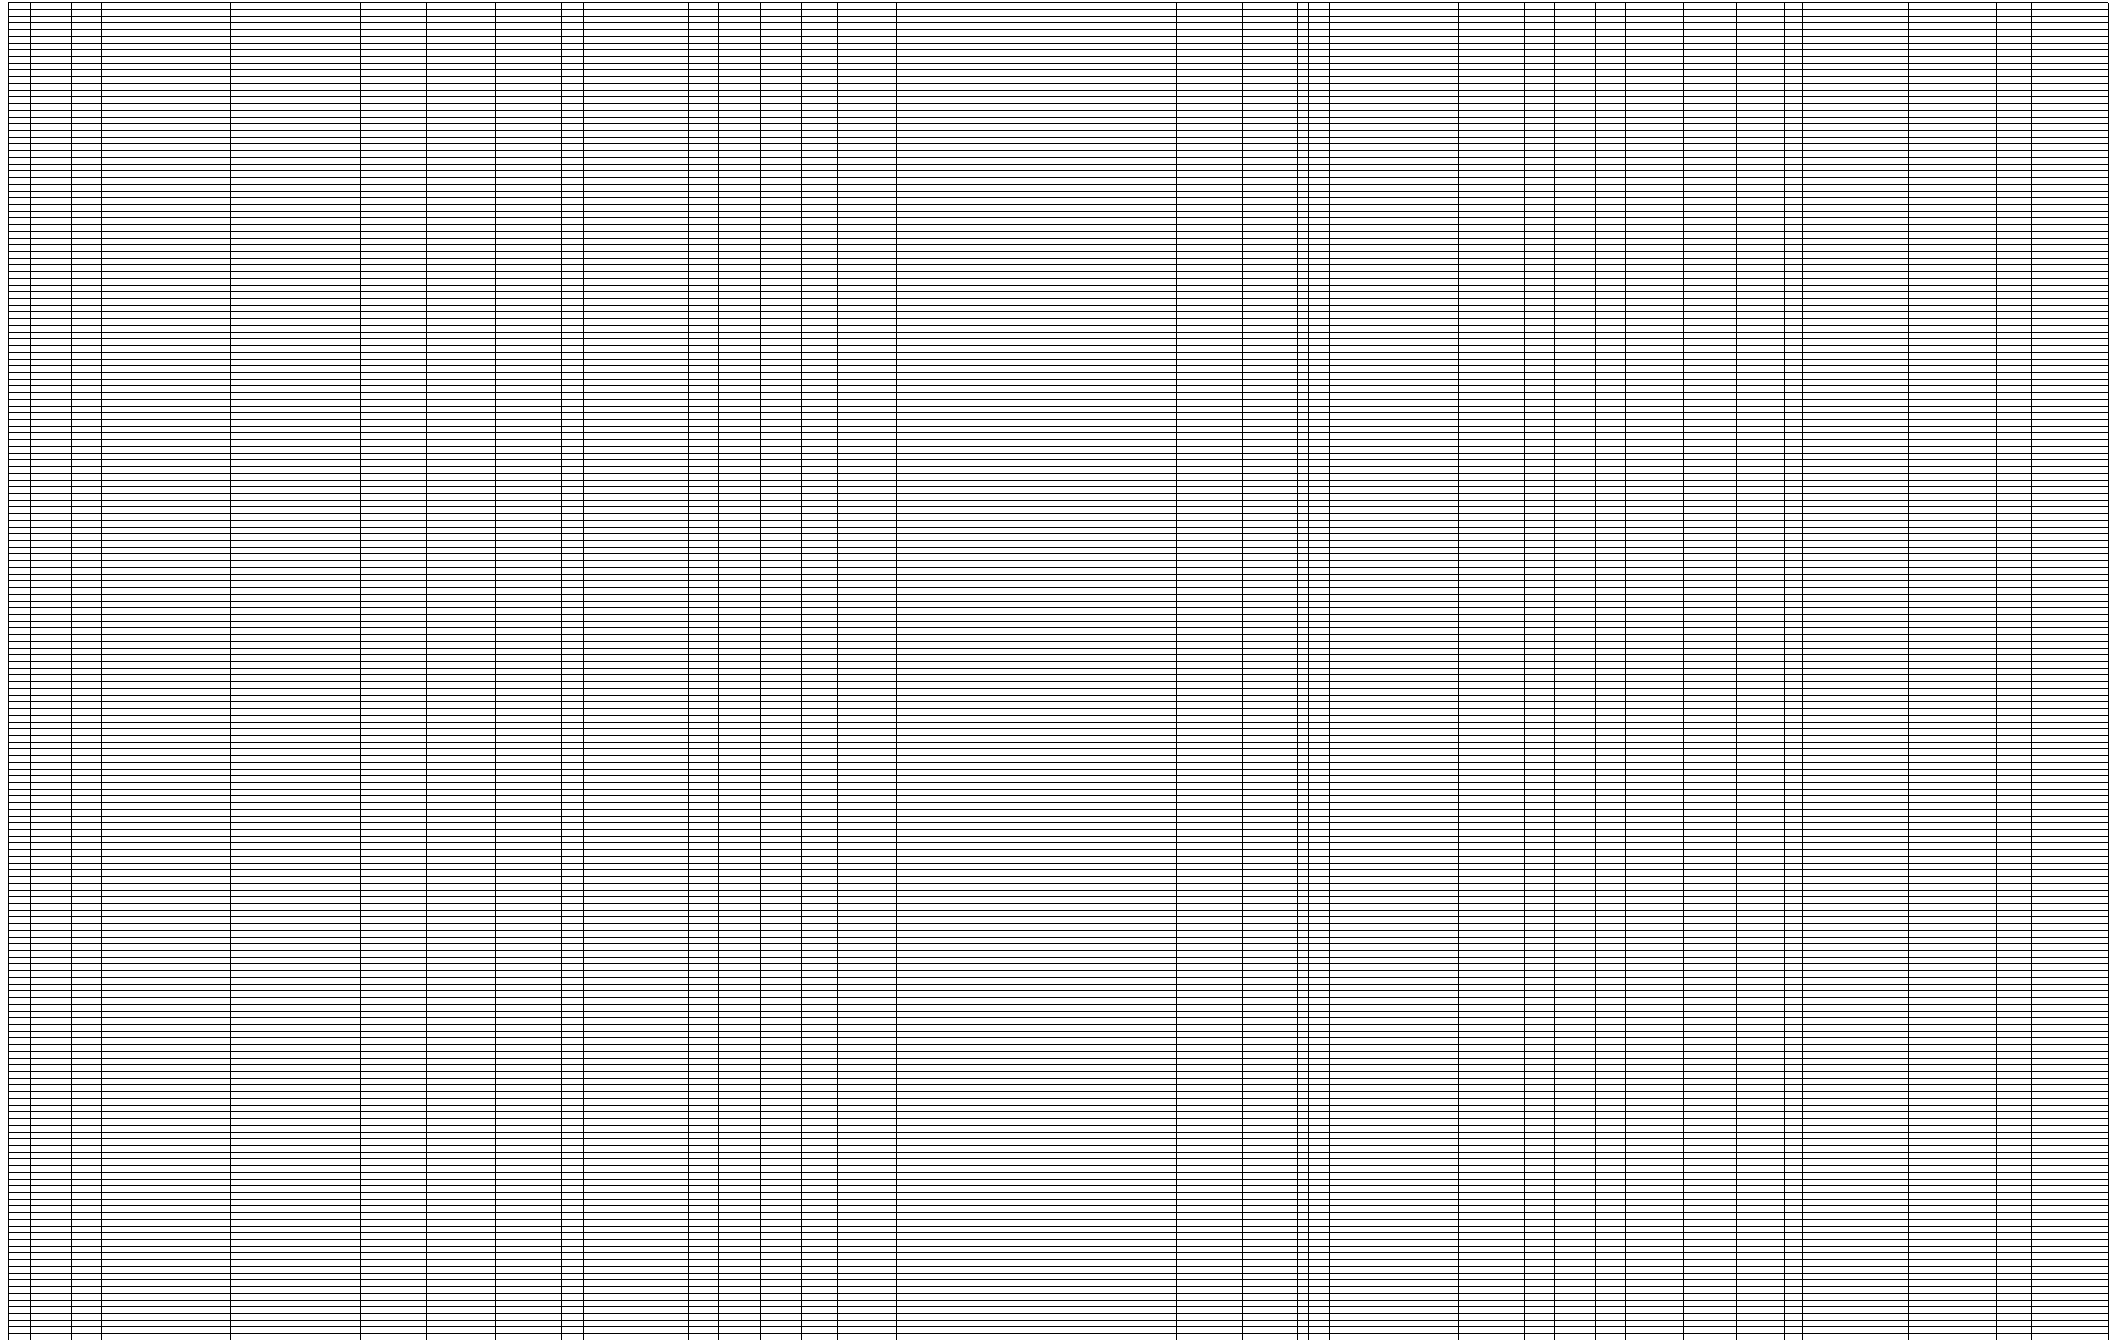

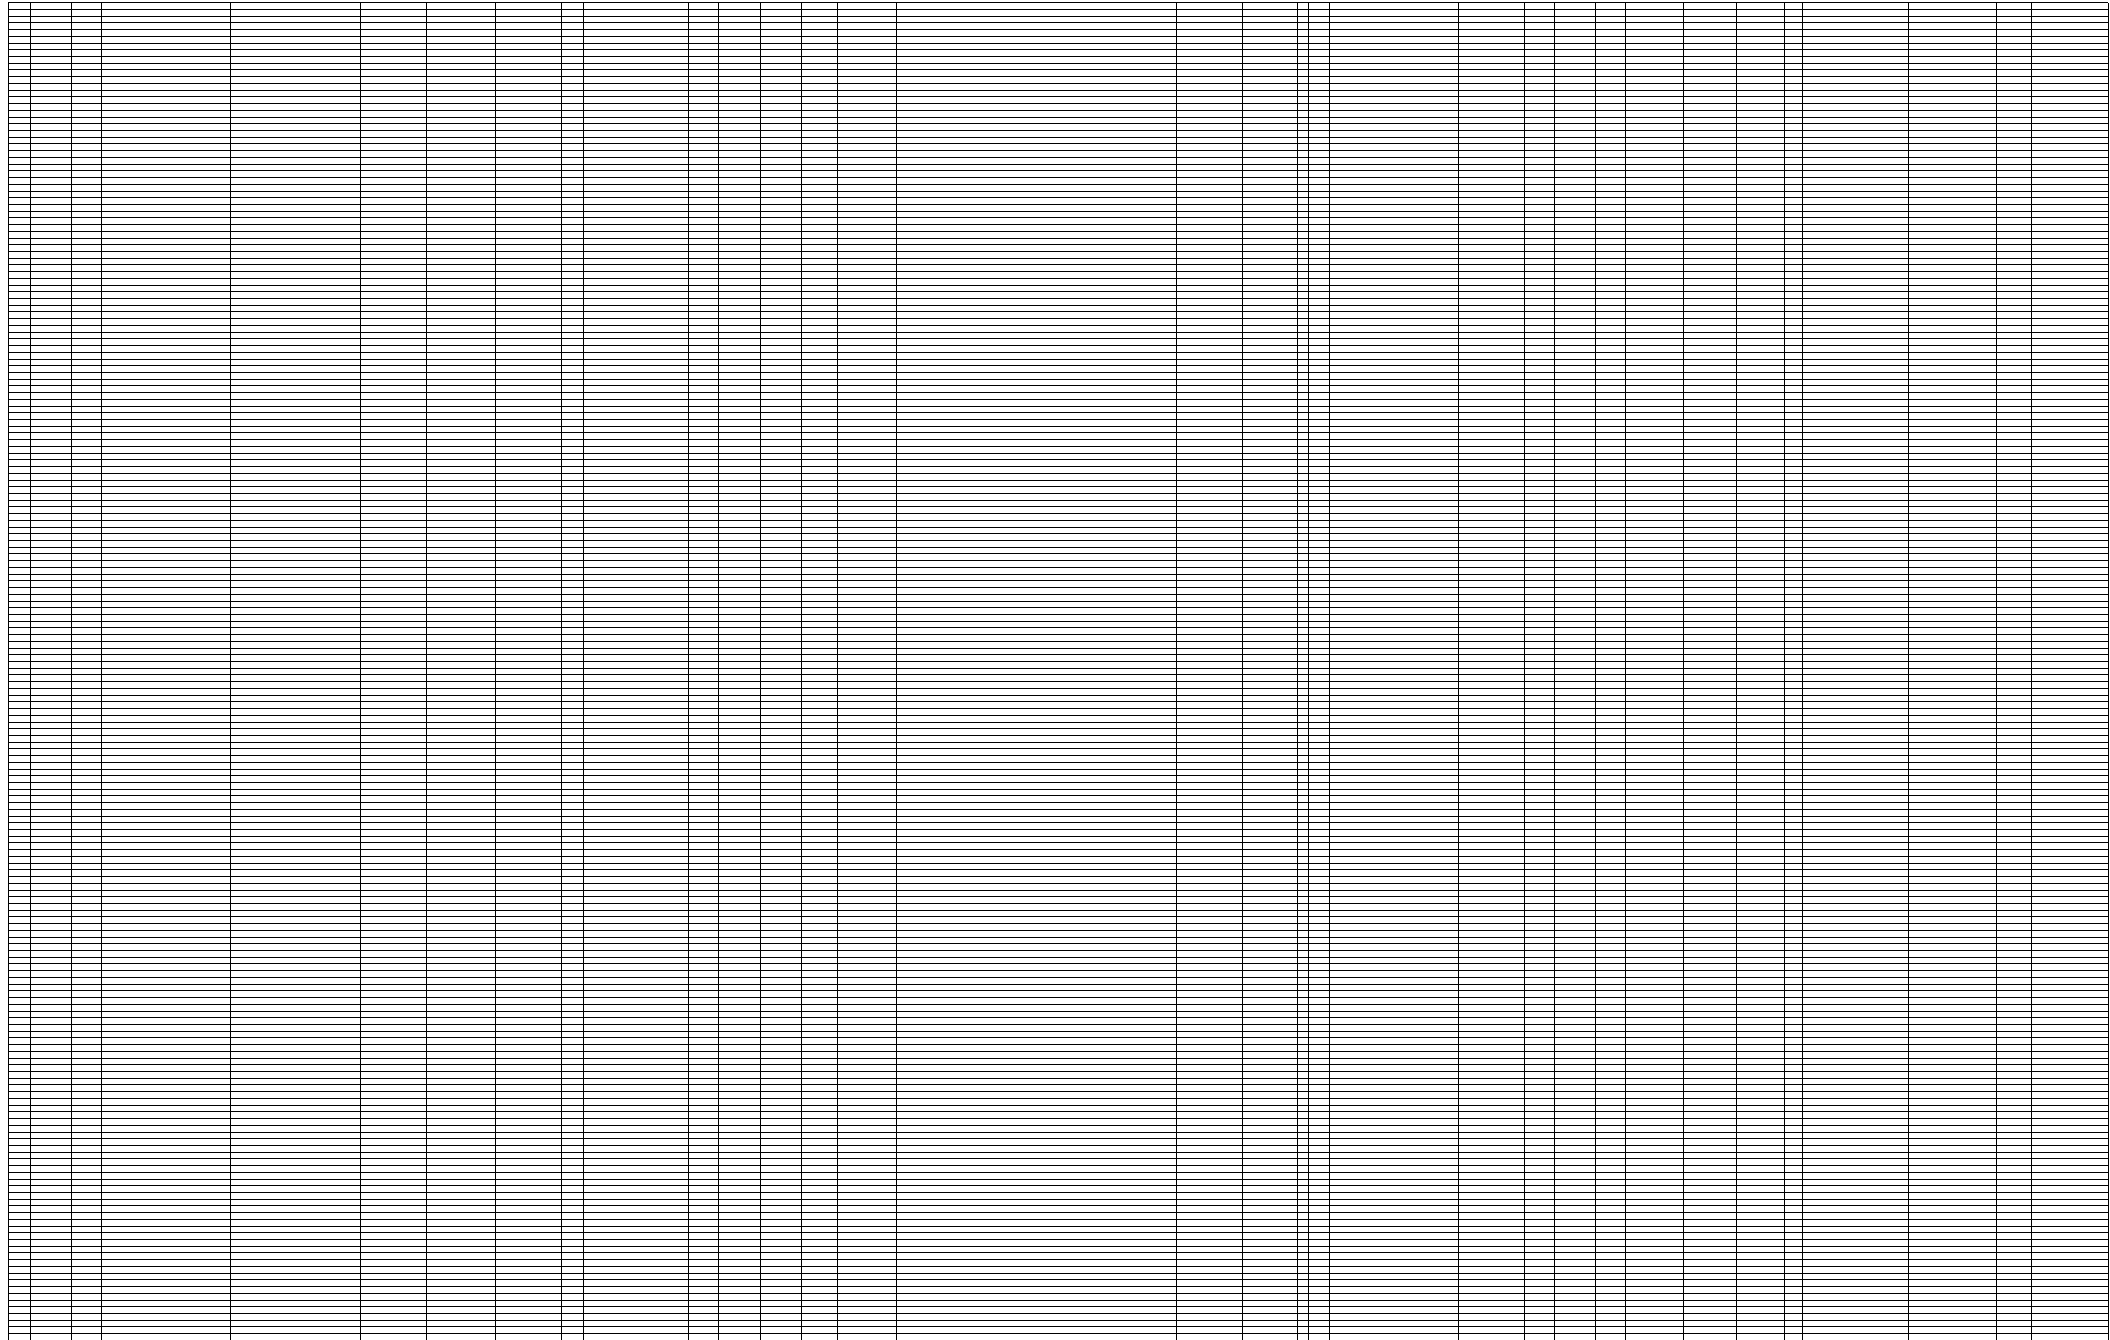

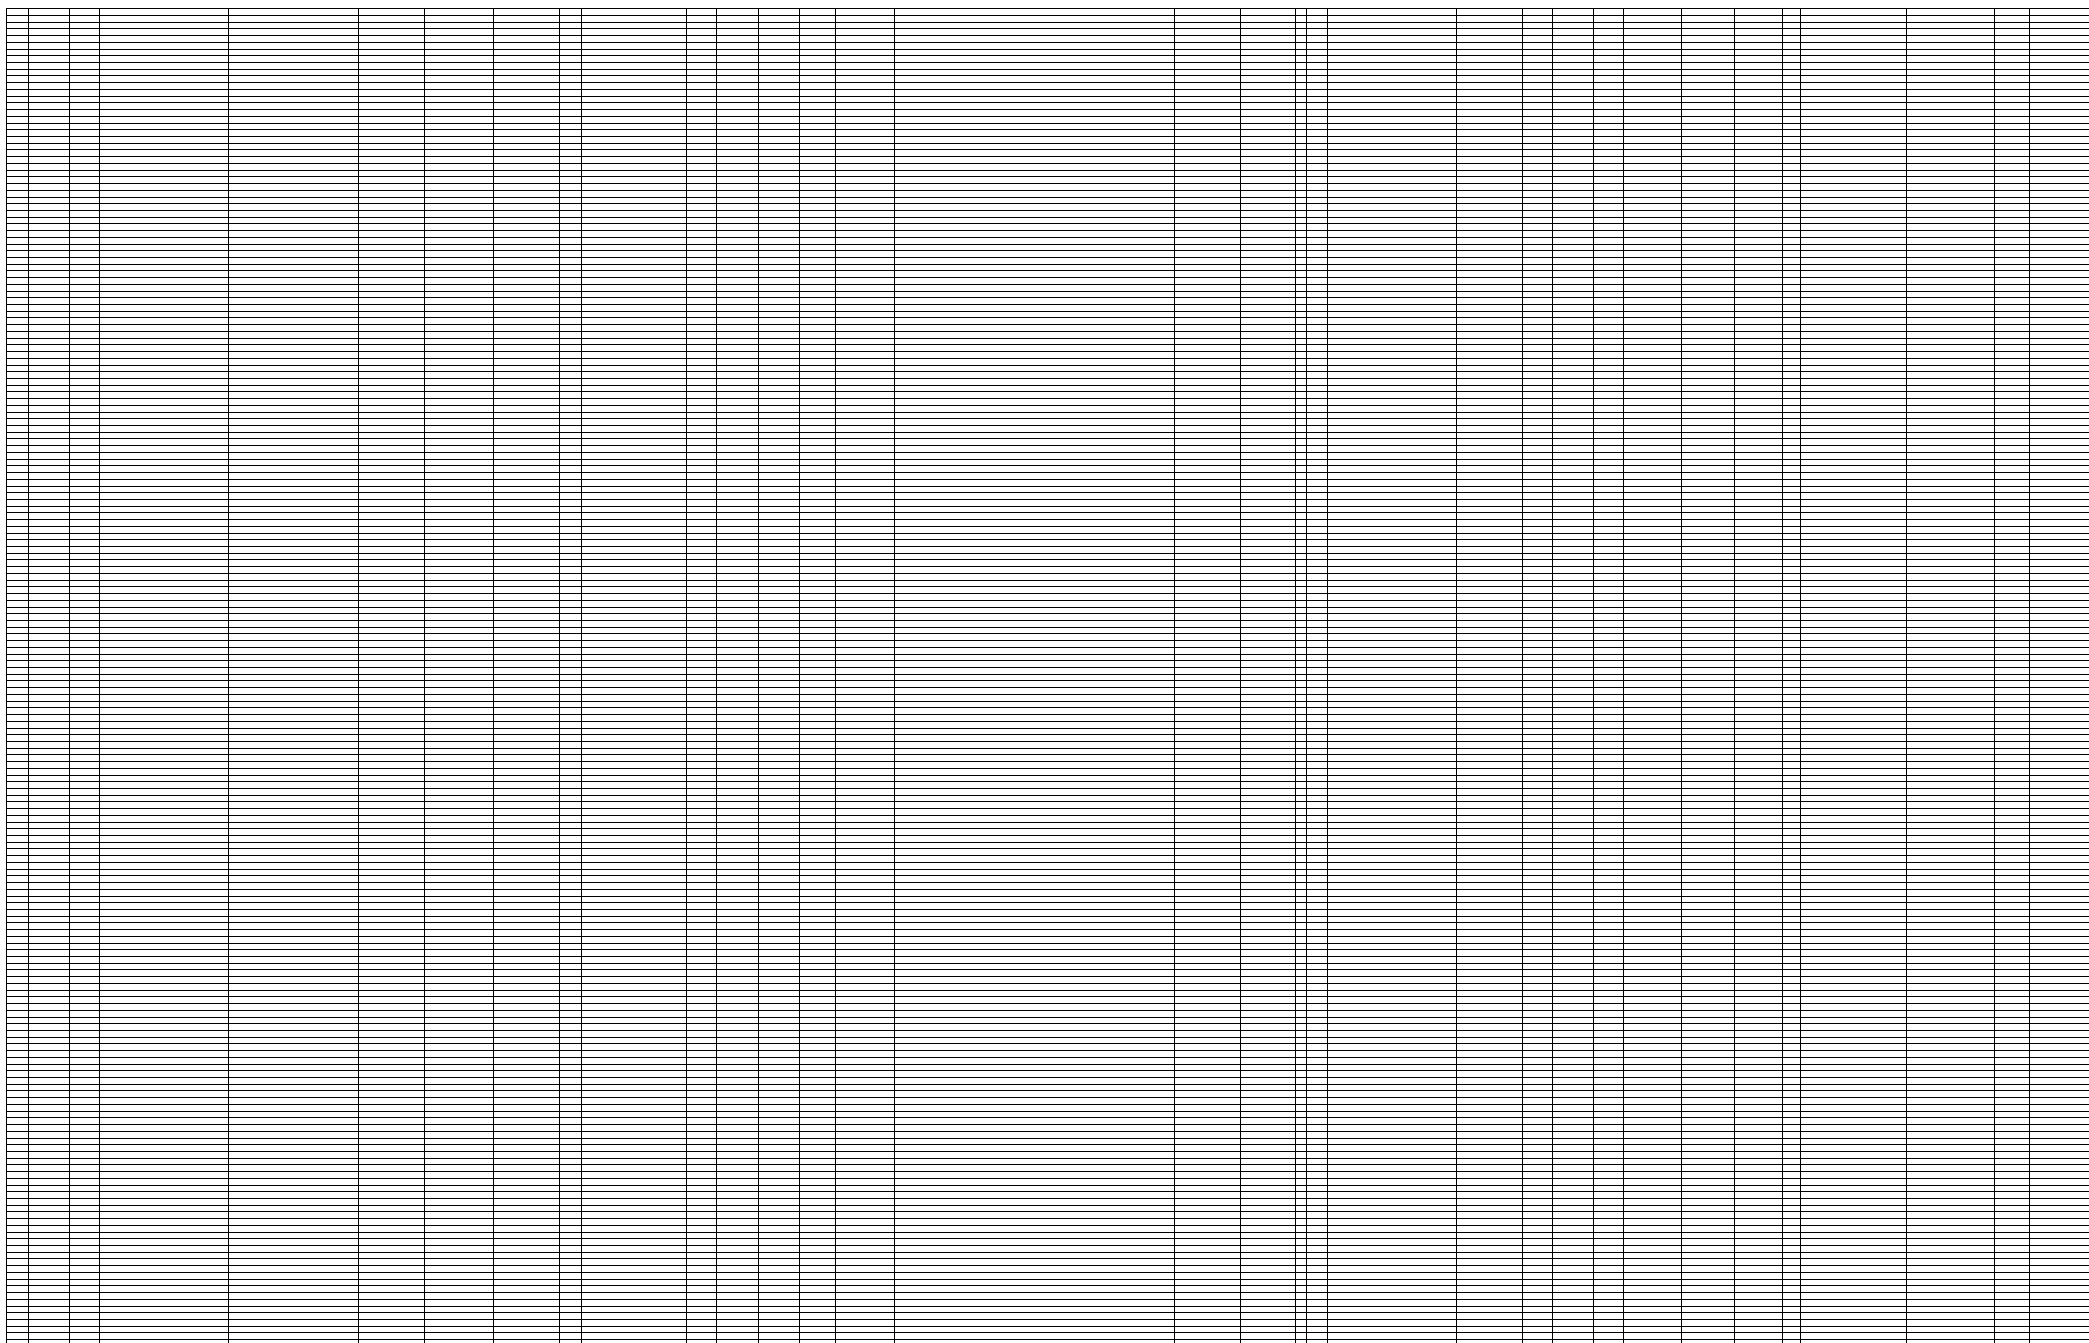

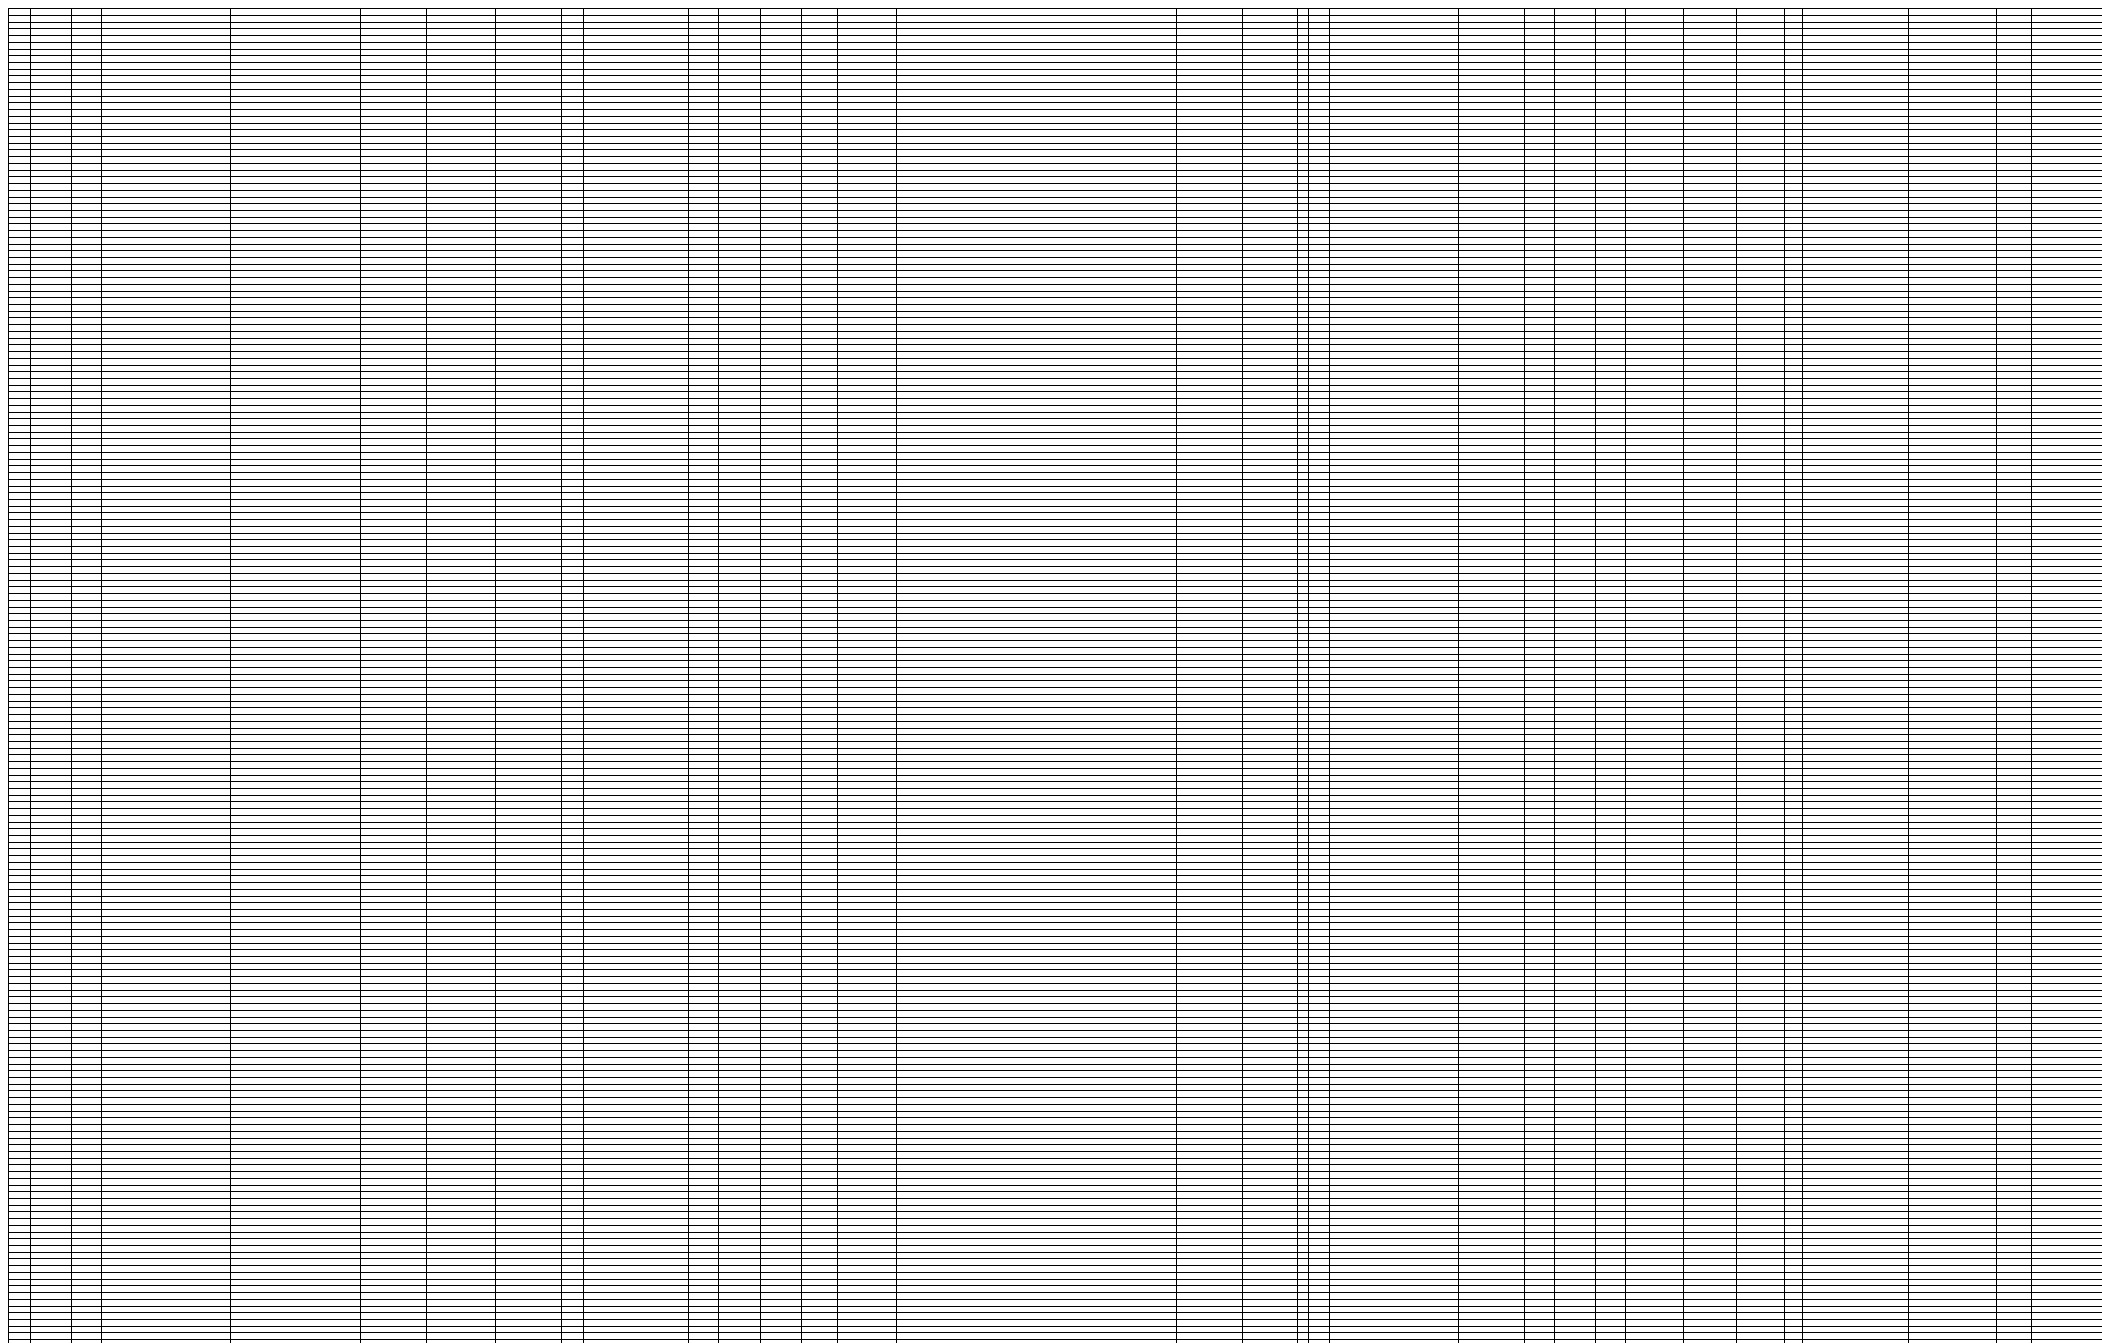

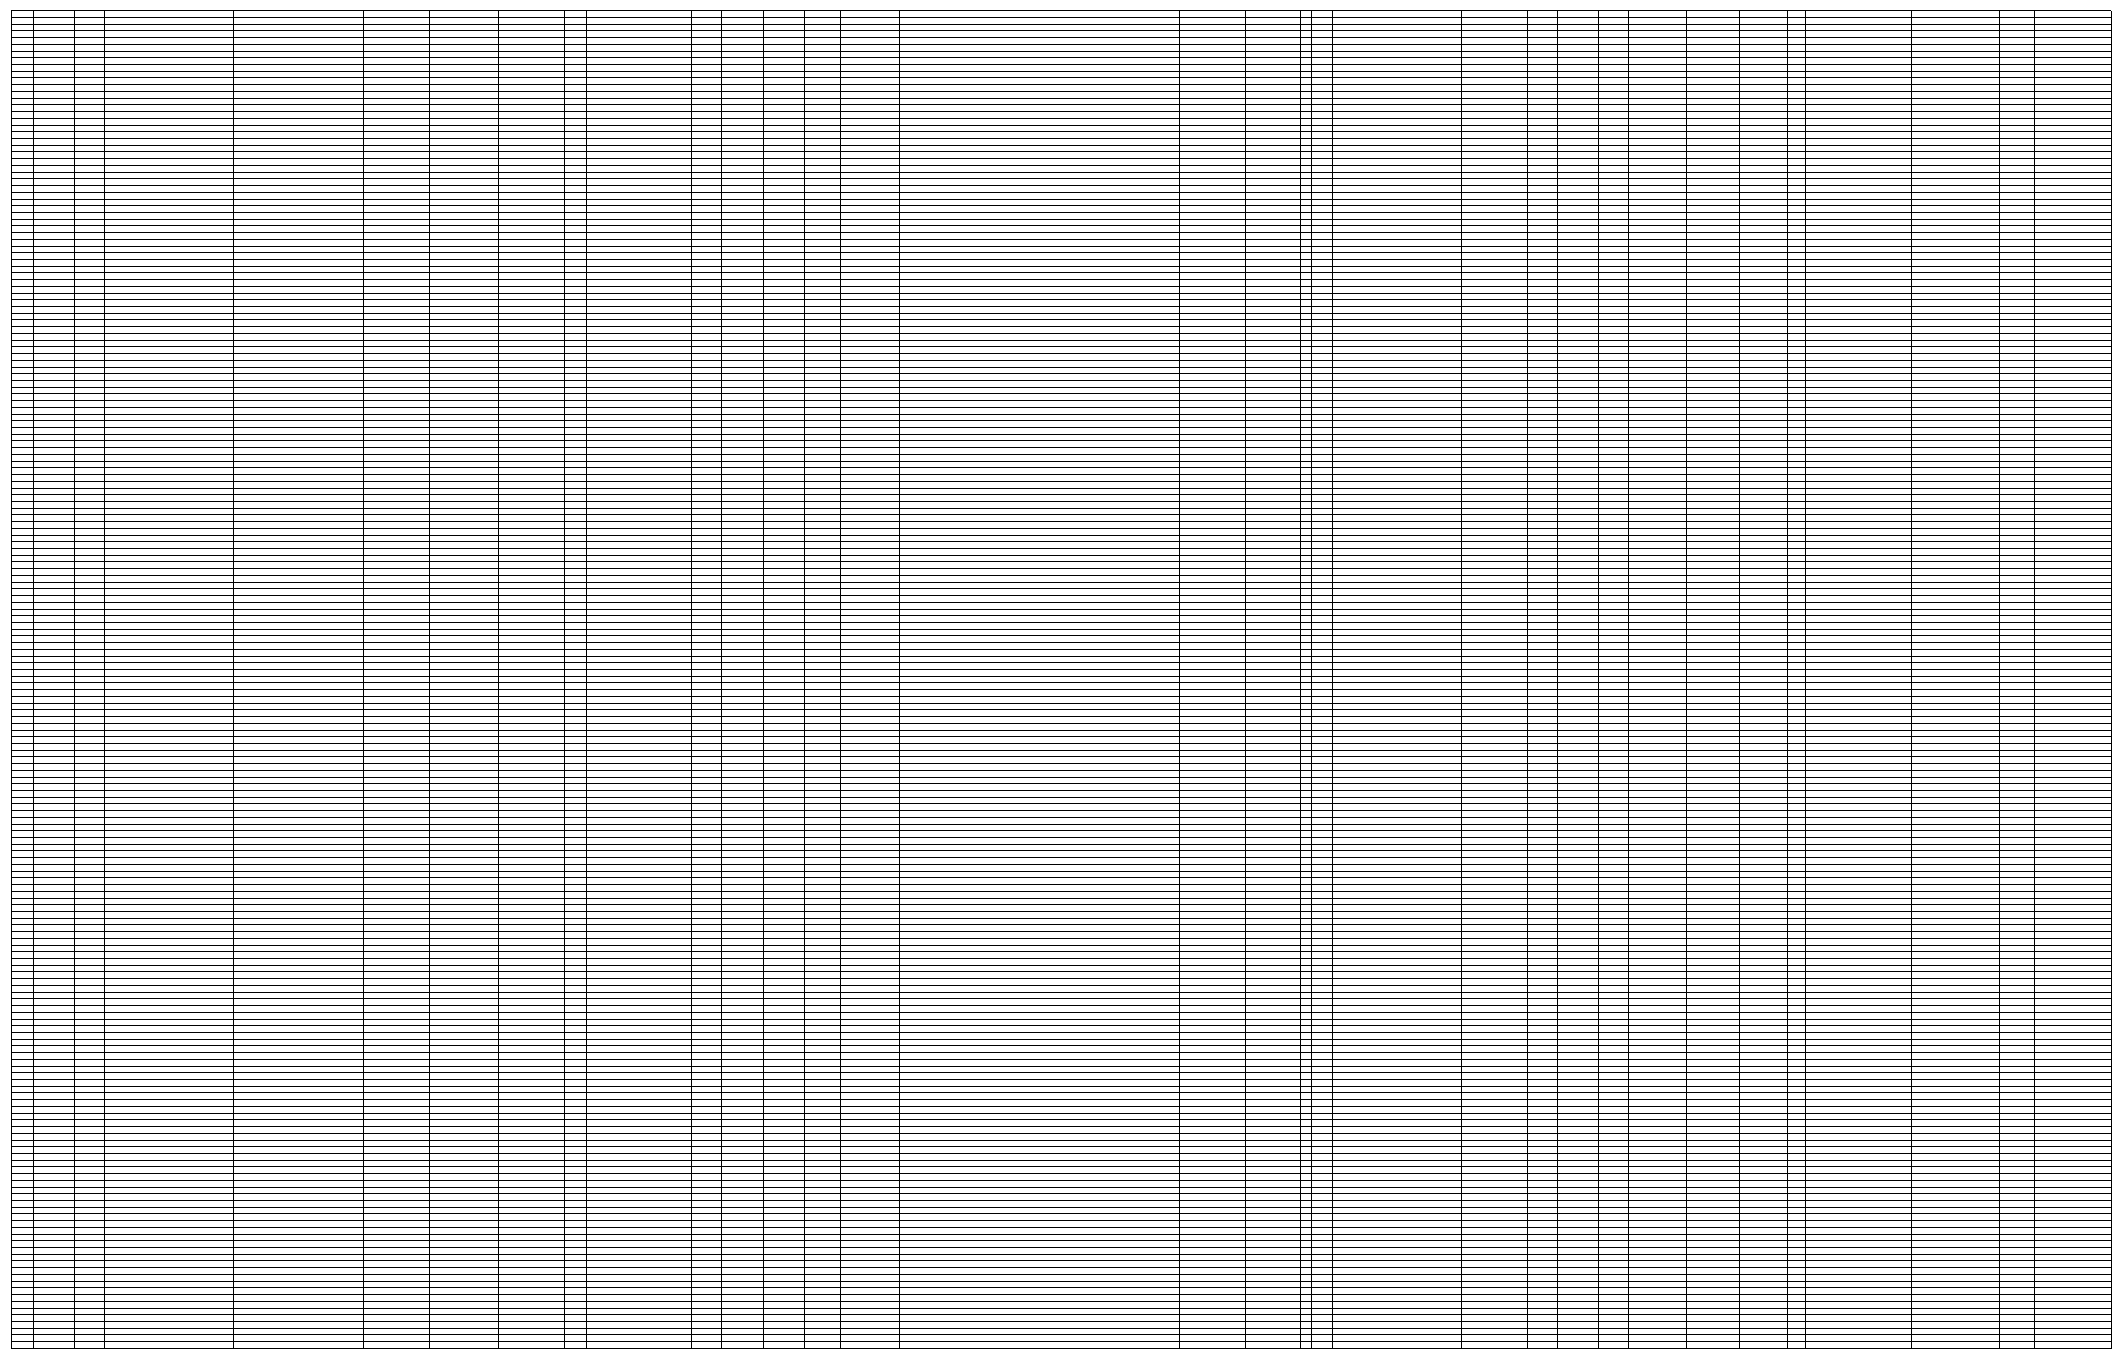

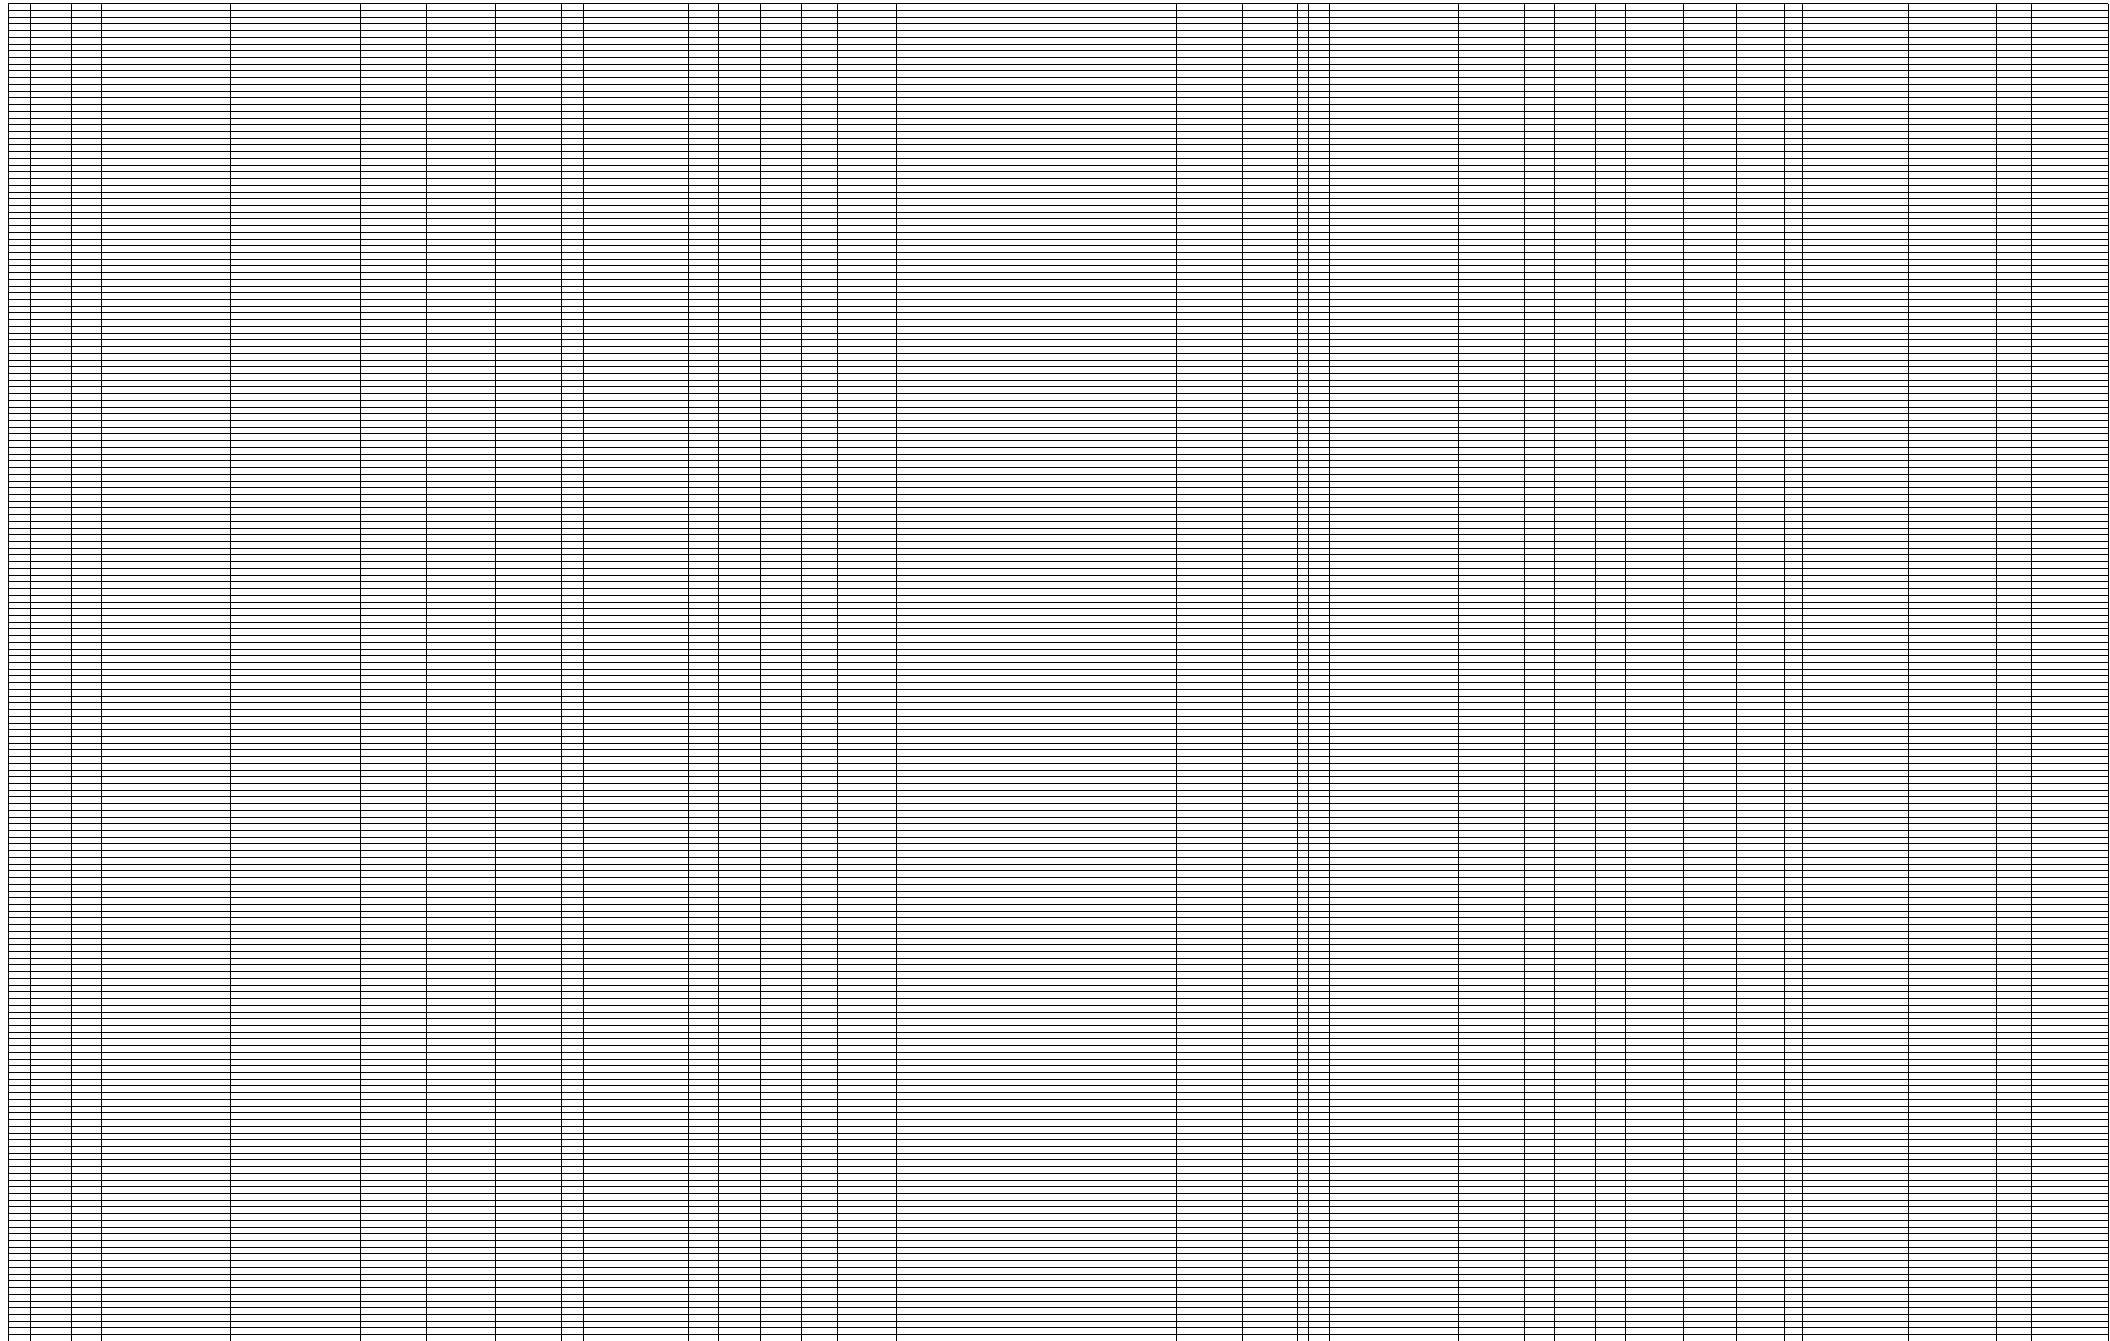

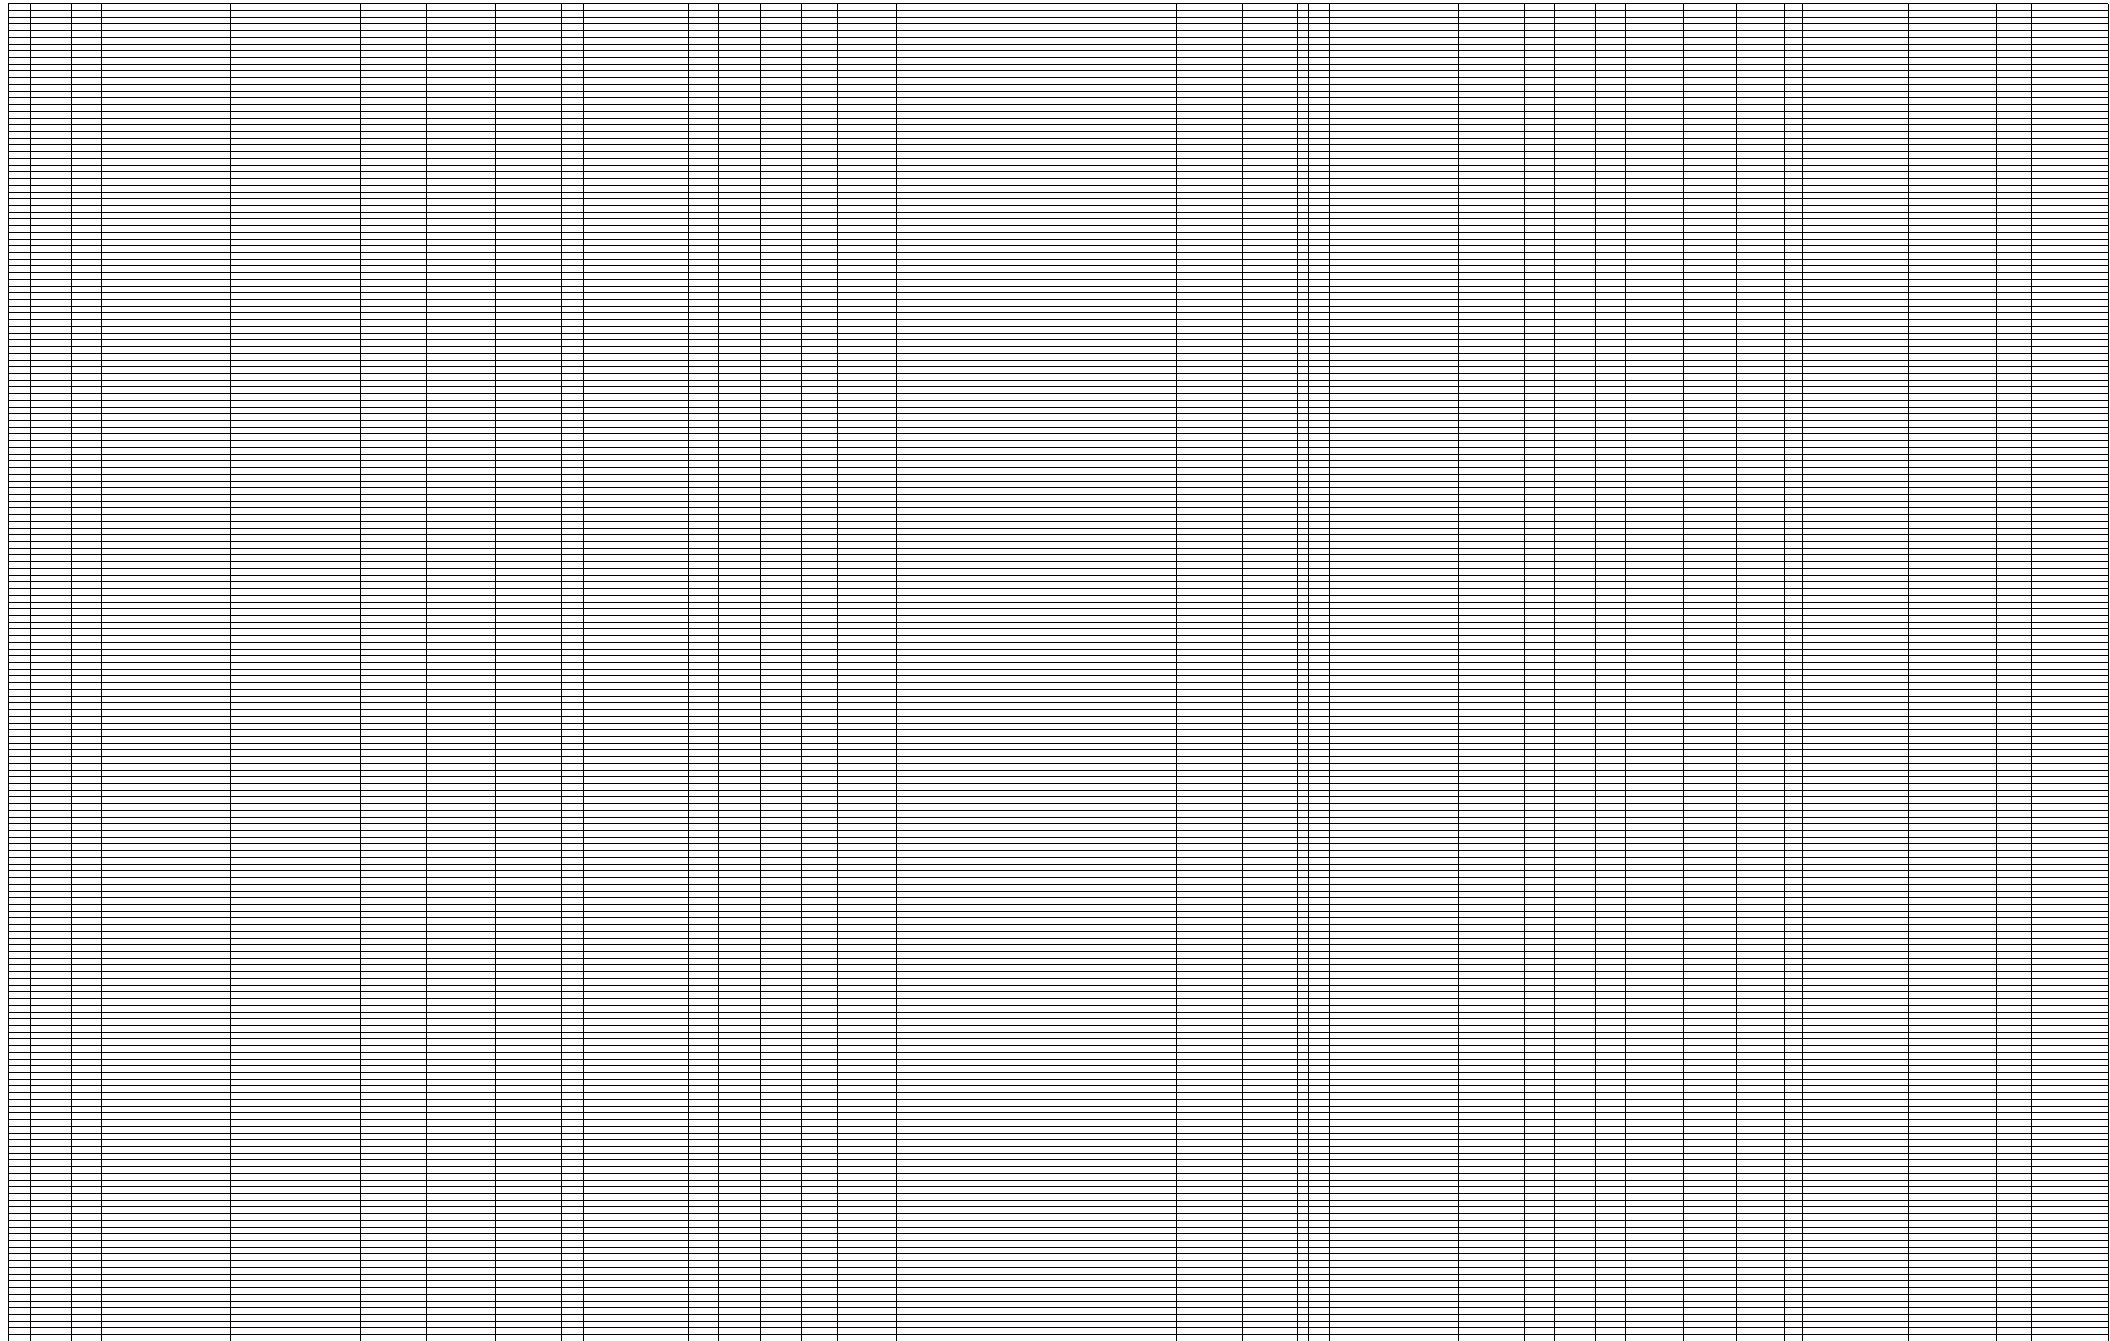

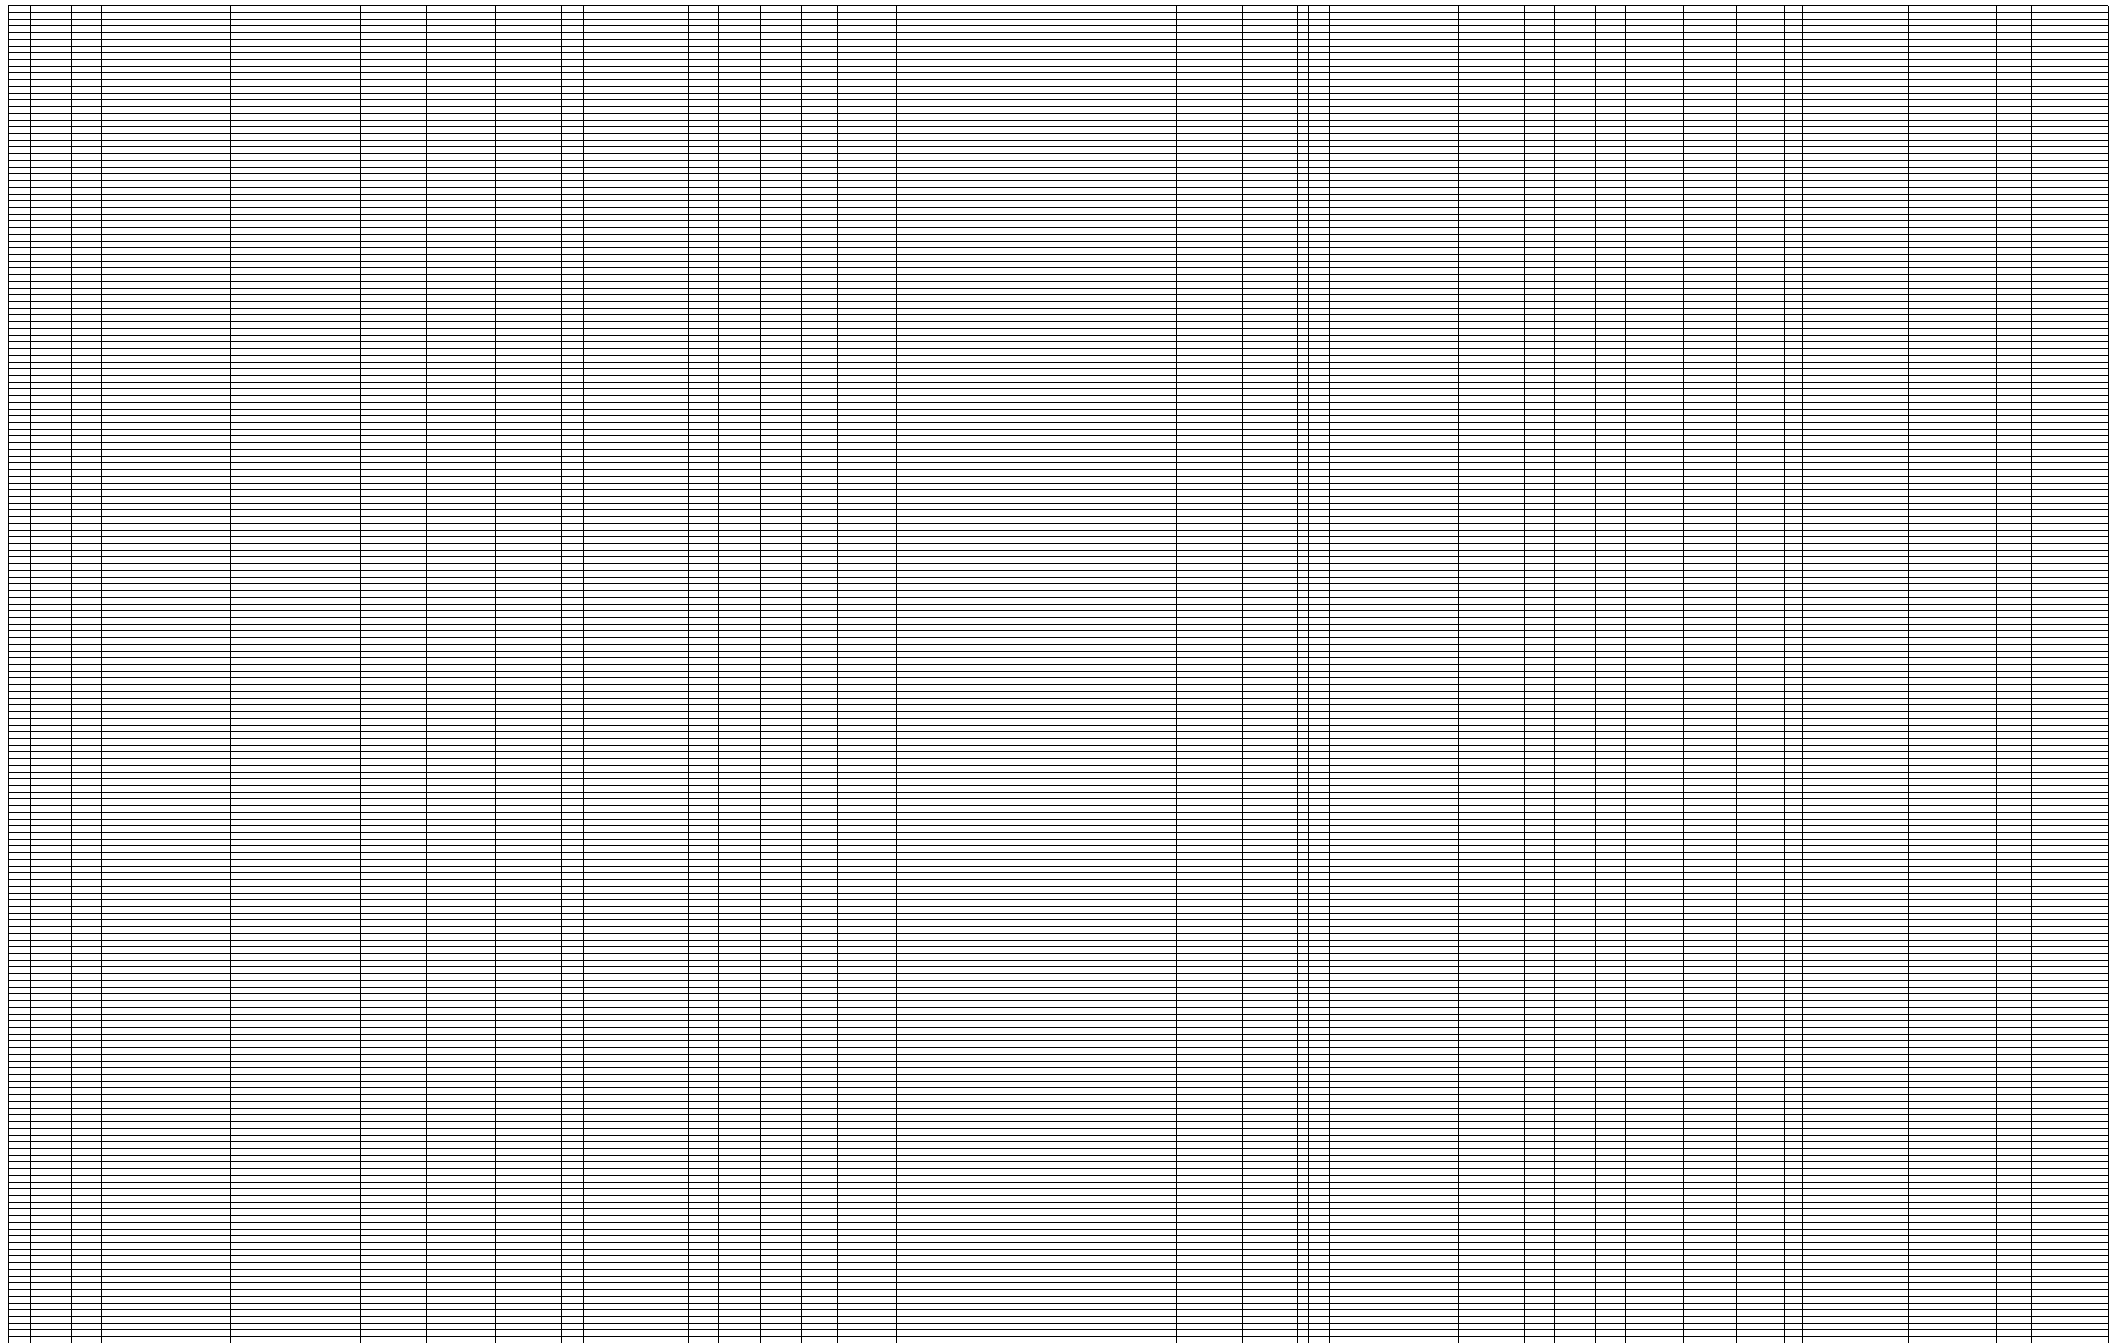

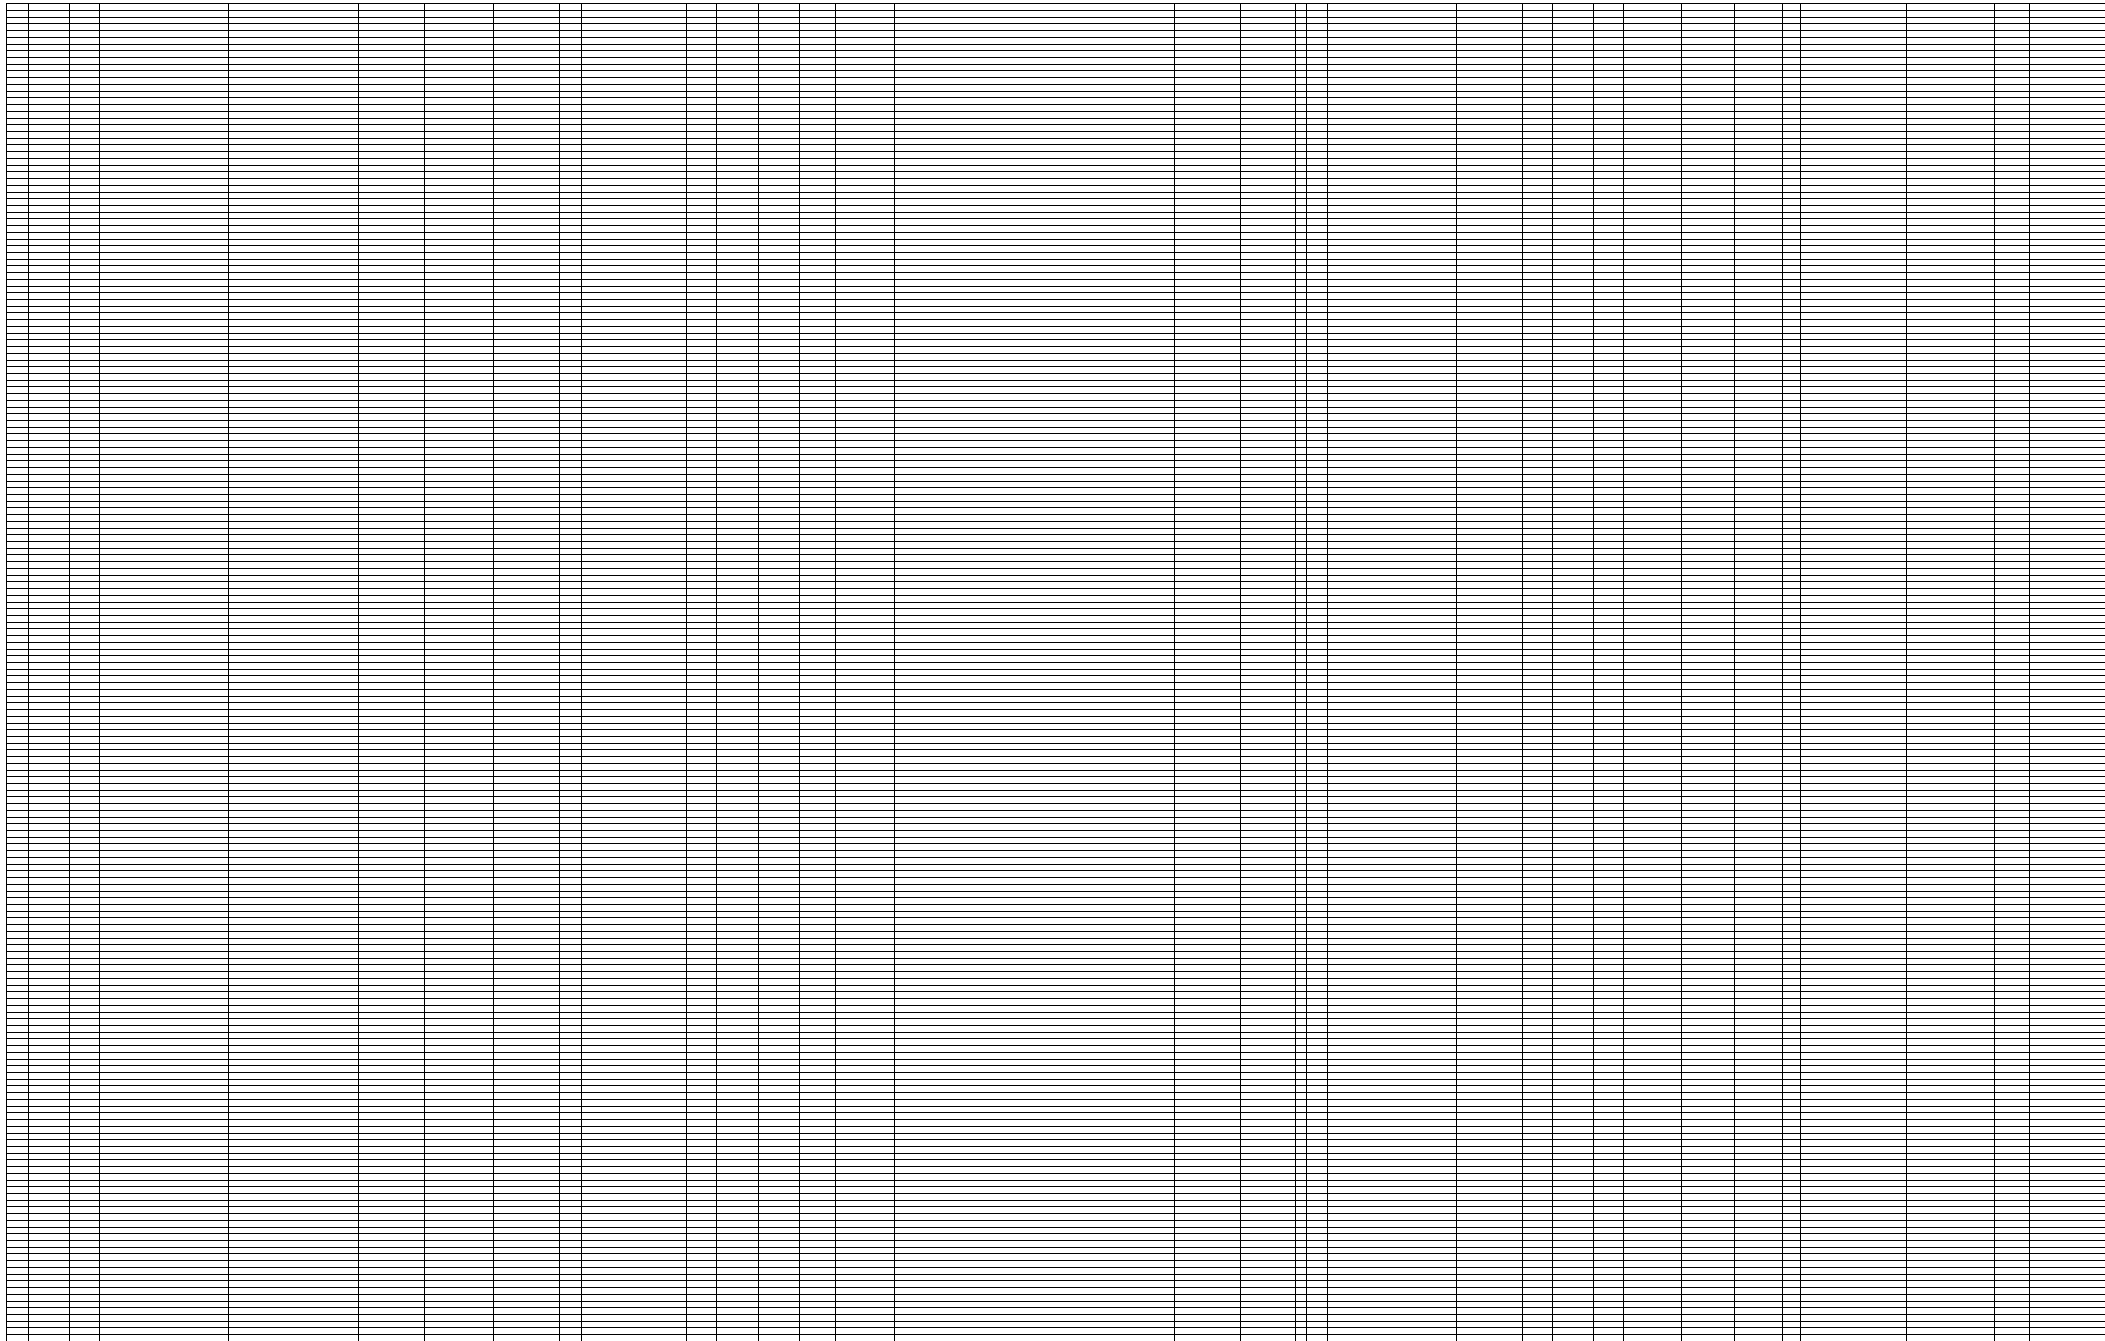

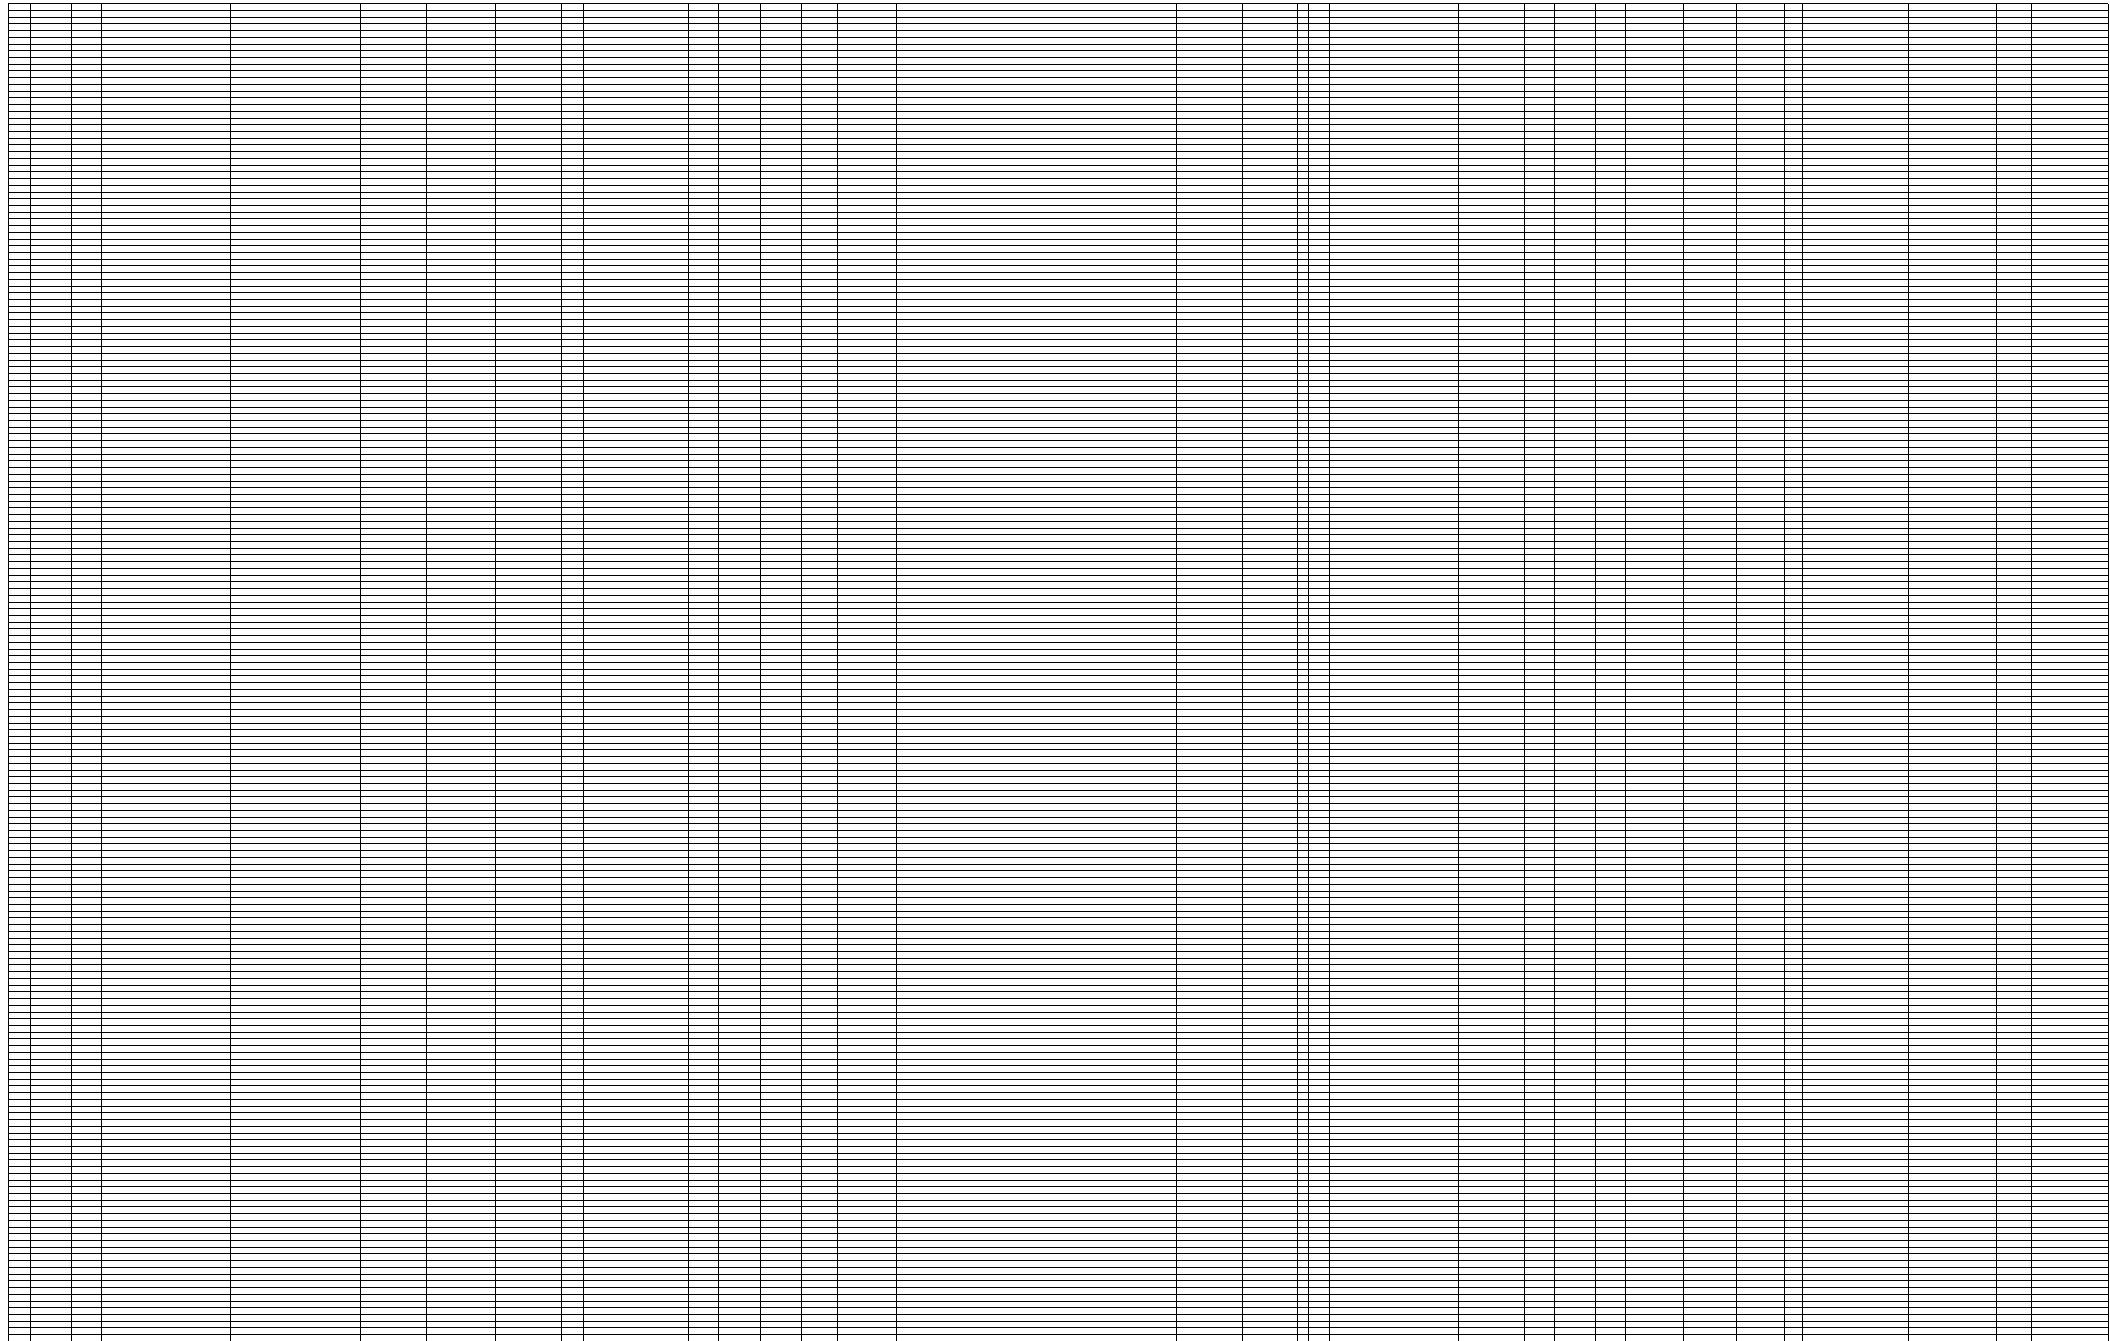

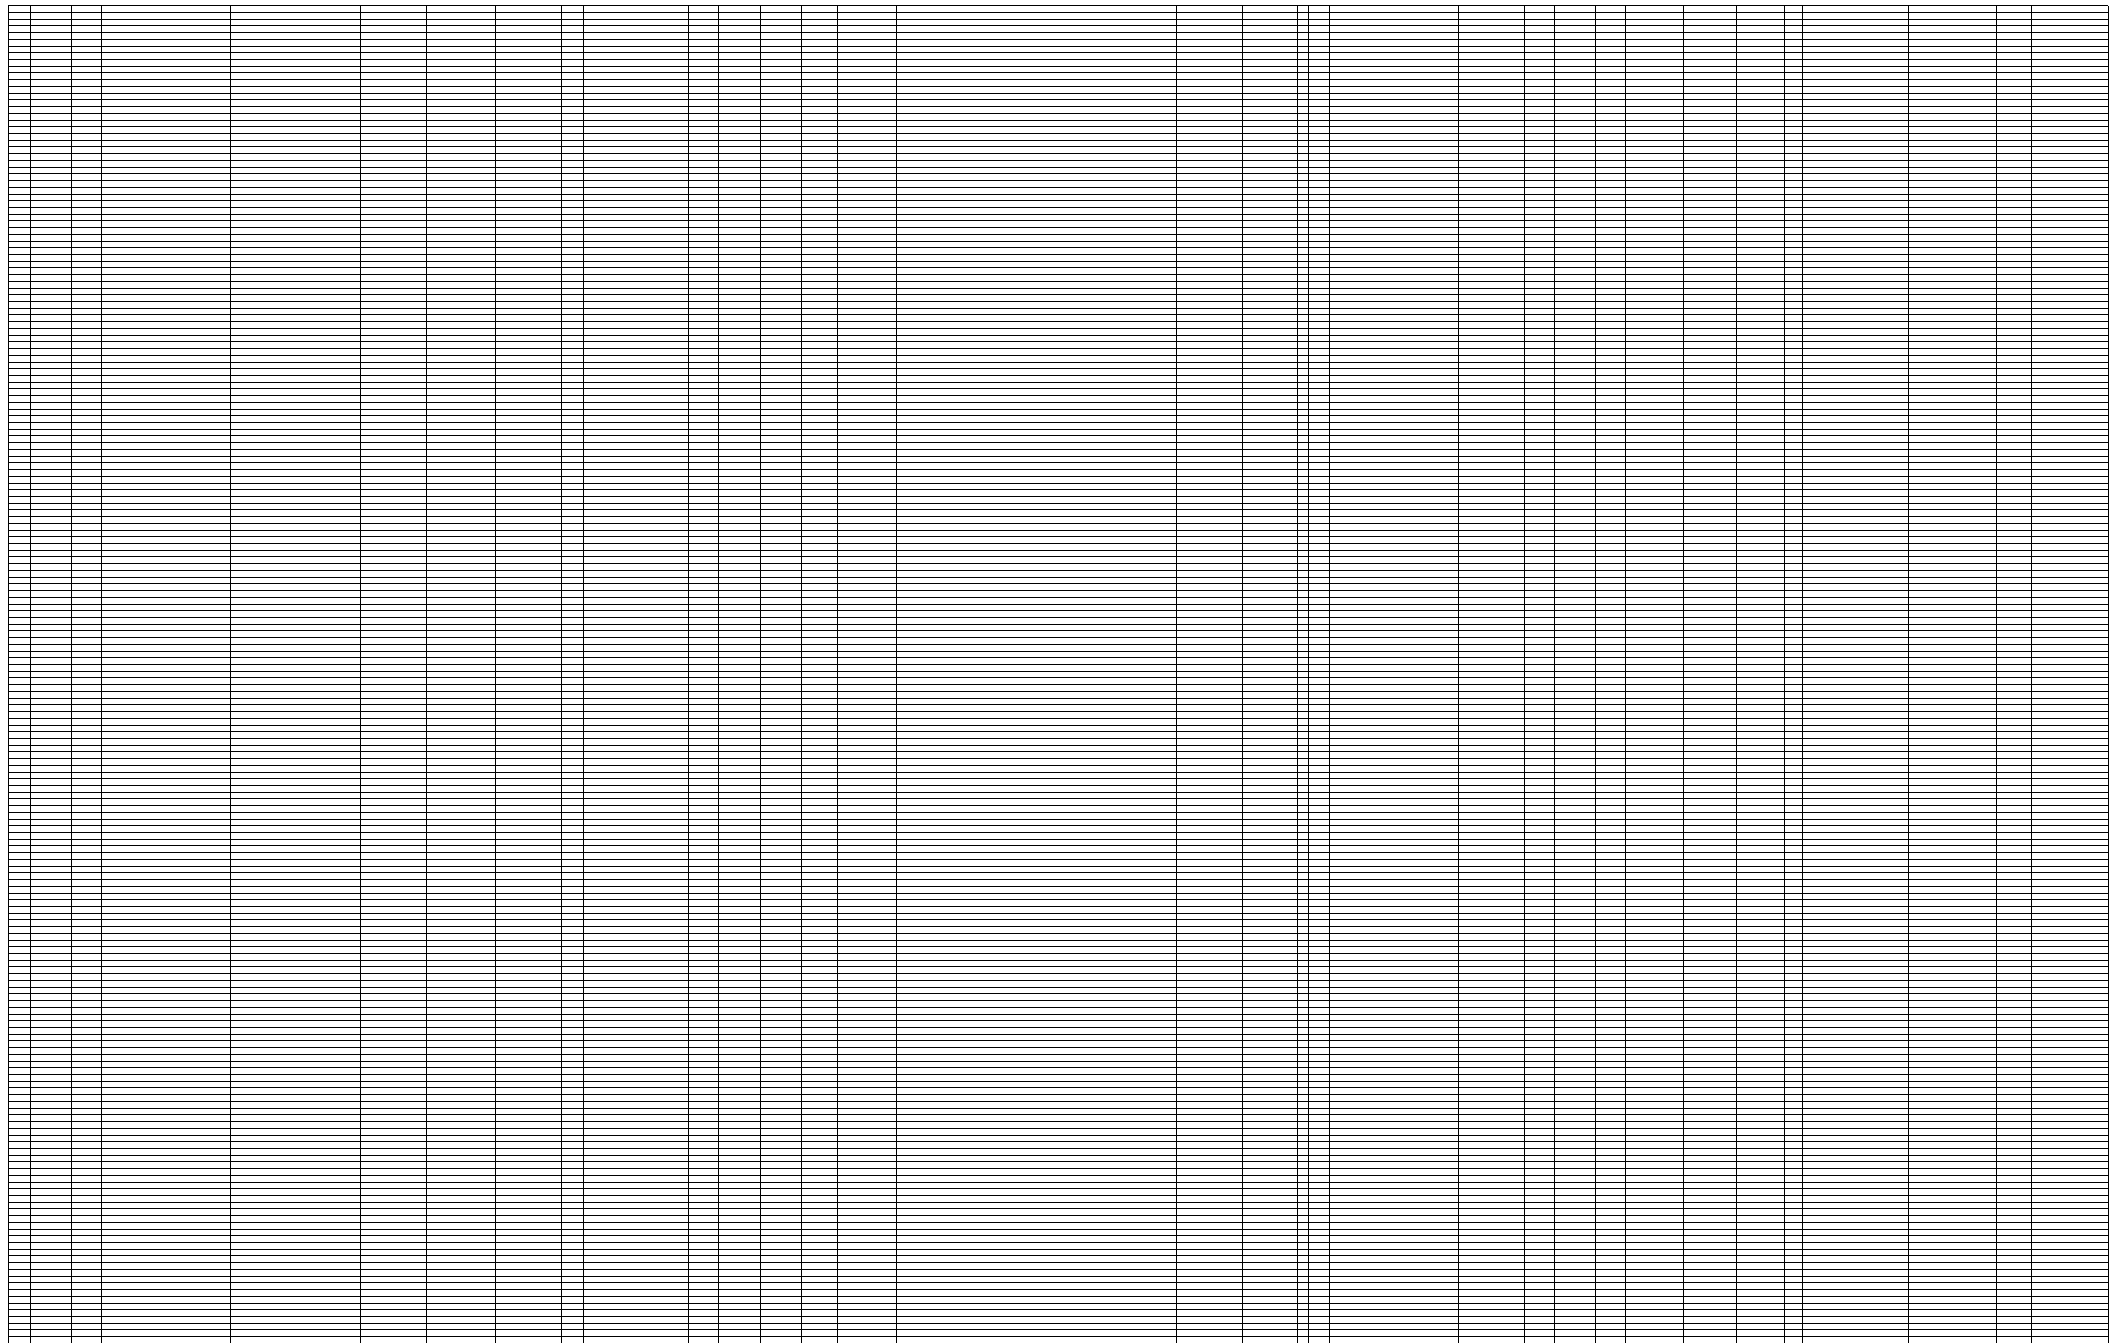

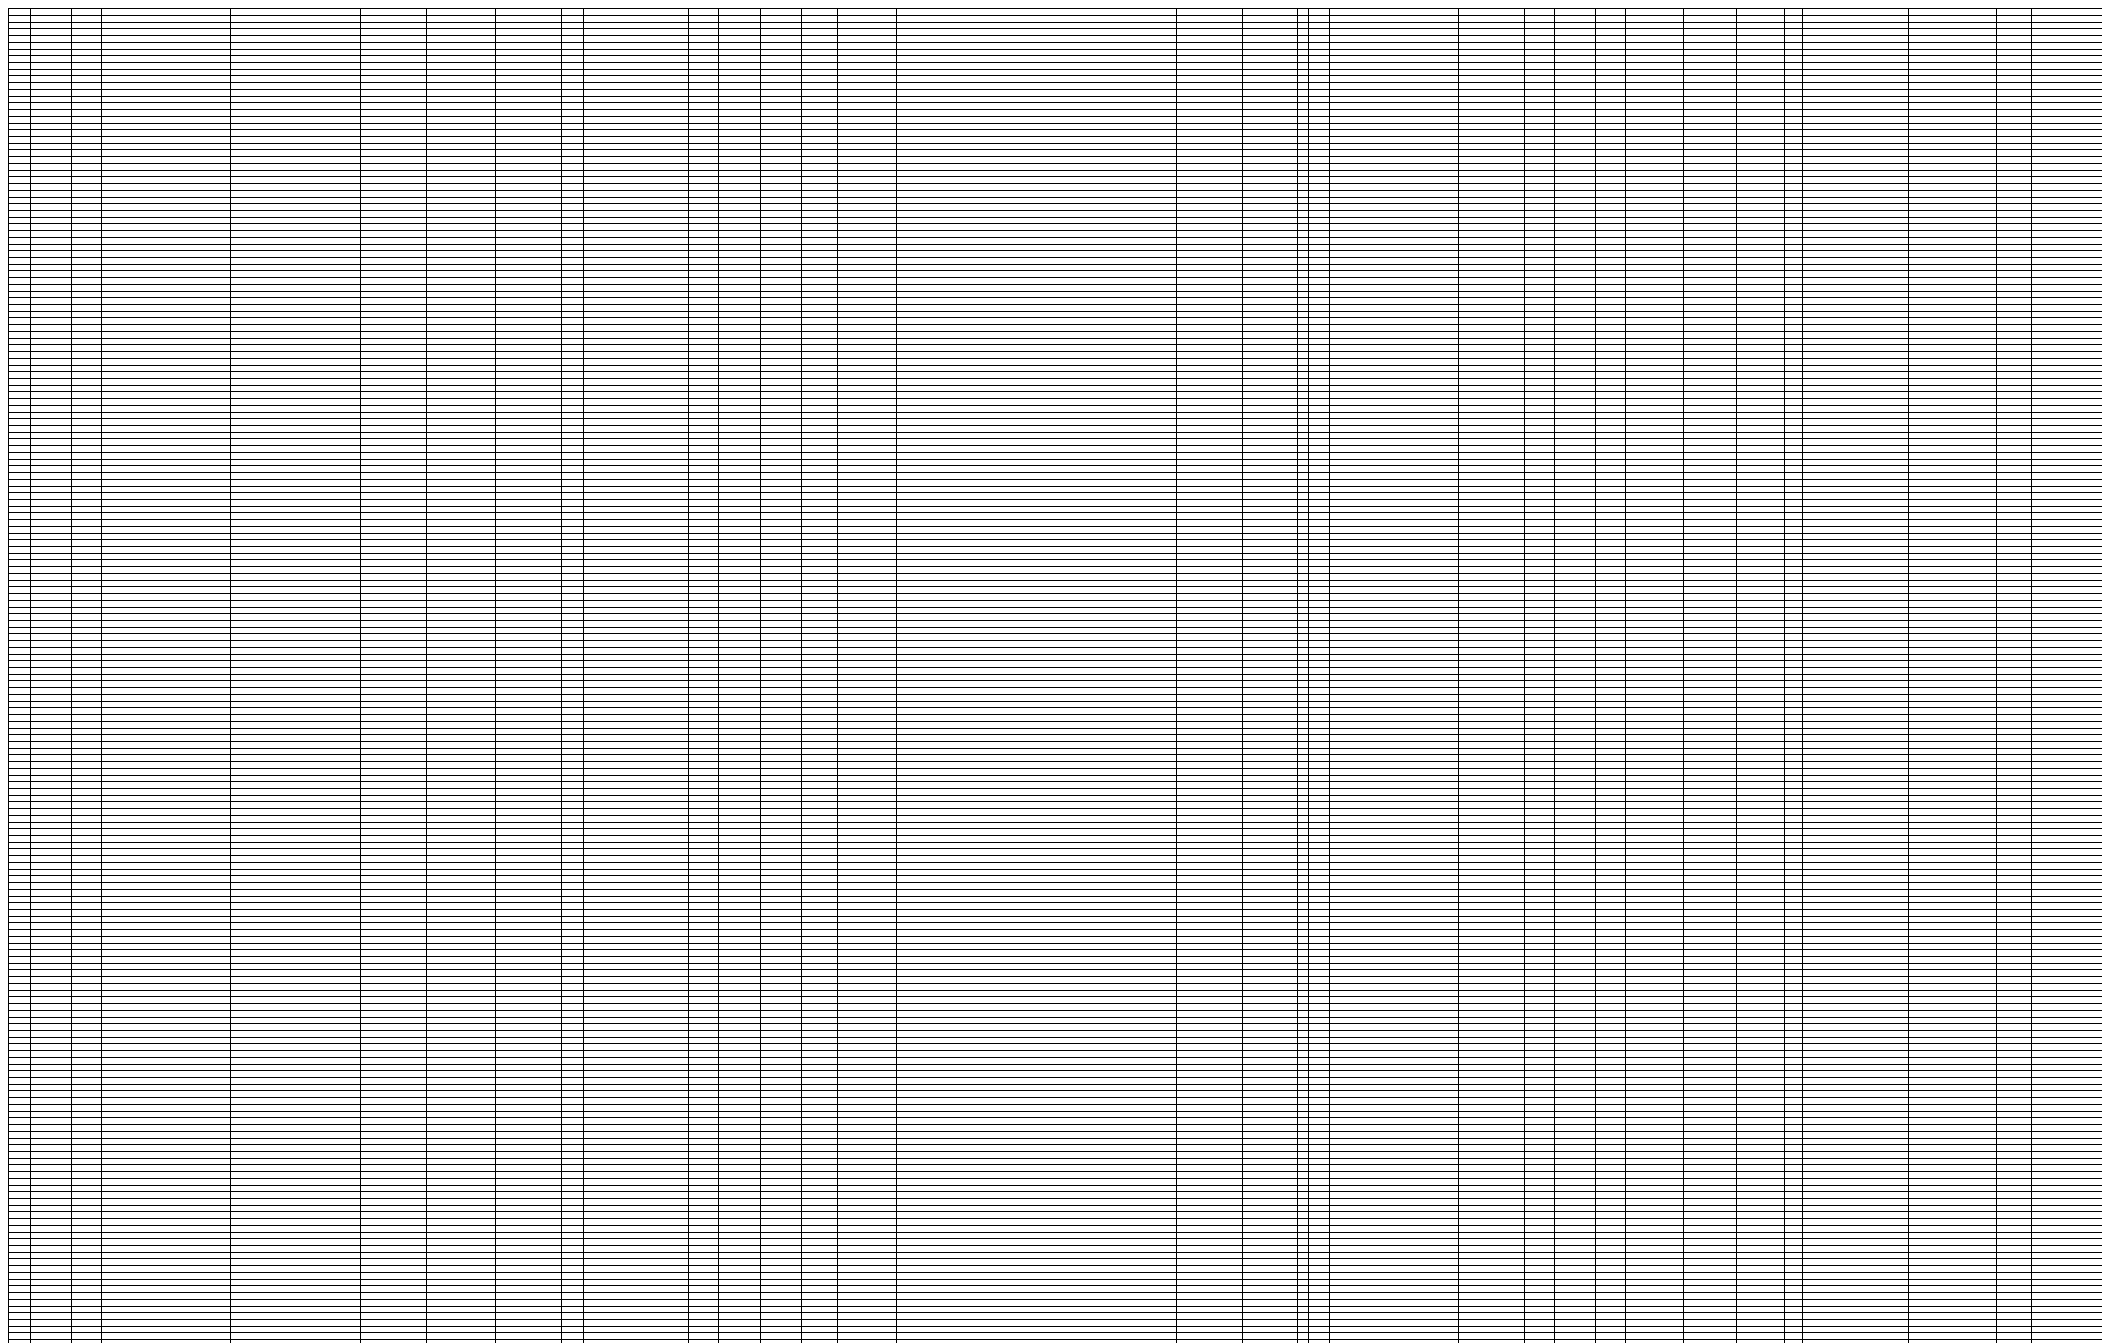

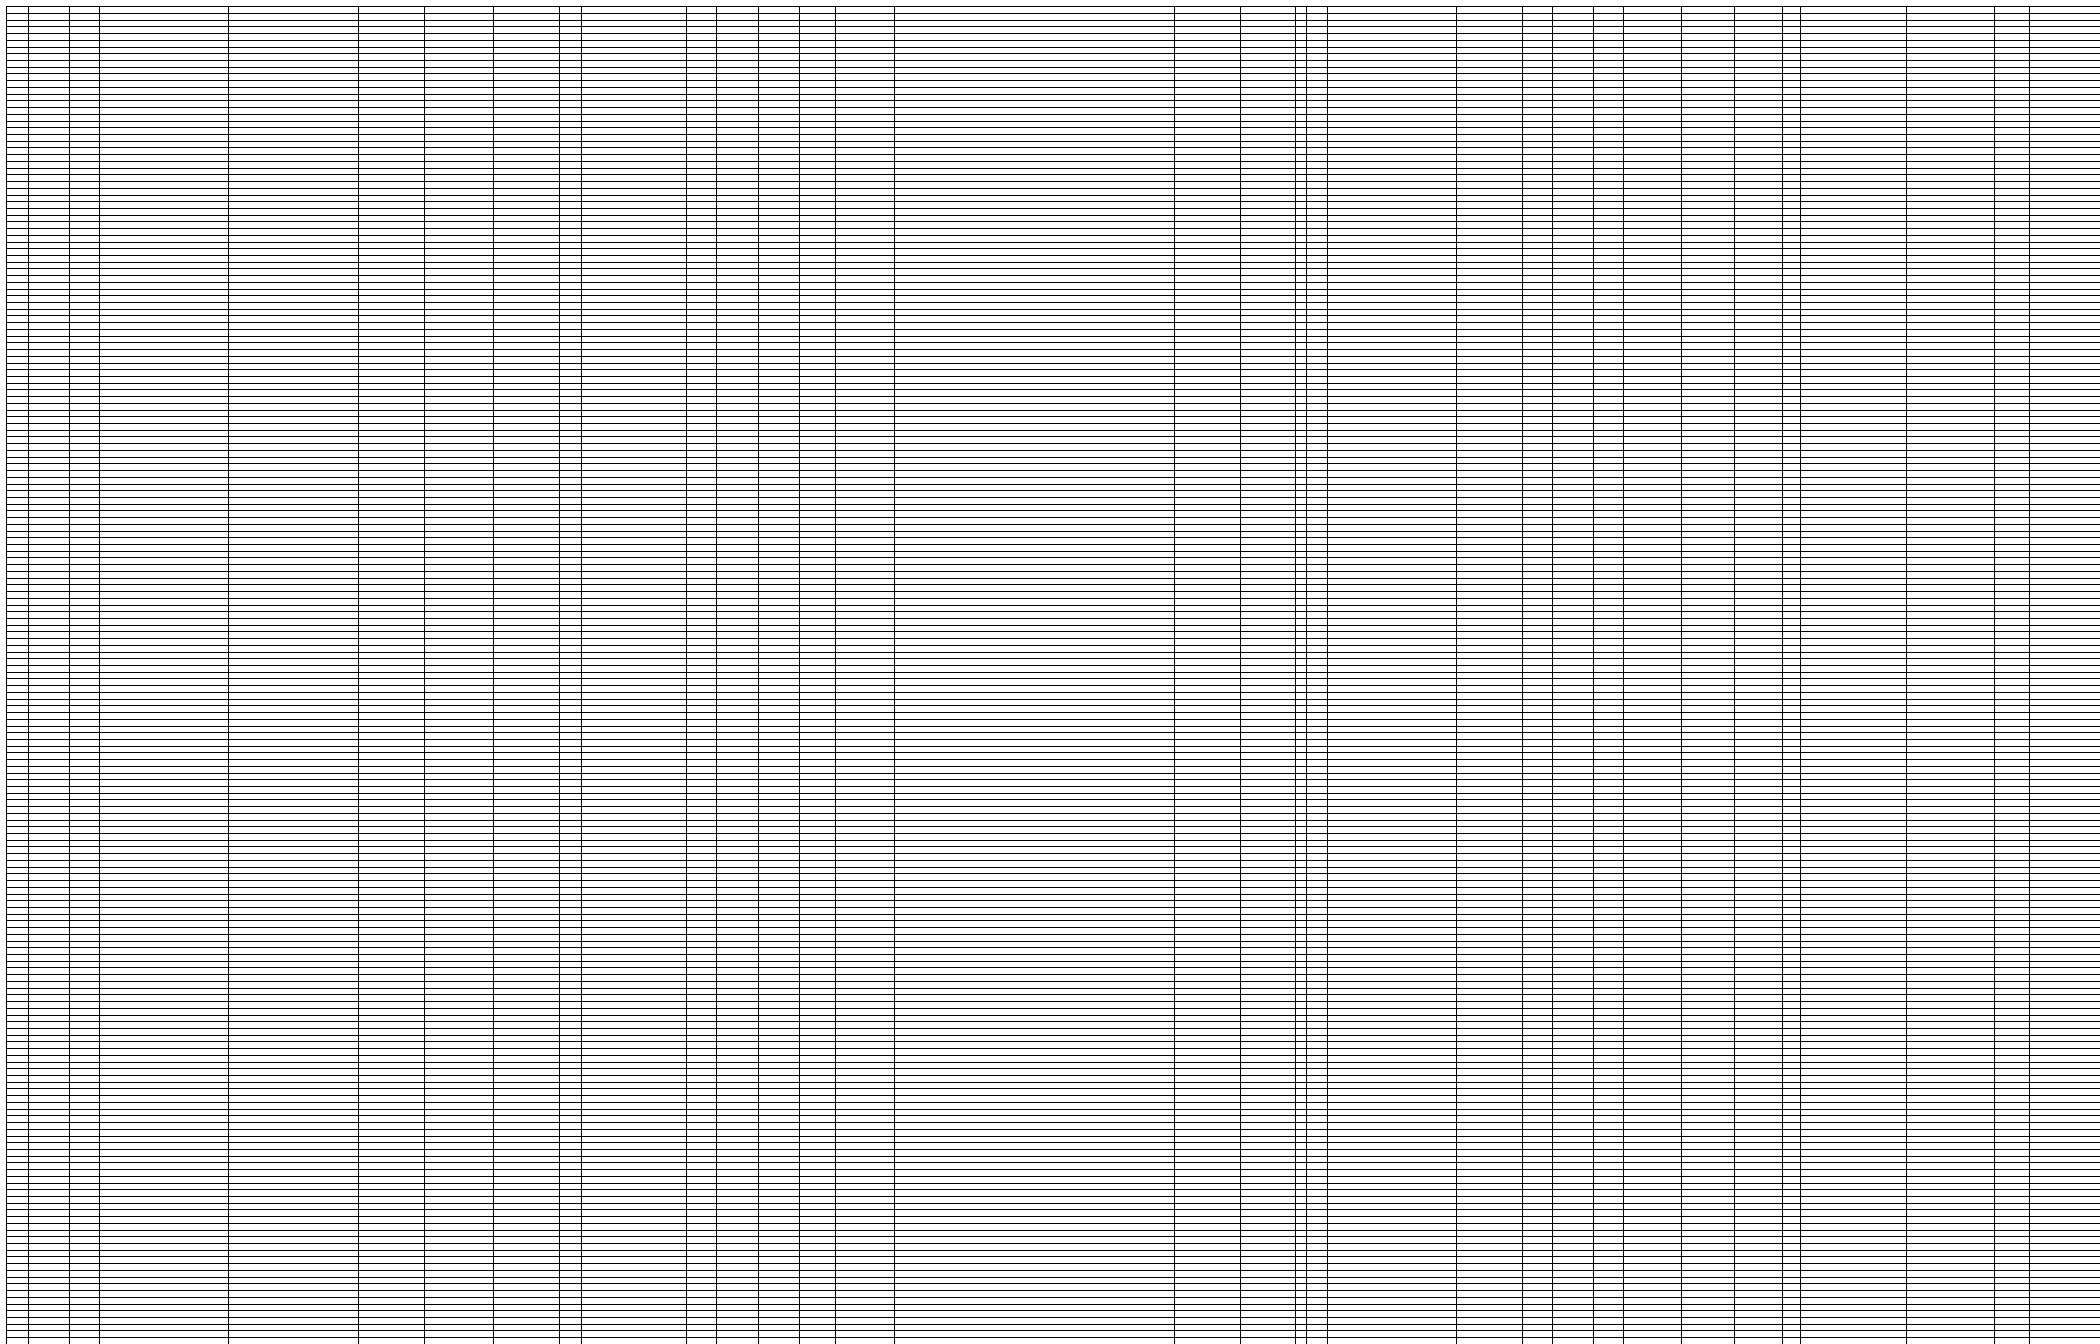

A blank sheet of graph paper with a fine grid pattern. The grid is composed of small, uniform squares that cover the entire area of the page. The lines are thin and black, creating a consistent and unbroken grid structure. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the page.

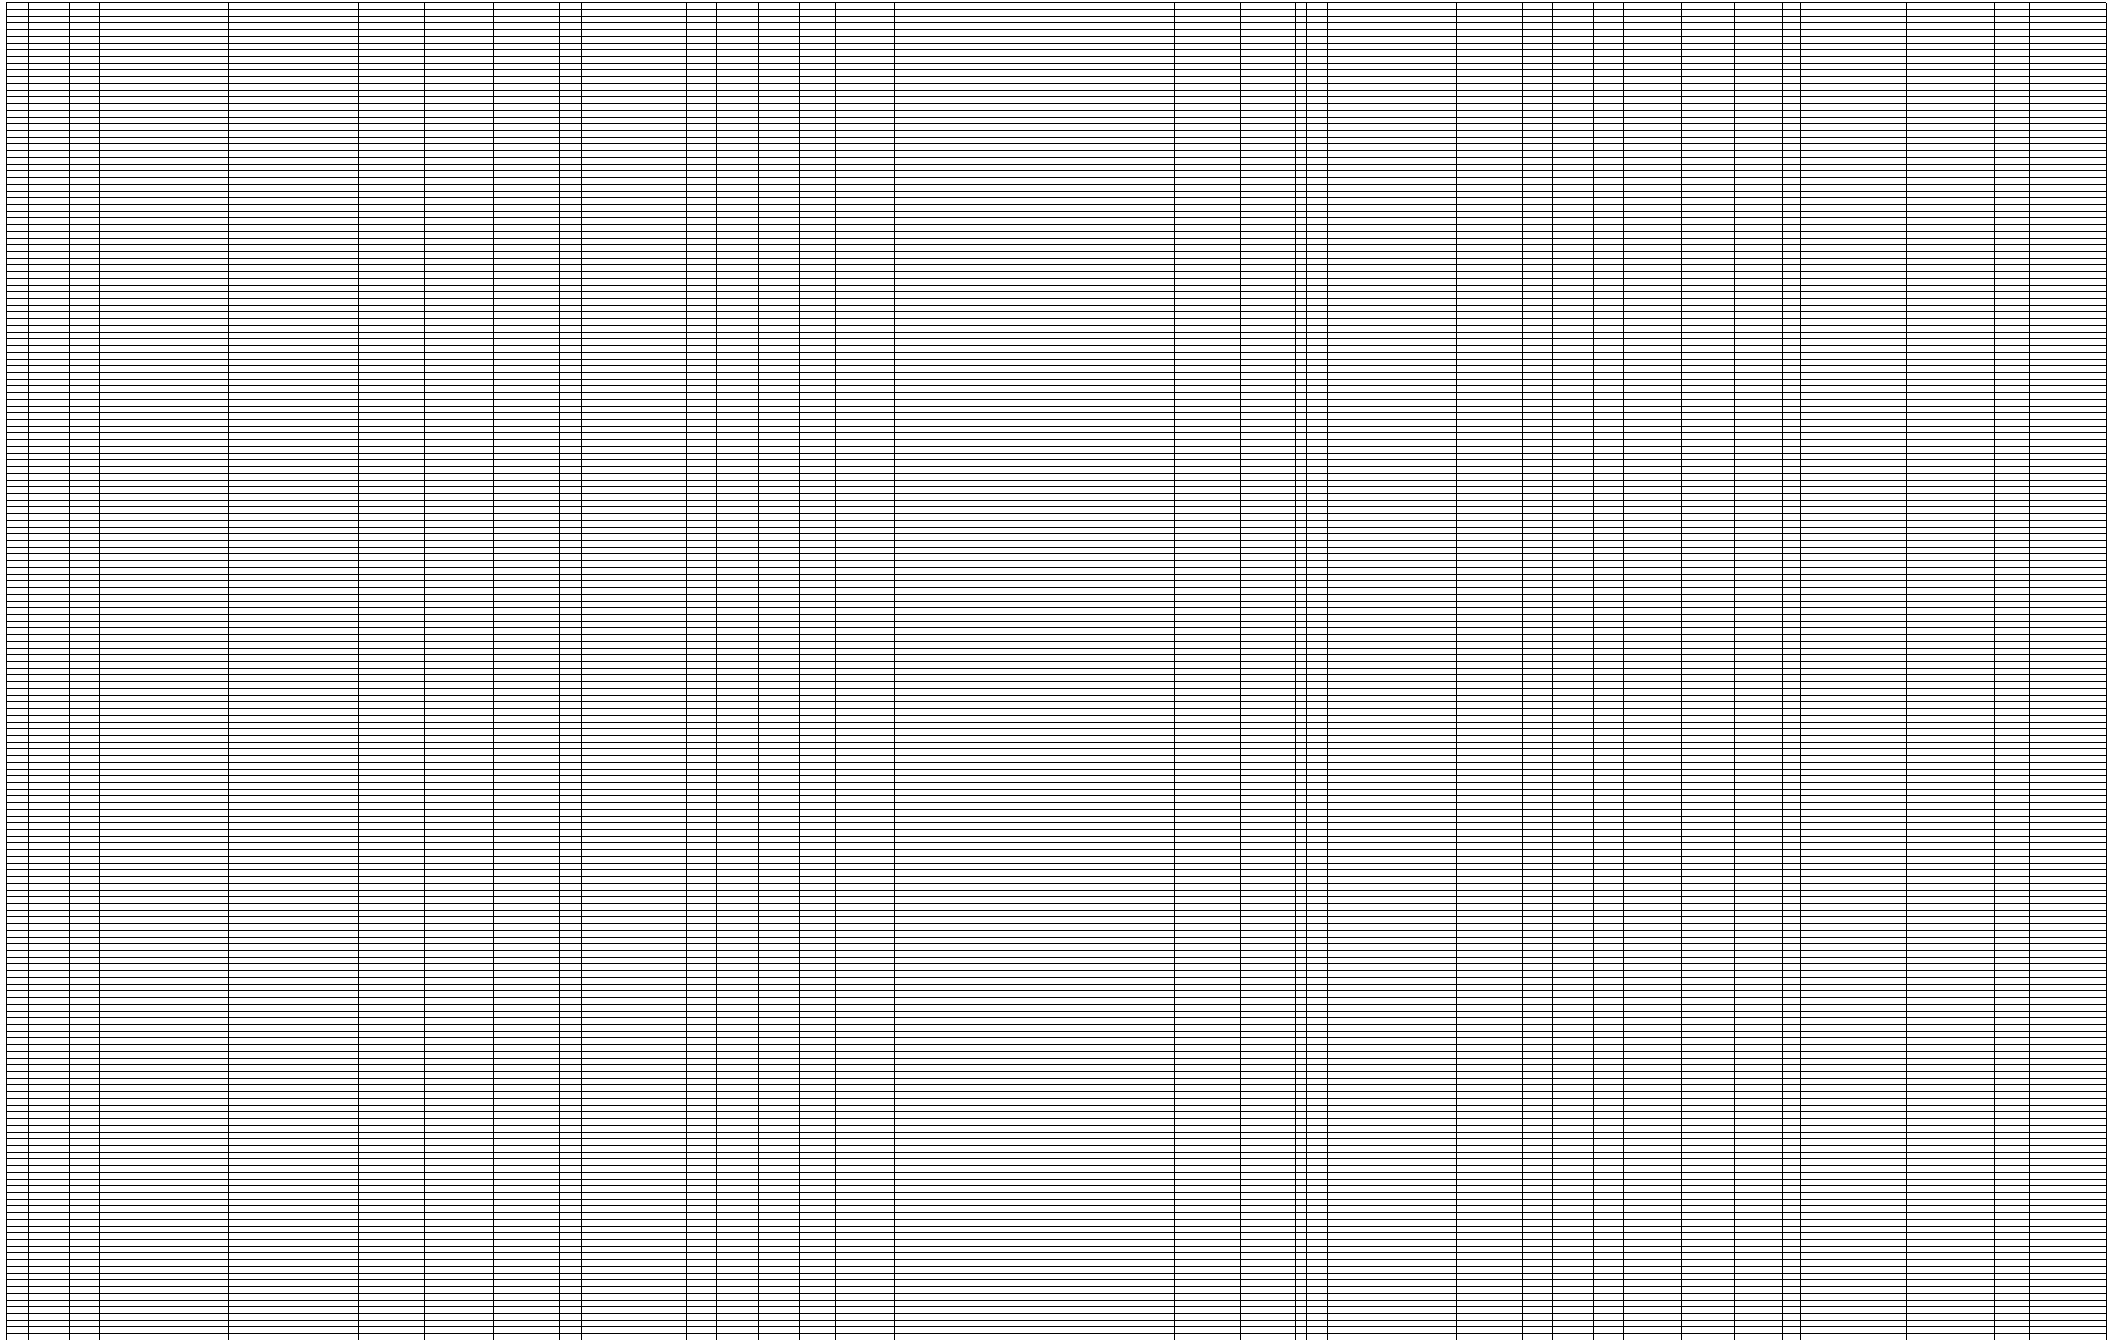

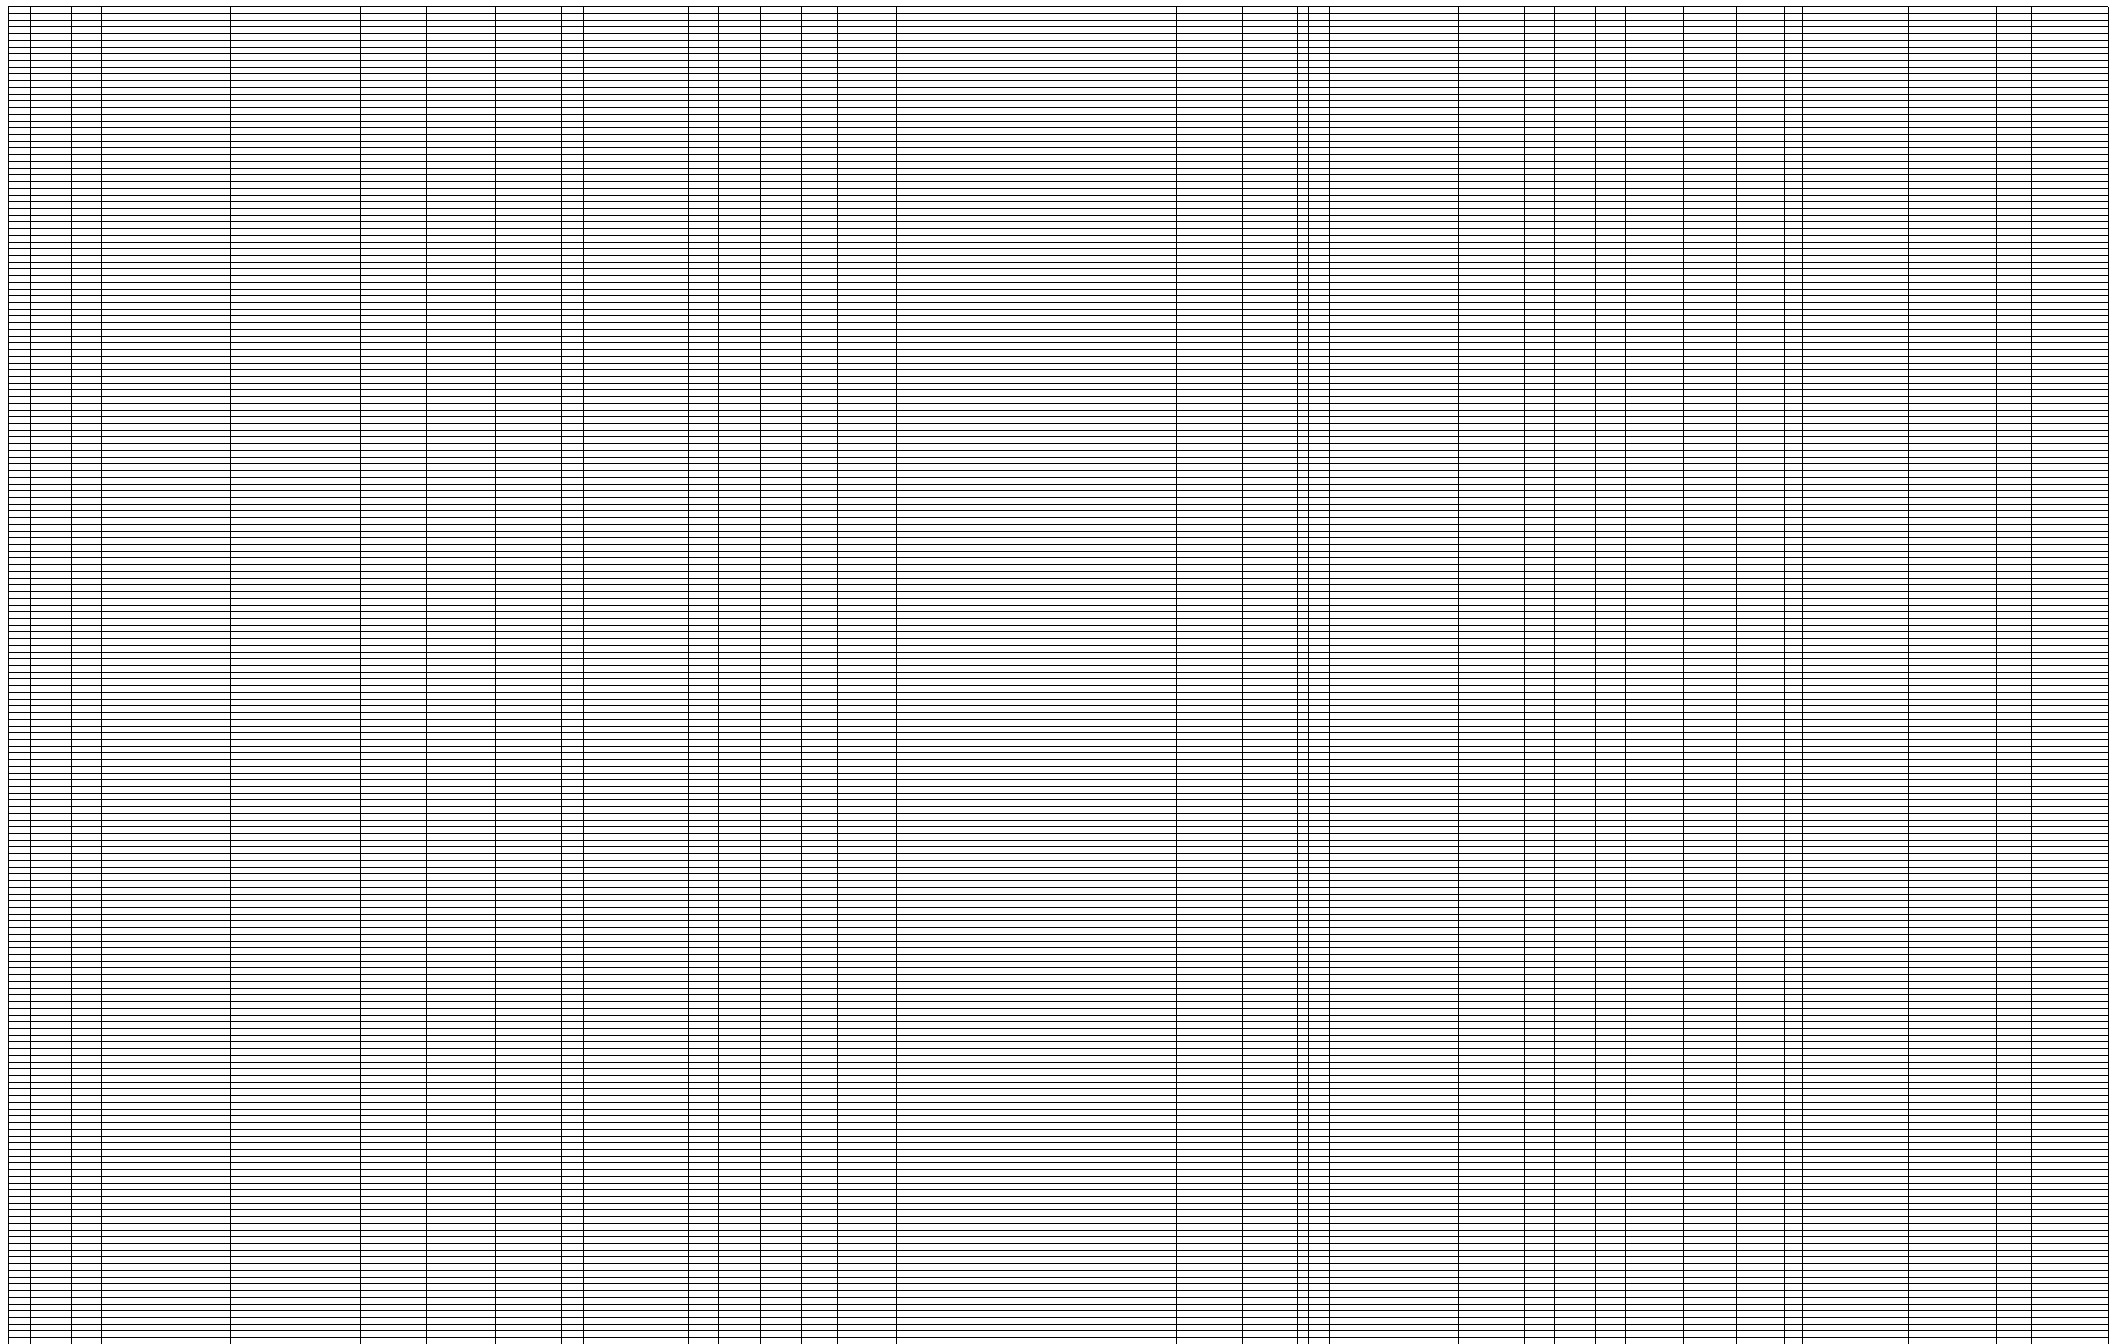

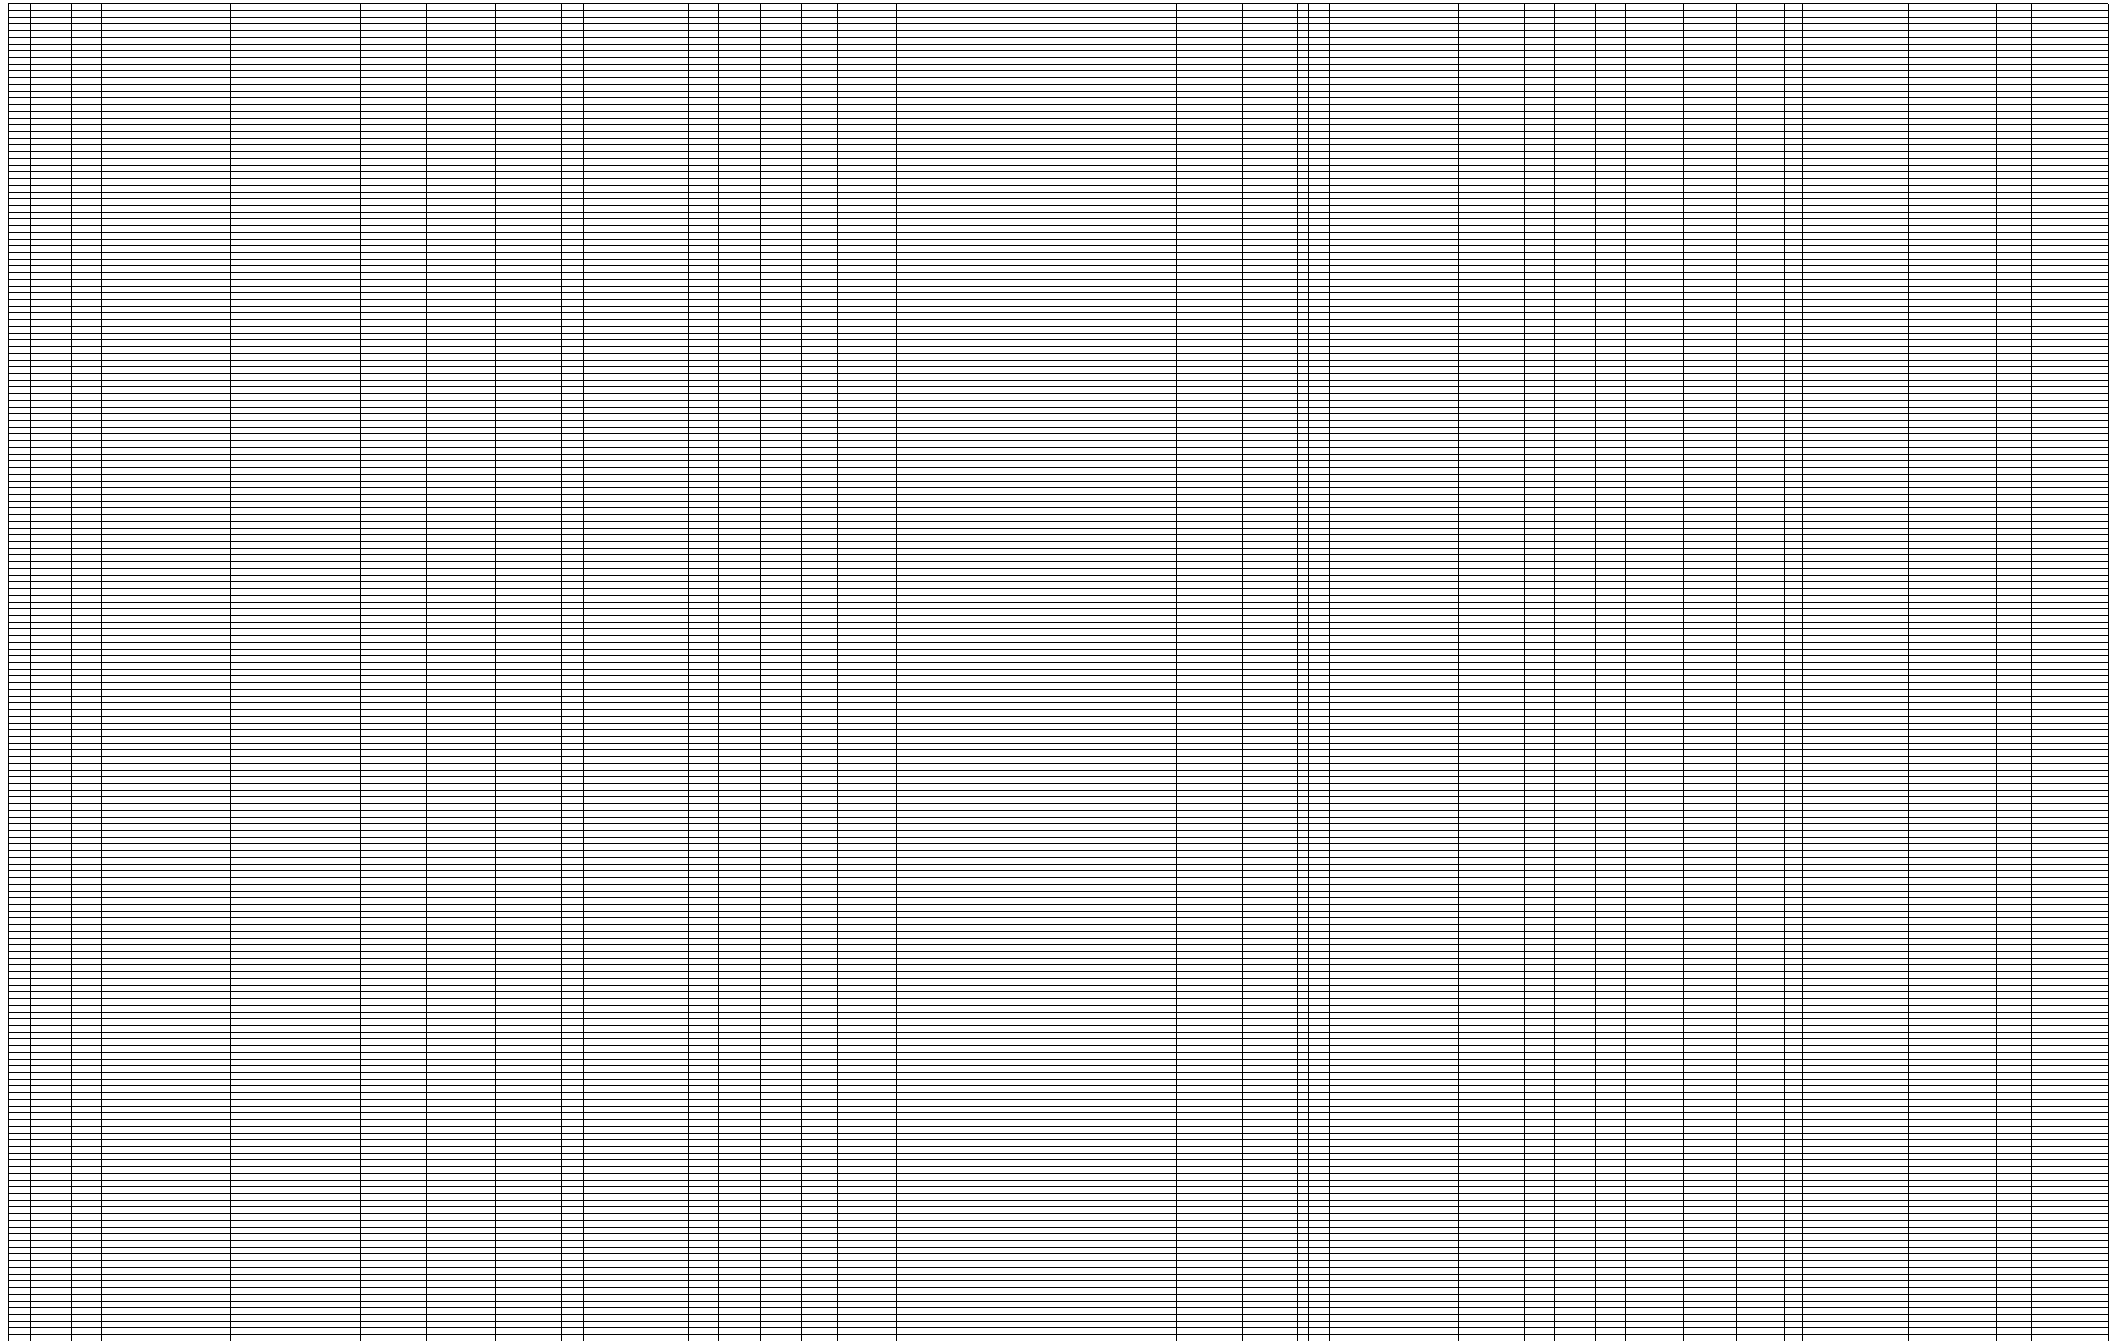

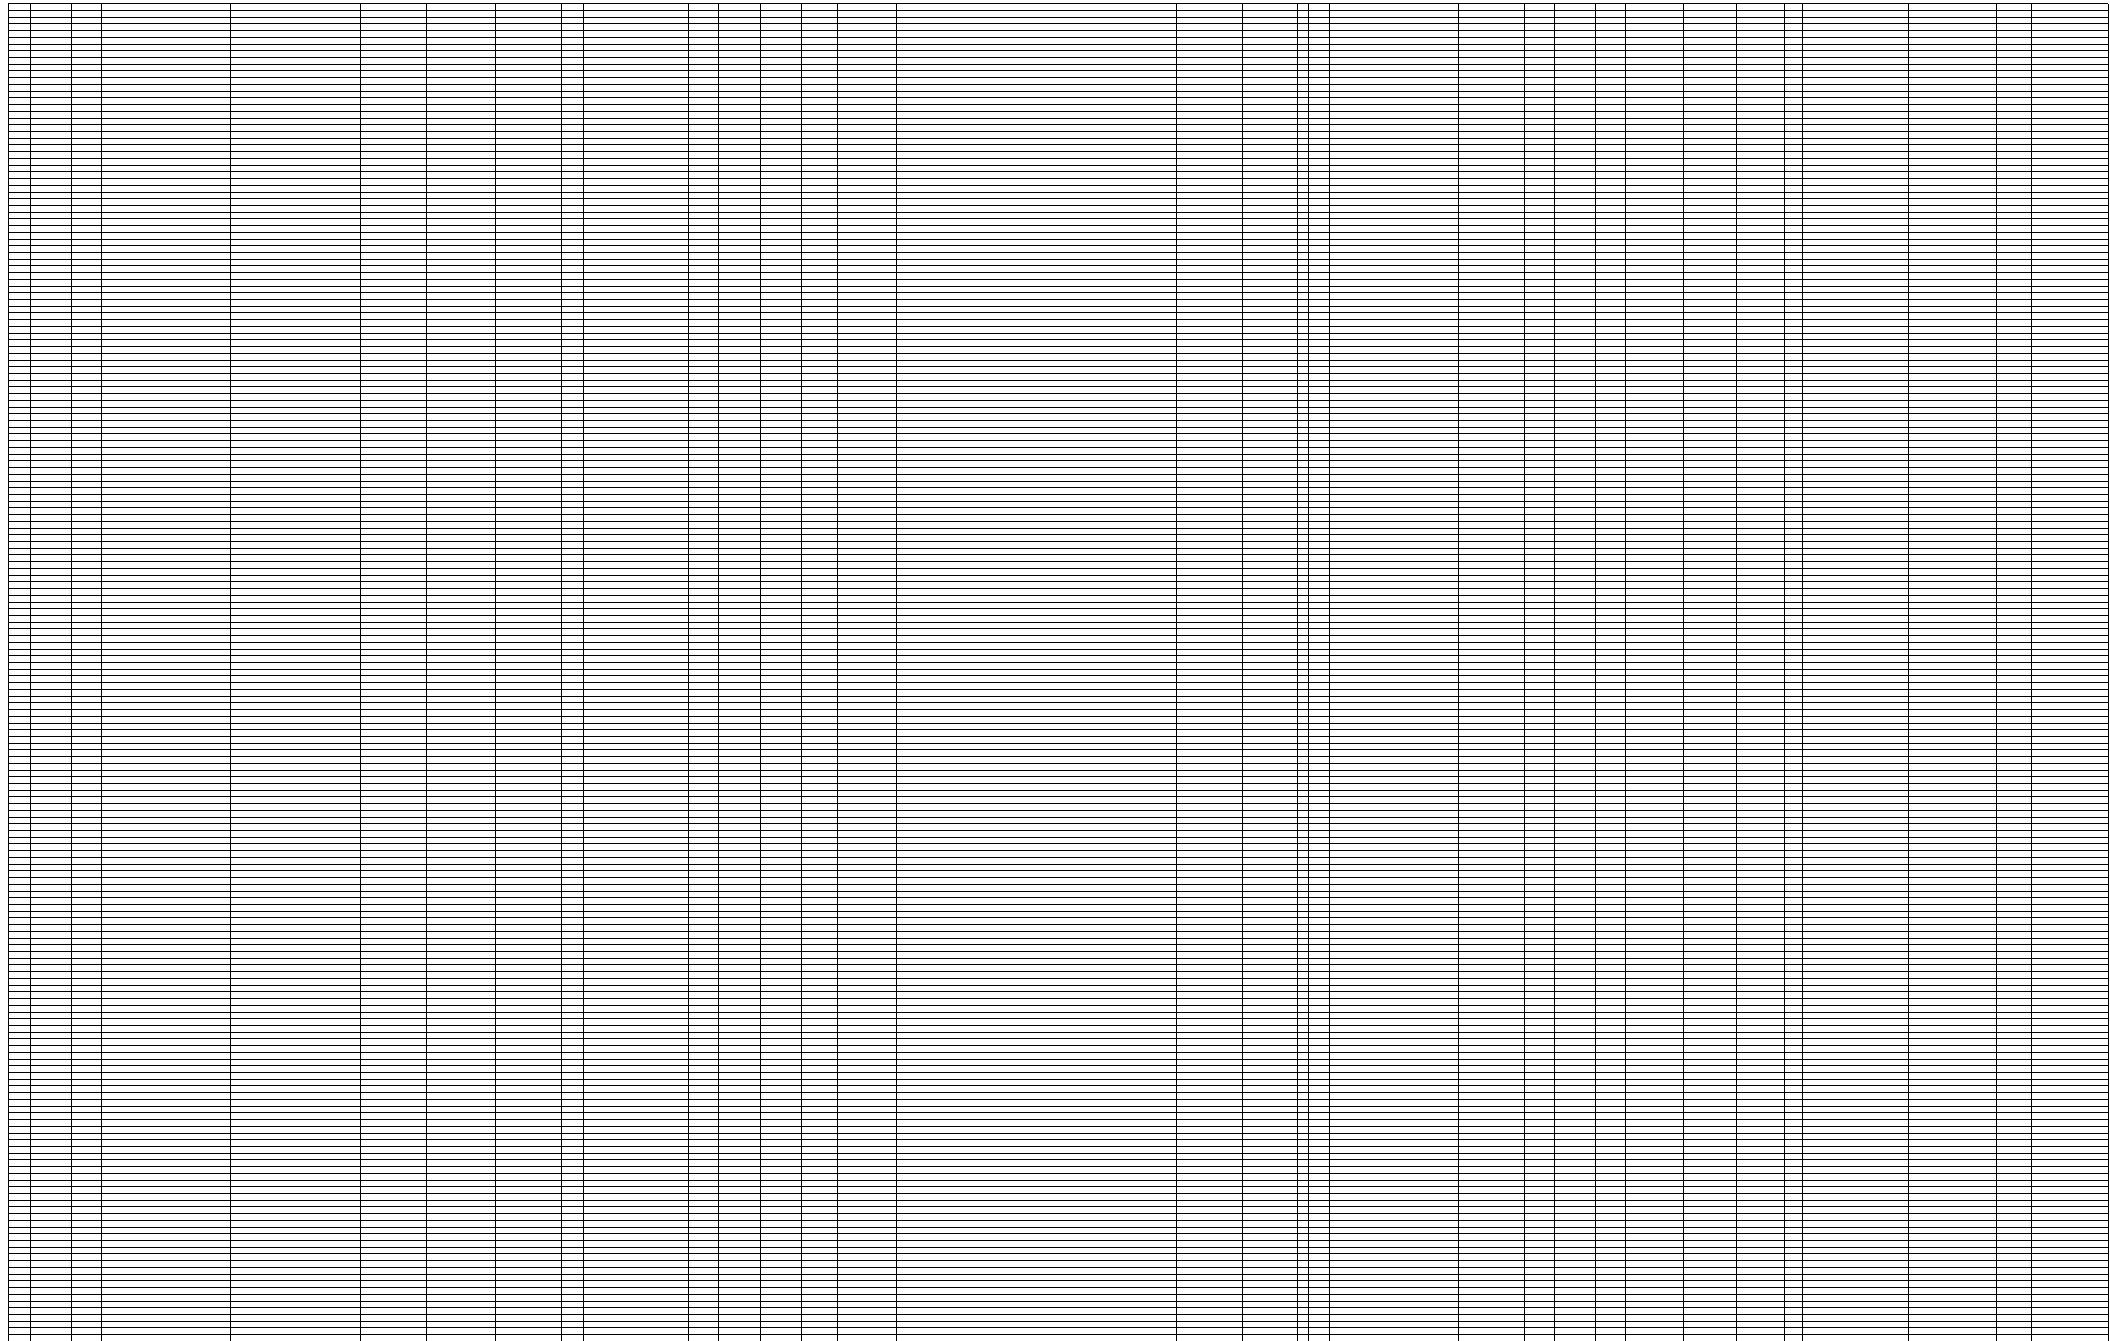

This image shows a full page of graph paper. It consists of a uniform grid of small squares. The grid is 28 columns wide and 40 rows high, creating a total of 1120 small square cells. The lines are thin and black, and the grid is centered on the page with a white margin around it.
